This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. OPINIONS.

"It puts the very latest results of biblical research and enquiry within the reach not only of those who have no ability for original research, but also of the immense number of intelligent students who have no time or opportunity to read the large and costly and often technical volumes in which these results are too often hidden."—REV. HUGH PRICE HUGHES, M.A.

"Here for a few shillings is a Library so complete and varied that it really seems as if nothing could be added. And within so small a compass lies more knowledge on scriptural subjects than was contained in all the great volumes of our fathers. Such a book demands the grateful acknowledgment of every Bible-reader."—REV. MARK GUY PEARSE.

"It is simply invaluable to those who desire a sound knowledge of the Holy Scriptures. Every preacher and Sunday-school teacher should get it."—Methodist Recorder.

"It is a veritable library in small compass. . . . This book should be the daily companion of every devout Sunday-school teacher, and the more deeply it is studied, the more highly it will be prized."—Wesleyan Methodist Sunday-school Magazine.

"Of the general excellence of the work it is impossible to speak too highly. We have seldom seen so much good material compressed into so small a space, and the volume is worthy of the distinguished band of Cambridge scholars who have produced it."—Guardian.

"As a whole it is admirable, and we are hardly going too far in saying that it is one of the very ablest of all the volumes that have yet appeared in the Cambridge Bible for Schools."—Record.

"We owe a great debt of gratitude to Professor Kirkpatrick for his scholarly and interesting volume."—Church Times.

Rev. RICHARD GREEN, Tutor, Wesleyan College, Didsbury.—"It is undoubtedly the richest store of Biblical knowledge ever put within the compass of a single volume."

Rev. ROBERT N. YOUNG, D.D.—"It is a storehouse of wealth, and will prove an invaluable treasure to all Bible students."

Rev. T. BOWMAN STEPHENSON, D.D., LL.D.—"If one could have only one book to assist in the study of the Bible, 'The Oxford Helps' would surely be the one."

Wesleyan Methodist Sunday-school Magazine.—"To have 'The Oxford Bible for Teachers' is to have a treasure for life; to master its 'Helps' almost entitles any one to a degree in divinity. We wish that every teacher throughout the English-speaking world could have a copy of it without delay."

Methodist Times.—"No minister of any denomination can afford to be without 'The Oxford Bible for Teachers.' It ought to be on the shelves of every local preacher and of every Sunday-school teacher."

A large number of eminent Clergymen and Ministers of all denominations concur in recommending the OXFORD BIBLE FOR TEACHERS, which has been most carefully and thoroughly revised by men whose names are of the highest authority in their several departments.

The Pastoral Session adjourned on Friday, July 26. The Representative Session assembled on Monday, July 29, and concluded its business on Friday, August 2. The Pastoral Session was resumed, and completed its business on Thursday, August 8. At the end of each Session the Minutes of the Session were read. The several Minutes of both Sessions were adopted by the Legal Conference.

In the Minutes which follow, the business which belongs to the Pastoral Session is placed first; that which belongs to the Representative Session, second; and then follows that which stands in relation to both.

The Conference in its Pastoral Session consisted, in addition to such Members of the Legal Conference as were able to attend, of such other Ministers as had been authorised to attend.

The Conference in its Representative Session consisted of such Members of the Legal Conference as had declared at the May Meeting of the District Synods their intention to attend, and of such Ministers and Laymen as were duly chosen.

For the names of those so chosen see Appendix I.

Q. VI. What Ministers have DIED since the last Conference?

A. 1. In Great Britain, twenty-six; viz.

(1) THOMAS GRIFFITH PUGH; who was born in Machynlleth, October 10, 1834. He was brought to a saving knowledge of the truth in early life, and was accepted for our Ministry in 1859. He took great delight in preaching; his sermons were interesting and profitable, often enlivened by quaint remarks, and delivered with fluency and animation. His ministry was accompanied by unction from the Holy One, and was successful in turning many to righteousness. His sincerity and tenderness made him beloved by all. Owing to a severe sprain, he became a Supernumerary at the Conference of 1893, and settled at Pwllheli. His health gradually declined, and on August 5, 1894, in the sixtieth year of his age and the thirty-sixth of his ministry, he departed suddenly, but in great peace, to be for ever with the Lord.

(2) WILLIAM SQUIRE SNOW; who was born at Exeter in 1831, was the son of godly parents, by whose example and teaching he was in early life deeply impressed. At the age of seventeen he was able to rejoice in a sense of sins forgiven. He was accepted as a Candidate for our Ministry in 1857, and sent to the Carnarvon Circuit. For thirty-seven years he did the work of a Methodist Preacher faithfully and diligently, securing the confidence and love of the Societies and attaching to himself many personal friends. His preaching was clear, evangelical, and practical; it was marked by originality and faithfulness, and, being accompanied with earnest prayer and enforced by a holy life, was greatly blessed to the edification of the Church and the salvation of souls. He was a diligent pastor of the flock, and by his tender sympathy endeared himself to all, those who knew him best loving him most. His highest ambition was to live in the constant friendship of God and to serve his generation. His ministerial life was conspicuous for unselfishness, disinterestedness, and patience; his domestic life was singularly beautiful: he ruled "well his own house, having his children in subjection with all gravity." His fatal illness was occasioned by an accident in the early part of 1894. He lingered for nearly nine months, bearing much suffering with saintly patience and cheerful resignation to the will of God. As the end drew near he exclaimed,

I the chief of sinners am,
But Jesus died for me.

"The future is very bright." "Glory shall burst on my vision. I shall see His face and prove the reality." When he could no longer speak, he lifted his hand in token of victory, and passed away in perfect peace on August 26, 1894.

(3) WILLIAM SCARBOROUGH; who was born at Barrow, in the Barton-on-Humber Circuit, on January 21, 1841. He was converted to God in his youth, and soon after began to preach. He was accepted as a Candidate by the Conference of 1861, and sent to the Theological Institution at Richmond. In 1864 he was appointed with David Hill to Hankow, and for twenty years laboured as a Missionary in that city. In 1885 he returned to England, shattered in health. He spent eight happy and successful years in the home work, being appointed Chairman of the Whitby and Darlington District in 1891. William Scarborough was a man greatly beloved. Blessed with a sunny, sanguine temperament, he was always cheerful. He was unostentatious, modest, and humble-minded. If office or distinction came to him, it came unsought. His pulpit ministrations were effective. His sermons were both doctrinal and practical, and were delivered with great earnestness. He was a diligent pastor, whose visits to the people's homes were always welcome. As a Superintendent, he watched over the interests of the Churches under his charge with paternal care.

It is however as a Missionary that William Scarborough's name will be handed down to posterity. During the last eight years of his residence in China he presided over the Wuchang District, and directed the growth of this mission with singular wisdom, foresight, and tact. His mastery of the Chinese language was only equalled by his knowledge of the people; and herein lay his great power as a vernacular preacher. His literary work was considerable. His "Collection of Chinese Proverbs" shows his wide reading in many branches of Chinese literature. He had the joy of seeing his work in China prosper and extend. He left behind him, at Hankow, a vigorous native Church. To the last he retained his missionary zeal and enthusiasm, and nobly served the cause of Missions by his powerful advocacy. The end came suddenly. On Sunday, September 16, 1894, he preached thrice, returning home about ten o'clock, apparently in his usual health. Shortly after retiring to rest, he complained of a terrible pain in his side. To his wife he said, "It's growing very dark." By-and-by he said, "If this be death, it's all right," and immediately after he "fell asleep" at Darlington, in the fifty-fourth year of his age, and the thirty-second of his ministry.

(4) HUGH JONES (A); who was born at Carmarthen on October 3, 1813. He was the subject of religious impressions in early life, and decided for Christ when thirteen years of age. He entered the Ministry in 1834, and continued in full work until 1881. Whether labouring in country Circuits, like Bradford (Wilts), or striving to bring the sailors to Christ when he was in charge of the London "Seamen's Mission," or rejoicing in the tide of spiritual conquest and enthusiasm in Yorkshire Circuits, like Doncaster and Rotherham, he was honoured by the appreciation of those among whom he laboured and by the esteem and confidence of his brethren in the Ministry. This was several times shown in his election to the Chairmanship of some of our most important Districts. As a Minister of the gospel, his character was marked by a beautiful and simple devotion to the cause of the Master. His preaching was eminently evangelical, plain, and practical, and aimed at the winning of souls for Christ. As a pastor, he was earnest and faithful, frequently seeking opportunities of speaking in private to his people about their spiritual condition. During his last long illness, borne with tranquil resignation to the will of God, he often expressed his deep-rooted faith in Christ as his all-sufficient Saviour. He entered into rest at Handsworth, Birmingham, on October 18, 1894.

(5) THOMAS BLINKHORN BUTCHER; who was born at Preston, of godly parents, in 1821. When twenty-two years of age he was convinced of sin at a watch-night service, and three weeks later, whilst thoughtfully walking past the Mission House, London, the light broke into his soul, and in the midst of the busy moving throng he was forced to stand, overwhelmed with a sense of pardoning love. He entered the Ministry at the age of twenty-seven, and was sent at once to the West Indies, where he spent eleven years. On his return to England, he laboured with acceptance for twenty-four years in the home work. In 1877 he was elected Chairman of the Isle of Man District, where his name and his works are still held in high regard. In 1882, at the call of the Missionary Committee, he returned to Jamaica, where he spent seven years. His sermons were carefully prepared, and were full of practical Christian teaching. In discipline he had a high ideal, which he ever strove to maintain. He was a pure and zealous man of God, and was among the most genial, gentle, and kind-hearted of Ministers. For some months before his death he was not quite conscious, but in lucid intervals his mental and spiritual energies were undiminished. His Christian confidence and triumph in the end were complete. Precious testimony was given when his mind was clear. "I am waiting on the banks of the river till the King's messenger shall come and take me over"; "I should like to have an angel's voice to proclaim the glories of redemption." His last conscious words were:

How happy every child of grace!

On November 11, 1894, he passed quietly into the light of God's presence.

(6) FRANCIS WAKEFIELD GREEVES; who was born at Stockton-on-Tees on October 10, 1825. He was the son of a Wesleyan Minister, and one of three brothers who followed in the father's steps. He was naturally studious, and as a child more fond of reading than play. He was educated at Kingswood School, entered the Ministry in 1849, and was at once appointed to a Circuit. The times were troublous; but his self-control and genial disposition enabled him firmly to discharge the duties which fell to him without losing the respectful regard of those who differed from him. In quietness and in confidence was his strength. Courtesy was a marked feature in his character. His business capacity was proved, not only in Circuit administration, but also as Secretary of the Conference Memorials Committee, an office which he filled with admirable efficiency for twenty-two years. He was also Secretary for some years of the Committee of Privileges. But his delight was in preaching. His ministrations were thoughtful, evangelical, and practical, giving proof of culture and careful reading. As pastor and teacher, as friend and father, he was ever welcomed by the young as by the old, both in his own home and in the homes of others. He gained and kept the esteem and confidence of those who knew him best, and his colleagues in particular entertained for him warm affection. He was modest and reticent in his statements of personal experience, but the reality and depth of his Christian life were beautifully illustrated in his home and in the Church.

In 1888 he retired from Circuit responsibilities, but for more than five years he continued to preach and to teach. His last days were spent at Plymouth, where he ministered with great acceptance, in other denominations as well as in our own. Early in 1894 he was stricken with serious illness, and whilst yet a prisoner, the sudden death of his eldest brother came as a heavy blow. From that illness he rallied, and was able to visit his younger brother, then also severely afflicted, at Southlands College. But the end was near, and, after much suffering, endured with patient hope and fearless trust, he entered into rest on December 18, 1894, in the seventieth year of his age, and the forty-sixth of his ministry. So he realised what he expressed to one of his family a few months before, that whenever his time came he should depart in sure and certain hope.

(7) JOHN GRIFFITHS; who was born at Pentref Bach, Borth, Cardiganshire, in 1846. He had godly parents, who, from his infancy, nurtured him in the admonition of the Lord. He was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry in 1869, and for twenty-two years laboured with great acceptance in the South Wales District. Gentleness, kindness, and courtesy were prominent in his character. To a well-balanced mind, cultivated by diligent reading, were added moral and spiritual endowments, which made him a workman needing not to be ashamed. As a preacher, he was earnest, practical, and powerful in his appeal to the conscience; and as the result of his ministry many were added to the Lord. There was in him a rare combination of the qualities which go to make a model pastor. He was gentle, yet firm; dignified, yet affable; a pattern of ministerial propriety, and a skilful administrator. As Superintendent of Circuits, as Financial Secretary, and in other official positions, he manifested conspicuous ability; and throughout his ministerial course he steadily increased in power and efficiency. As a colleague, he was considerate, brotherly, and genial. By his brethren he was greatly beloved and trusted.

He was compelled by failing health to become a Supernumerary in 1893. During his illness his faith was unwavering. He said to his friends several times, "I have no will of my own now; I am thoroughly resigned to His will." On the last morning of his life, with a smile on his face, he said to his wife, "I have seen Jesus on the other side; it is all right." Shortly afterwards he triumphantly exclaimed, "Leaving troubles for glory. Hallelujah!" He peacefully fell asleep at Swansea, on December 19, 1894, in the forty-ninth year of his age, and the twenty-fourth of his ministry.

(8) GEORGE KENYON; who was born at Wath-upon-Dearne, on January 26, 1840. He was converted to God in his eighteenth year. The early part of his ministry was spent very successfully in Home Mission work. He was highly esteemed as a good preacher, a zealous pastor, a prudent and an able administrator, a beloved colleague, a faithful friend, and a man greatly blessed by his Master. He was especially interested in the spiritual welfare of young people, and whilst cultivating a fine catholic spirit, he tried earnestly to bind them to the Church of their fathers, and to bring them into its fold. George Kenyon rendered excellent service as Financial Secretary of two London Districts, as the first Honorary Librarian of the Allan Library, as Secretary of the Necessitous Local Preachers' Fund, and in other offices of trust. He was a godly, sincere, consistent, and earnest man. He was disciplined by great pain, but his faith in God was not shaken. In much suffering, he was cheerfully submissive to the Hand that pressed heavily upon him. His personal afflictions made him specially sympathetic and tender towards those who were called to endure pain and bereavement. In his last hours keen agony was followed by delirium, during which he died. He uttered no words of testimony, but none was needed; he left the testimony of a good life—a life of Christian beauty, of great usefulness, and of unbroken faithfulness. He died at Hampstead on New Year's morning, 1895, in the fifty-fifth year of his age, and the thirty-fourth of his ministry.

(9) WILLIAM ELTON; who was born at Shawell, near Lutterworth, on November 24, 1803. He was converted when about eighteen, and without delay devoted himself to active Christian work. It was no uncommon thing for him to walk twenty miles on the Sunday, in order to meet his class and take part in the prayer-meeting at the quiet country village of Thorne. He was accepted for the Ministry in 1829, and for forty-seven years continued in the full work. He never failed to win the esteem and affection of his people, and in many instances saw extraordinary prosperity in his Circuits. At Belper, nearly a hundred members were added to the Church each year of his residence there. At Altrincham a great revival broke out, and the Society was largely increased. On his retirement from the full work of the Ministry, he took charge of the little Society at Asbury Chapel, Handsworth, Birmingham, preaching regularly for four years, and doing a large amount of visiting, especially among the poor and sick. He was a powerful and impressive preacher, a careful student, a faithful pastor. Reality and cheerfulness stamped all his life. He was not afraid to be himself, and, being assured of the favour of God his Father, his reverent spirit was without fear. He was markedly courteous, a true Christian gentleman. Originality of thought and expression, and a constant play of kindly humour, made him a delightful companion. He glorified God in his home. To many a young Minister he was a father in Christ. After a long illness, borne with unfaltering patience, he passed to his reward on January 2, 1895, in the ninety-second year of his age, and the sixty-fifth of his ministry.

(10) FREDERICK EWER; who was born at Windsor, June 4, 1827. Through the faithful preaching and pastoral counsels of the Rev. Thomas Turner he was awakened to his need of salvation. He joined a band of youths who met together daily for prayer, and was soon soundly converted. He was appointed a class-leader, and in 1857 was accepted by the Conference as a Probationer. In the earlier days of modern Home Mission enterprise he did well and faithfully the work of an evangelist in the neighbourhood of Spitalfields. Subsequently he rendered good service in connexion with the Seamen's Mission. In his earlier Circuits especially he was in labours more abundant, and many were added to the Lord. His preaching was clear, earnest, and faithful. At the Conference of 1893 he became a Supernumerary. For fifteen months he laboured beyond his strength, and won the esteem of those with whom he was associated. On Sunday, December 23, 1894, he was smitten by apoplexy and partial paralysis of the brain, and after a period of intermittent consciousness he fell asleep on January 11, 1895, in the sixty-eighth year of his age, and the thirty-eighth of his ministry.

(11) JOHN GREENFIELD DEVIS; who was born at Great Bridge, Staffordshire. His parents, who were godly Methodists, trained their family "in the nurture and admonition of the Lord." He was converted under the ministry of the late Rev. John J. Sargent, then labouring in the Wednesbury Circuit, and at once gave himself to the fellowship and work of the Methodist Church. He was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry in 1874. His piety was deep and ardent, his gifts were diligently cultivated, and his life was fully devoted to his work. As a preacher, he was plain and practical. His sermons showed careful study and prayerful preparation, and their delivery was enlightened by gleams of native humour, hallowed by spiritual feeling and characterised by directness of aim. As a pastor, he was diligent and faithful; as a colleague, he possessed the love and confidence of those who laboured with him. Judged by the best results, his life was a blessed success. The call hence was sudden. Apparently in his usual health on the Wednesday, whilst writing a letter he was suddenly seized with acute pain, and, notwithstanding all that skill and tenderness could do, he passed away on the morning of the following Saturday. He was conscious to the last. All was bright. In distressing suffering, as in joyous health, he was ever the same—serene, trustful, and happy. After a night of great pain he said to his Superintendent, "Bless the Lord!

Jesus Christ is a splendid Rock to build upon." He died on January 26, 1895, in the forty-fourth year of his age, and the twenty-first of his ministry.

(12) HENRY S. B. YATES; who was born at Burley-in-Wharfedale on February 16, 1853. Whilst residing at Horsforth he was led to Christ during some special services. Removing to Liverpool, he offered himself as a Candidate for the Ministry, and after a brief residence at Richmond College was sent into Circuit work. Six years were spent in Scotland, where his ministry was marked by peculiar power and acceptance. A special feature of his work in Birmingham was the remarkable success of his Sunday afternoon Bible-class. In Hull he threw himself heart and soul into mission work. He went to live in the midst of the people, and zealously carried out many valuable social schemes. Thousands were made acquainted with the life and work of our Saviour through his open-air magic-lantern services at the Dockside. As a mission preacher and temperance advocate, he was in much request. He possessed considerable literary ability. As a preacher and a writer, his style was crisp and illustrative. He always sought to win men to Christ. He was everywhere the same homely, enthusiastic man, full of good-humour, tireless energy, and loving devotion to his Master. Whilst the aged and the poor loved him, he had special influence with young men. Such was his interest in them, that often after a long day's toil he would sit through the night watching by their sick-beds. Five times attacked by rheumatic fever, he had frequently expressed the conviction that his end would be sudden. And such it was. Death found him in the midst of work, displaying his wonted serenity and brightness. There was no time, and no need, for any final testimony. He died, at the age of forty-one, on January 29, 1895, in the ambulance in which he was being conveyed to his home at Ilford, which he had left only a few hours before in apparent health and vigour.

(13) HENRY M. RATCLIFFE; who was born at Southwell on March 23, 1842. His father was a devoted Methodist, and home influence and prayers had much to do with leading his son to Christian discipleship. Henry M. Ratcliffe, converted while yet a boy, began to preach at the age of seventeen, and was accepted as a Candidate in 1862. After two years' successful study at Didsbury, he began his work as a Methodist Minister. His character was refined, his temperament sensitive, his mind meditative and devout, his heart gentle and tender. He was indeed a modest, conscientious, courteous, Christian gentleman. His preaching was evangelical, fearlessly faithful, notably edifying and soul-saving. His sermons, prepared with great care, showed deep insight into God's word, clear views of truth, and an elevated range of thought. In pastoral work he was most attentive and sympathetic; to the aged, the sick, and the poor, he was a friend indeed. He made a special study of Methodist polity, was unswervingly loyal to the distinctive principles and ordinances of our Church, and wisely administered the affairs of his Circuits. He was in feeble health when, in 1892, he was appointed to Holyhead, the climate of which, it was hoped, would restore him. But the improvement was only temporary. On January 2, 1895, he became dangerously ill, and during the following weeks was often unconscious. When he had the power to do so, he expressed great sorrow at leaving his wife and children, deep concern for the interests of the Church, and an ardent "desire to depart, and to be with Christ." On February 6, 1895, his tender spirit, chastened by much physical weakness and pain, passed peacefully away, in the fifty-third year of his age, and the thirty-first of his ministry. He has left behind the influence of a devout life, the honour of a good name, an unstained record of faithful service, and the charm of a refined and gentle character.

(14) JOSEPH CHAPMAN; who was born at Worksop, on November 24, 1815. He was the son of the Rev. Joseph Chapman, and was educated at Woodhouse Grove, where he became head boy in the school. He was converted to God during a remarkable revival, and was subsequently a master in the school for four years. In 1845 he was received "on trial" as a Travelling Preacher. For seventeen years he continued in the itinerancy, preaching with success, and winning the esteem and affection of those who knew him. Yielding to the depression caused by a nervous affection, he became a Supernumerary in 1861. Seven years later he took up his residence in Blackheath, where, on February 7, 1895, he died. During the brief term of his active ministry Joseph Chapman won a distinct place among Methodist Preachers. His sermons were uniformly bright and interesting, without a note of dulness or formality. They manifested careful thought and deep feeling, and were delivered with the emphasis that accompanies perfect faith. They produced lasting impressions upon a wide variety of hearers. Simple peasant people rejoiced in their homeliness and fervour, and listeners of exceptional culture were arrested and charmed by their intelligence, sincerity, and force. In his retirement he pursued his studies, especially in the department of biblical criticism, devoting himself to the daily reading of the Hebrew text. His mind was alive to the controversies of the day, but his faith in the divine revelation was without a flaw. As he lay upon his death-bed, he experienced the coming of the light that is clearest at eventide. To one who visited him he said, "I have not a peg on which I can hang a doubt." He rejoiced in the prospect of the welcome he was sure that he would receive from his Master. "He will not shut the door in my face," he said, with a smile; "I am an invited guest." In "quietness and assurance" he passed away to his eternal rest.

(15) SAMUEL WESLEY LAWTON; who was born at Congleton in 1835. He was converted as a boy at Taunton College, and his definite religious experience in early life gave him rare tact in later years in dealing with children. He entered the Ministry in 1862. In his early Circuits he had great success as an evangelist. His sermons, characterised by simplicity and directness, and delivered with pathos and power, led many to Christ. Loving all who loved the Lord, he was intensely loyal to the Church of his birth and choice. His genial, sympathetic disposition was shown supremely in his pastoral work. During the Albion Colliery Disaster at Pontypridd in June, 1894, utterly forgetful of himself, he went from house to house, comforting the bereaved. No visits were more welcome in those sorrowful days, and many were the testimonies to the consolation which his words and prayers had brought. He suffered for some time from the shock to his system caused by this calamity, and found the work of a wide Circuit trying. But he had a lofty conception of a minister's duty. During a severe winter his appointments were conscientiously kept, until he caught a chill. Influenza and brain-fever followed. His last public duty had been the sacramental service. In his delirium he went through the whole of it again, finishing with the words "Amen, amen; farewell, farewell!" He died on February 23, 1895, in the fifty-ninth year of his age, and the thirty-third of his ministry.

(16) FREDERIC GREEVES, D.D.; who was born at Bedford on April 30, 1833. His father, the Rev. John Greeves, was an honoured Methodist preacher, whose faithful sermons and loving counsels produced a deep impression on his son's heart and conscience while still in early youth. He died when his youngest son was only thirteen. As they stood by the side of their dead father, John Wakefield Greeves gained from his younger brother a solemn promise to yield himself to God. Three years later, when Frederic was earnestly seeking peace, his brother explained to him the way of faith, and had the joy of leading him to rest in Christ. On leaving Kingswood School, Frederic Greeves spent some years as a tutor at Mackworth and Sittingbourne. He had an enthusiasm for teaching, and would gladly have devoted his life to that work. But at the age of seventeen he began to preach, and it was soon manifest that he had a clear call to the Ministry. The felicity of style and the spirituality of his early sermons gave promise of unusual popularity and success. He was accepted as a Probationer by the Conference of 1855, and began his work in Paris, where he spent two happy years. He endeared himself greatly to his people, and gained a knowledge of Methodist work in France which proved of conspicuous service in later years. On his return to England he was appointed to the Hinde Street Circuit, where, in association with eminent colleagues, he greatly distinguished himself in the pulpit. He was a singularly ripe and finished preacher, and was far beyond his years in knowledge and experience. His influence rapidly grew. In 1870 he was appointed one of the official letter-writers to the Conference. Two years later he became Chairman of the Oxford District, and in 1875 was elected into the Legal Conference. After leaving Oxford, he passed three of the happiest and most influential years of his ministry at Newcastle-on-Tyne; then he returned to London, where he spent the remainder of his life.

In 1884 he became President of the Conference at Burslem. He was a young man compared with many of his predecessors, but never did a President sit in the chair of Conference who had a finer or more complete ascendency of influence, wisdom, and character by which to guide an assembly. The watchword which he suggested for the year —"Salvation in every house"—was the epitome of his own ministry, and many a pleasing incident, treasured in the hearts of those who loved him, proves how faithful he himself was to that maxim. In 1886 he was appointed Principal of Southlands College. In him our educational policy found a wise and persuasive advocate, whilst the Southlands students gained a pastor and teacher whose power over their characters and lives deepened as years passed by. During his last years he was chastened by much weakness and pain. At the death of his eldest brother in July, 1894, it seemed as though his own end was near; but after some painful months he rallied, and began to pick up the threads of his work with much of his former zest. His friends hoped that he might prove stronger than he had been for years; but influenza seized him, followed by pneumonia, and on Sunday, March 10, 1895, he passed peacefully to his rest, in the sixty-second year of his age, and the fortieth of his ministry. In his previous illness he had suffered from deep depression, but in these last days he rose above the clouds. He felt death near, but he rejoiced in strong consolation. "This is my experience," he said to one of his sons. Then he quoted the verse:

Father, behold Thy son,
In Christ I am Thy own;
Stranger long to Thee, and rest,
See the prodigal is come:
Open wide Thine arms and breast,
Take the weary wanderer home.

Frederic Greeves was the youngest of three brothers who have been a treasure and ornament to our Church during the last forty years. His gifts as a preacher may be seen from the volume of sermons and addresses which he published shortly before his death. Chaste, tender, full of spiritual insight, rich with the fruits of wide and select reading, those sermons are a faithful representation of the man and his ministry. He was a wise counsellor, a singularly discreet and judicious administrator, habitually gentle and considerate, full of tact, yet unswerving in his loyalty to his convictions. For thirty years he used his great influence in the fear of God, and for the best interests of Methodism. Though his life was briefer than his friends and his Church had hoped, he had fulfilled a great part, and has left the memory of a complete character.

(17) SAMUEL ATKINSON (A); who was born at Portobello Barracks, Dublin, in 1816. His father was an officer in the army, and, notwithstanding the difficulties and temptations of his calling, an earnest Methodist. He died when his son was ten years old, but his influence survived in the boy's early decision for Christ. Mr. Atkinson was accepted for our Ministry by the Conference of 1838. After two years' training at Hoxton, he entered upon his life work. For thirty-five years he did full and faithful service. As a preacher, he was simple, devout, and impressive. He was conscientious in his ministerial work, and firmly maintained our discipline. The Bible was his constant companion, and he had great power in prayer. He delighted in pastoral duties, especially in visiting the aged and the sick. Upright and sincere in his conduct, he manifested continually the power of godliness. Failing health compelled his retirement in 1875. In his later years he endured great sorrows; yet his faith was never shaken, never clouded. His last illness was brief. He seemed to be gaining strength, when suddenly, and with no consciousness of dying, he fell asleep at Redland, Bristol, on March 16, 1895, in the seventy-ninth year of his age, and the fifty-fifth of his ministry.

(18) William Henry Lewis; who died at Clifton, Bristol, on April 1, 1895, in his seventy-eighth year. He was one of the fruits of a remarkable revival in the Bristol North Circuit in 1834, yielding himself to Christ in the old Hotwells chapel under the ministry of the late Rev. Nehemiah Curnock. Amongst the young men whom that wonderful movement gathered into the Church, he soon came to the front, taking a keen practical interest in the spiritual welfare of his class-mates. He induced a little company of them to meet at his home at five o'clock on Sunday mornings to study together the great doctrines of the faith. He formed them into a mission band, and frequently conducted open-air services on Durdham Down and elsewhere. He entered the Ministry in 1842, his first Circuit being Shetland, where he won the warm affection of the people. He spent many years in South Wales and the west of England. In the colliery districts of Brynmawr and Merthyr his preaching and his pastoral care will long be remembered. Having a well-stored mind and a fertile imagination, he was a ready and effective preacher. He had a rich vein of humour, and was happy in attracting and retaining friendships. By his colleagues he was greatly beloved. His unselfish and deep sympathy, and his aptitude as a helper of the sorrowful, became matter of public recognition in connexion with the wreck of the Royal Charter, when, whilst waiting near the scene of the disaster in hope of recovering the body of his own brother, he devoted himself to the comfort of those who shared with him in the sorrow of that calamity. His days of retirement were spent in growing closeness of communion with God, and in daily study of his Bible. In his last weakness he was often overheard murmuring, "My Saviour, my Jesus!" and he died in the fearless and joyous confidence of the gospel.

(19) JOSEPH SIMPSON; who was born at Newark on July 4, 1825. His grandparents were Methodists in the days of Wesley; his father was a class-leader for fifty years. Joseph Simpson was converted in early life, and at the age of seventeen went to York, where he was engaged as a tutor. Accepted as a Candidate in 1847, he did the full work of the Ministry for forty years. His pulpit ministrations were acceptable and useful. He was a diligent pastor, an excellent Superintendent, and in all things a faithful servant of Christ and His Church. His genial presence, perfect courtesy, and high sense of honour won him the esteem and regard of all who knew him. He became a Supernumerary in 1889, and settled at Boscombe. His services in the Bournemouth Circuit were very valuable, especially in connexion with the erection of the new church at Boscombe. He preached with more than his usual vigour within a few days of his last illness. When he realised that death was near, he spoke with calm confidence about the future, and on April 6, 1895, he entered into rest, in the seventieth year of his age, and the forty-sixth of his ministry.

(20) JAMES MONAHAN; who was born in London in 1845. His father was a Roman Catholic, but his mother was a devout member of the Bible Christian communion. He was converted while a boy at the Radnor Street school, London, and subsequently took an active part in opposing the secularists at their open-air meetings, qualifying himself for this work by thoroughly mastering the secularist literature of the day. His religious character was largely influenced in early life by the ministry at City Road, and he invariably spoke of this period of privilege with profound gratitude. He became a Candidate for the Ministry in 1867, and did the work of a Methodist Preacher with unflinching courage. The cheerfulness of his disposition made him a welcome visitor in the homes of the people. His sermons were practical, evangelical, and experimental, and were prepared with great care. He was an able Circuit administrator, and a counsellor whose judgment could be relied upon in times of difficulty. He was well read in Methodist literature, and was earnestly attached to our doctrine. He was an enthusiastic temperance reformer. He took an intelligent and active interest in all questions affecting Methodism. Soon after his appointment to his last Circuit he became seriously ill. Symptoms of cancer subsequently developed, and after a period of great suffering, borne with unflinching fortitude, he peacefully passed to his rest on April 10, 1895. His last words, spoken to a brother Minister, were: "Good-bye! I know whom I have believed."

(21) HERBERT WESLEY HAIME; a native of Barnstaple, who died at the house of his brother, the Rev. Frederick C. Haime, in Dawlish, on April 18, 1895. He was the son of the Rev. Charles Haime. Entering the Ministry in 1847, he spent seventeen years in the foreign work, chiefly in Jamaica, where his labours were much blessed. The religious awakening at one time was so general that for two weeks, day and night, the chapel was filled with the cries of the penitent and the songs of the saved. Dr. Hoole, one of the Missionary Secretaries, spoke in high terms of his success in organising self-supporting Native Churches. He was a special favourite with children and young people. His practical and experimental preaching was enforced by a life of true devotion. In 1879 he became a Supernumerary, residing in Dunster, and still in many ways rendering excellent service. In Barnsley he took a lively interest in a small Society in the town, and endeared himself to the members. In Dawlish he continued to help in the services as long as strength permitted. During a long and painful illness, patience had its perfect work; and, calmly confiding in the Saviour he had known and served so long, he entered into rest in the seventy-third year of his age, and the forty-eighth of his ministry.

(22) GEORGE ABBOTT; who was born at Richmond, Yorkshire, in 1824. He was converted when twelve years old, and began to preach in his sixteenth year. Without special educational advantages, his mind was trained and furnished by varied reading and private study. He was soon in request as a preacher, his sermons revealing a maturity of thought beyond his years. In 1846 he was accepted as a Candidate for our Ministry and sent to Didsbury College, where his conscientious industry, his able and successful pulpit services, and his genial disposition, obtained for him a good report. During forty-five years, without interruption, he served the cause of Christ in Circuit work. The opening years of his ministry fell in distracting and difficult times; but his prudence and Christian courtesy enabled him, while faithful to the discipline of his Church, to retain the public confidence, and to be a winner of souls. His life work was in the north of England, and—by his own preference—in country Circuits, many of them wide and laborious, where he unostentatiously and quietly made the pulpit a power, "in doctrine showing uncorruptness," and in behaviour "gravity and sincerity." From 1884 to 1893 he was Chairman of the Carlisle District, winning the respect and confidence of Ministers and office-bearers by his impartial and unobtrusive administration. He was well acquainted with the history of Methodism in the north of England, and was accustomed to make interesting and profitable use of his stores of information. He was in full sympathy with the needs and requirements of the times, and with all movements in promotion of the common good. Yet he ever felt that his supreme calling was to preach the gospel. And he was able to move and comfort his hearers because he deeply realised in his own heart the weight and preciousness of the truths entrusted to his ministry. On leaving college he inscribed in the album of a fellow student: "I will not glory because I am righteous, but because I am redeemed." He was a true-hearted Methodist Preacher. He loved his work, and was reluctant to leave it, even when it was beyond his strength. He did not fear death, but desired submissively to "cease at once to work and live." In September, 1893, he took charge, as Supernumerary, of the Church at Dumfries. In the autumn of 1894 premonitions of the end necessitated his complete retirement. He lingered till May 21, 1895, when he unconsciously entered into rest at Wetheral, Carlisle, in the seventy-first year of his age, and the forty-seventh of his ministry.

(23) JOSHUA JOHNSON; who was born at Davyhulme, near Manchester, in 1840. His parents were pious, his mother being a member of our Church for more than seventy years. To her influence he ascribed his early attachment to Methodism. In his seventeenth year he gave his heart to God. After a brief sojourn in Nottingham, he removed to London, where he came under the pastoral care of the late Rev. Luke H. Wiseman, at whose suggestion he offered himself to the Conference of 1865 as a Candidate for the Ministry. He was sent at once to a Circuit. His twenty-five years' ministry was spent in country Circuits. He gave himself unreservedly to his work, and was often cheered by marked success. His genial disposition and devoted life won the esteem and love of his people in every Circuit. He was a diligent pastor, an earnest preacher, and a faithful Superintendent. His last appointment was to Denby Dale, in 1888, where he found a congenial sphere and laboured with unceasing success, up to the spring of 1890, when he was seized with paralysis, from which he never recovered. He spent his last years in Huddersfield. His patience in suffering, his cheerful trust in his Saviour, and his increasing interest in the prosperity of the Church, endeared him to a large circle of friends. When increasing weakness compelled him to relinquish all hope of resuming his ministry, he calmly surrendered himself to the divine will. His sufferings during the last few months of his life were relieved by precious manifestations of redeeming love, and by joyful anticipations of his eternal rest. These anticipations were realised on the morning of June 5, 1895.

(24) ISAAC JONES; who was born in Cardiganshire, in 1824. In early youth he belonged to the Established Church; but when about seventeen years of age, while attending a Methodist service held in a shepherd's cottage, he was deeply convinced of sin, and found peace through believing. He joined the Methodists, and soon began to preach. His own family made every effort to dissuade him from taking this course; but he bore all harsh treatment in a meek and Christian spirit. Accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry, he was appointed to a Circuit in 1849, and for forty-two years laboured with much acceptance. He had superior mental abilities and strong individuality of character. The light touch of eccentricity which marked him was perfectly natural, and, being sanctified, gave offence to no one, but contributed on the whole to his usefulness and popularity. He was a wide reader and a hard student. His preaching, sometimes quaint, always interesting and instructive, and not unfrequently accompanied by great power, was eminently successful in bringing sinners to Christ. He was also a diligent pastor and a strict observer of Methodist rule. He became a Supernumerary in 1891, but continued to preach twice every Sunday until laid aside by his last illness. When the summons came he was found ready, greatly rejoicing in the Saviour's love. He died at Llangollen on July 3, 1895, in the seventy-first year of his age, and the forty-sixth of his ministry.

(25) JOHN SCOTT (B); who was born at London in 1830, was the son of godly Methodist parents. In 1850, under a sermon preached by the late Rev. Luke H. Wiseman, he decided for Christ. He soon began to preach. Accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry, and designated for Missions, he entered Richmond College in 1852, and after three years' successful study was appointed in 1855 to Ceylon. For forty years he continued in missionary service, and became a Supernumerary in 1894. He had excellent abilities, which he cultivated by careful study. He was well read on many subjects, had a retentive memory, and used well his stores of knowledge. His preaching was evangelical, faithful, attractive, and soul-saving. In pastoral work he was exemplary, the sick and the poor held him in loving esteem, and he was a great favourite with the young. He had an exact knowledge of Methodist polity, and in the difficult positions he filled he administered our discipline with tact, firmness, and marked success. His mastery of the Sinhalese and Portuguese languages, and his intimate knowledge of and sympathy with the people, made him a powerful vernacular preacher. He did imperishable service in the preparation and publication of many useful books. His gentle, unassuming, courteous disposition made him specially beloved by the native ministers, while his missionary colleagues were charmed by his brotherly, unselfish spirit, and esteemed him highly. Mr. Scott's end was somewhat sudden. Apparently in his usual health, on Saturday night, June 29, after returning from a walk, he was suddenly seized with acute pain, and notwithstanding all that skill and tenderness could do he passed away on the morning of the following Saturday. When his intense pain had been relieved he said to his devoted sister and to his daughter, who had hurried to his side: "I am better, thank God! If I die, it is all right with me; but I don't want to leave you like this. It's not good-bye; we shall be together again." On July 6, 1895, he passed peacefully away, in the sixty-fifth year of his age, and the forty-first of his ministry.

(26) FREDERICK PAYNE; who was born at Gillingham, Warwickshire, on December 20, 1814. In early life he became the subject of saving grace, and joined the Society in 1832. Having served some time as a local preacher, he was accepted by the Conference as a Candidate for the Ministry, and was sent to Swindon as his first appointment in 1838. During the half-century in which he was engaged in the full work of the Ministry he devoted his talents and energies with fidelity and zeal to the great business of his sacred calling. His pulpit discourses were plain, practical, and always evangelical. His private intercourse with the people was marked by the gentleness, urbanity, and courtesy which contributed to win for him their respect and affection.

Of the fifty-seven years of his ministerial life, no fewer than forty-one were spent in the Liverpool District. Here it was, in the remarkable work which he did in North Wales, that he achieved those successes by which his memory is most likely to live. He devoted his energies to making provision for the spiritual needs of the English-speaking population in the North Wales health resorts, and of the multitudes who annually visit that coast. The result was that, in the course of years, mainly by his efforts, places of worship were erected at Llandudno, Rhyl, Colwyn Bay, Prestatyn, Conway, Llanrwst, and Penmaenmawr, some of them spacious, and all of them beautiful, with school buildings, where necessary, and, in three cases, ministers' houses. He also took an active part in the initiation and promotion of middle-class education in North Wales.

In 1862 he was appointed one of the General Secretaries of the Fund for the Education of Ministers' Children, an office which he worthily filled for twenty-one years.

His useful life was darkened by sad bereavements and other losses; and for some time before his decease it was melancholy to see the venerable octogenarian with his former vigour greatly impaired and diminished. To the last, however, his love for the services of God's house continued. The last few days of his life were spent in a semi-conscious condition, but at intervals he was able to speak of his faith and hope, and to the end he was graciously sustained by the divine presence. He died at Colwyn Bay, on Sunday, August 4, 1895.

2. In Ireland, six; viz.

(1) JOHN HILL MARTIN; who was born at Killorglin, Co. Kerry, in 1843. The influences of a godly Methodist home, and especially the teaching and example of a devout and saintly mother, moulded his character in the early years of life. His definite decision for God was made in 1861, in the Methodist church, Tralee, during a time of gracious revival, under the ministry of the Rev. Thomas Moran. A solemn entry among his papers, with a touching prayer that he might be kept faithful, records that at that time God created within him "a clean heart." In the year 1867 he was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry, and the following year was appointed to the Magherafelt Circuit. Eminently characteristic of him were love of his native land and delight in its natural scenery. He was deeply devoted to Methodism, and was "very jealous" for its honour and welfare. He enjoyed preaching, and took an intelligent interest in the social and political movements of his time. As a pastor, he was diligent and faithful, and endeared himself to many in the various spheres of his ministry by his sympathy and counsels. In the vast improvement that has taken place in our trust property in Ireland within the last twenty years, few Ministers have borne a more honourable or onerous part. In launching and carrying out several extensive building schemes, he was singularly successful. Strabane, the Embury and Heck Memorial Church, Ballingrane, and Ballyfinn, in the Maryborough Circuit, are places where his name will be remembered for unwearied and self-denying labours. The last two years of his life were devoted to the work of preparing plans and collecting funds for the erection of a new church and manse in Carlow.

Long-continued seasons of ill-health, together with the trials of a constitution never robust, served at times to accentuate certain peculiarities of manner, which often had the effect of concealing or obscuring his natural geniality and goodness of heart from those who knew him only imperfectly. But in the circle of intimate acquaintance and fellowship he was known to be a devoted servant of God, a faithful pastor, "a brother beloved." His sudden illness and death caused a widespread feeling of surprise and sorrow throughout the Connexion. On a Friday evening he conducted the customary week-day service in Carlow, and preached with remarkable power. In the night he was seized with a serious illness, which terminated fatally on the following Thursday. Except for brief intervals, his faculties retained all their clearness and vigour to the end; while his spirit remained calm and undismayed in the prospect of death. To one who enjoyed life as he did, there was something not only suggestive, but impressive in the ease with which he was able to relinquish it when the hour came. "If God wills, I am willing to live: if He wills, I am ready to go," expressed his thought about the great change. He died on October 18, 1894, in the twenty-seventh year of his ministry.

(2) JOHN HIGGINS; who was born on May 13, 1819, in the county of Mayo. He was converted to God during a remarkable revival of religion in the Ballina Circuit. Accepted as a Probationer by the Conference of 1842, he was appointed to the Manorhamilton Circuit. In all his Circuits his labours were distinguished by diligence and fidelity; he was acceptable to the people, and successful in his Master's service. In 1870 he sought the permission of the Conference to reside in Australia. His request was granted, and he carried with him to that country the full confidence of his brethren in the spotless integrity of his Christian character. He loved Ireland and Irish Methodism with undying affection. He was a man of God, genial, unassuming, and conscientious, and was greatly beloved by the Methodist Ministers and the people among whom he laboured in Melbourne. There were many evidences of widespread sympathy with him during his last illness, and with his bereaved widow and family in their great sorrow after his decease. On February 1, 1895, surrounded by his loving and sorrowing family, he passed peacefully away, calmly and confidently resting on the Redeemer, whom he loved so much and served so faithfully. He died in the seventy-sixth year of his age, and the fifty-third of his ministry.

(3) OLIVER M'CUTCHEON, D.D., LL.D.; who was born at Omagh on May 12, 1825. His father was a gifted local preacher, and his uncle, the late Rev. James M'Cutcheon, a very successful Minister of our Conference. His father's house was the home of the early itinerants, including such men as Gideon Ouseley, from whom he received much valuable instruction in sacred things, and in the secular studies which he then pursued. In early life he made a wholehearted surrender of himself to Jesus Christ, and never afterwards faltered in his choice. In 1851 he was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry, and in the following year received his first appointment. In the course of his ministry he laboured with much acceptance and success in Dublin, Belfast, Limerick, and other important spheres. In 1861 he was appointed Assistant Secretary of the Home Mission Fund, and speedily won great admiration by the exceedingly able and business-like reports which he presented from year to year. From this period until the Conference of 1891 he maintained his connexion with this Fund, either as Secretary or Treasurer. His unremitting labour, unwearying diligence, and perfect mastery of every detail affecting the administration of this fund have secured for him the gratitude of the entire Church. The proposed admission of laymen to the Conference found in him a wise and able advocate; and as Secretary of the Committee on Methodist Union he rendered distinguished Connexional service by his practical wisdom and great business ability. In the year 1881 he was elected a member of the Legal Conference. In the same year he was appointed, with Dr. Crook and the late Dr. Ker, to visit America, in the interests of Irish Methodism. By his public ministrations in the pulpit and on the platform, as well as by his private intercourse with the people, he rendered most efficient service in promotion of the trust committed to the deputation.

In 1882, and again in 1890, he was called to the responsible position of Vice-President of the Conference. In 1891 he was appointed President and Theological Tutor of the Methodist College, Belfast, in succession to the late Dr. M'Kay. As its President, he exercised a wise and beneficent control over the whole institution, and in the theological department he laboured with thoroughness and untiring devotion to the interests of the students committed to his charge. About the time of his appointment to the college, the Victoria University, Toronto, conferred on him the degree of Doctor of Divinity, and at the same time the senate of the Royal University, of which he was a member, that of Doctor of Laws. Even among wise men he was distinguished for wisdom. As Superintendent of a circuit, and as Chairman of a District, he was judicious and capable; as a preacher, he was clear and logical, solid and practical, and an able expositor of Scripture; as a pastor, he was tender, sympathetic, and painstaking; as a friend, he was pre-eminently faithful; and in every relation of life he was all that the Christian and the Christian minister ought to be. His vigorous health, unbroken, with one exception, in his ministry of nearly forty-three years, remained unimpaired almost to the last. On the evening of Tuesday, March 26 last, he was one of the speakers at the mass meeting held in the Ulster Hall to protest against the sale of intoxicants at the Art and Industrial Exhibition. No one who saw him on that occasion and heard his address, delivered with his wonted energy, would have imagined that his end was so near. That, however, was his last public appearance. A day or two later an illness developed, which proved fatal on April 14, 1895. In the evening of that bright and beautiful Easter Day he stood in the presence of his risen Lord.

(4) SAMUEL A. ROBERTSON; who was born near Collooney in October, 1848. He was nurtured in a godly home, and from his earliest years was under gracious influences. In Tralee, at services held by the late Rev. W. Graham Campbell, he was led to full religious decision; his heart was filled with the love of Christ, and never afterwards did he waver in devotion to his Lord. He soon began to work for the Master, and in the city of Dublin, to which he had removed, he gave such proof of the possession of mental power and the graces of the Spirit, that he was recommended as a Candidate for the Ministry. He was appointed to the Ballyshannon Circuit in 1870, and in more recent years laboured in various important centres. He was careful in preparation for the pulpit, and his able preaching, his pastoral fidelity, and his bright and affectionate disposition, won the confidence and love of the people. His ministry grew in power and effectiveness with the lapse of years. Many a dark home was brightened by his genial presence and sympathy in the time of sorrow, and he knew also how to share in and increase the joy of others. As a colleague, he was frank and brotherly; as a Superintendent, he discharged his duties with kindly firmness; and, in the official positions to which he was appointed from time to time, he justified the choice of the Conference by the fidelity and thoroughness with which he performed his work. In the early part of last year the disease which eventually proved fatal began to develop, and at the last Conference he became a Supernumerary, with the expectation of resuming active work after a year's rest. Through the long months of deferred hope he bore up bravely, manifesting simple trust in Christ, and making the sick-room cheerful by the brightness and winsomeness of his disposition. The end came rather suddenly, and, on April 28, 1895, as the Sabbath dawned, he fell asleep in Jesus without a struggle or a sigh, leaving a great blank in the home and in the Church. He died in the forty-seventh year of his age, and the twenty-fifth of his ministry.

(5) JOHN CHAMBERS; who was born at Cairadaragh, Co. Derry. He was in early life connected with the Protestant Episcopal Church, to which his parents belonged. When still young, he was converted to God during some services in Cookstown, and in the freshness of his first love wished to work for the good of others by leading them to his Saviour. Not finding much encouragement in his immediate surroundings, he joined the Methodist Church, where he found a congenial home. He was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry, and after two years at the Methodist College, was appointed to the Newry Circuit, where he soon saw fruit of his labours, as he did in every subsequent Circuit. He gave himself to reading and the study of the word of God, so that his public ministry was exceedingly profitable. He secured the love of his brethren in the Ministry, and the esteem of the people among whom he laboured. When stationed in Dungarvan, he had a severe attack of hæmorrhage of the lungs, from which he never fully recovered. His last illness was attended by severe suffering; but no murmur escaped his lips, and many who visited him testified to the spirituality of his conversation. His dying testimony was: "All is well. No doubts! No fears! Safe! Safe!" By his lamented death, on April 28, 1895, in the thirty-fifth year of his age, and the ninth of his ministry, the Church on earth has lost one of her most devoted and faithful young servants.

(6) WILSON JAMES STOREY; who was born near Newtowngore, Co. Leitrim, in the year 1827. He was a Methodist of the fourth generation, and owed much to the example and training of godly parents. His father's house was regularly visited by the Circuit Ministers, who were instrumental in leading him, in early life, to decision for Christ. His studies were directed by his brother, the late Rev. John Charles Storey, a linguist of no mean order. In the year 1854 he was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry, and was appointed to Cootehill, where he laboured with acceptance and success. Subsequently he did good service in many of our most laborious Circuits, situated chiefly in Ulster. He possessed a clear intellect, a retentive memory, and was a faithful and acceptable preacher. In his pastoral labours he was most thorough and sympathetic. He lived in the affections of his people, and was honoured by all who knew him. At the Conference of 1893 he obtained leave to become a Supernumerary, after an active ministry of thirty-nine years, and settled in Ligoniel, where he had just completed his second triennial period of labour. For about eighteen months afterwards he continued his labours almost as fully as when in the active work, until his unusually robust constitution gave indications of weakness and decay. His final illness, which was very painful and somewhat lingering, was borne with great patience. Death was met with true Christian fortitude as, with St. Paul, he said, "For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain." He gradually sank, until on May 22, 1895, in the forty-first year of his ministry, he entered on his eternal rest.

3. In our Foreign Missions, six; viz.

(1) JOHN ELKANAH WILLIAMS; who was born, in 1824, of liberated African parents of the Mendi tribe. He was converted in 1850, and afterwards became a class-leader, a local preacher, and a school teacher in his native village. In 1880 he was appointed as a Catechist to do pioneer work among the Timanees of Mabang and the neighbouring heathen places, and many were turned from darkness to light as a result of his labours. He was a most sincere, consistent, godly, laborious, and humble-minded man. Some of his last words were: "I am happy in Jesus my Saviour. I am going to be with Him soon." On the day before his death he said to his young assistant: "Look after the work. Visit every place, and always do your duty." He quietly breathed his last at Jabama, in the Sierra Leone District, on July 9, 1894, in the seventieth year of his age, and the tenth of his ministry.

(2) WILLIAM GIBSON, B.A.; who was born in 1832. His father, the Rev. Ralph Gibson, was a Methodist Minister. William Gibson entered Woodhouse Grove School when eleven years of age, and was there led to Christ. At fifteen he resolved to follow his father's steps in the Christian Ministry, and in 1848 united with four others at Wesley College to pray for a revival, which resulted in the conversion of nearly every boy in the College. He commenced his ministry in 1852, and, after spending ten years in the home work, was appointed to Paris on the opening of the new Church in the Rue Roquépine, in 1862. For ten years he had charge of this important post, extending the work into what now forms the Paris Circuit. Six years were then spent in London, after which he returned to commence what must be regarded as his life work, the Evangelical Mission, which developed into a network of Stations in Paris and its environs, as well as at Rouen and Havre. In organising and superintending his work, in travelling and collecting funds for carrying it on, his labours were unceasing. Again and again he crossed the Atlantic, lecturing in the chief cities of Canada and the United States, for the benefit of his work. In character he was a remarkable example of goodness, gentleness, and courtesy, made more beautiful and perfect by Christian grace. Simple in piety, unsuspecting in disposition, profoundly reverent in spirit, his life was pervaded by a charm, a sweet savour of genial and winning saintliness, combined with unquenchable zeal and heroic faith that never staggered or hesitated in the presence of the greatest difficulties. As a preacher, he enforced the saving truths of the gospel with great simplicity of speech, often adorned with rich and telling illustration. A true bishop of the apostolic pattern, he was in doctrine uncorrupt, blameless, sober-minded, just, holy, temperate, given to a generous hospitality, devoting himself to the work that lay so near his heart. His mental gifts were enriched by travel and observation in Palestine and Egypt, Europe, and America, and all his knowledge was used in the furtherance of his great work. He combined a gentleness which nothing could ruffle with a firmness no opposition could overcome, and a patience no trials could exhaust. Punctual and exact in all his arrangements, he accomplished with ease a prodigious amount of work; yet he never seemed hurried, or unwilling to lay it aside to render a service to a friend. He lived and died for France. He attended the Conference in Birmingham, and was bright, busy, and cheerful as ever; yet his work was done, and France was to see his face no more. After two days in London, he went to Boxmoor to prepare for his return to Paris. But his powers were spent, and his physical nature sank exhausted. He quietly passed to his heavenly rest and home on August 27, 1894, in the sixty-third year of his age, and the forty-third of his ministry.

(3) ELIAS J. GLORIA; who was born in 1828. His parents were converts from Hinduism; but he had, from his infancy, the privilege of Christian training. He was educated in the Head Native School at Negapatam, and was for a long time at the head of the school. Under the preaching of the Rev. Thomas Cryer he was deeply convinced of sin, and after long and anxiously seeking peace found the joy of pardon. He soon began to preach, and after a period of theological training in Madras, was proposed as a Candidate for the Ministry in 1854, by the Rev. E. E. Jenkins. For forty-one years he laboured in Circuit work as pastor of Christian congregations and preacher to the heathen. The last nine years of his ministry were devoted to the training of Native evangelists at the Theological Institution in Trichinopoly. He possessed unusual gifts, both of thought and expression. He was a deep and diligent student of the Bible, and was well instructed in and devotedly attached to evangelical Methodist doctrine. As a Tamil preacher, he combined expository power, poetic imagination, and evangelical fervour. He delivered the gospel message with extraordinary power, and defended the Christian faith against the sophisms of Brahmanism with acuteness and learning. No preacher has ever been so popular in the native Churches of Madras as he was in his prime. In the perplexed intricacies of Tamil scholarship and style he had few rivals, whether among Hindus or Christians. He was also a gifted Tamil poet, and, as editor of the Religious Tract Society's Hymn Book, rendered lasting service to all the Tamil Churches. At the Conference of 1894 he had to retire from active work, after fifty years of service, and was soon prostrated by enfeebling sickness. He was resigned and peaceful under his affliction; and his last message to his brethren was, "Tell them I am safe in the arms of Jesus." In those arms he found his eternal home on January 9, 1895.

(4) CHARLES BUXTON M'AULAY; who was born at Sierra Leone in 1827, and died at Lagos, on February 5, 1895. He was truly converted in early life, and for some years was employed as a Catechist. Afterwards he entered the service of the Lagos government, whose trusted servant he remained until 1882, when he was received on trial for the Native

Ministry. His intellectual abilities were of a high order, and he manifested untiring zeal and earnestness in his work. In thoroughness and piety he was a pattern to all. He will long be remembered, both by his fellow workers in the mission field and by the Churches he helped to establish. "He being dead yet speaketh."

(5) ISAAC DE PEENTO; who was born at Welisera, near Colombo, Ceylon, in 1849, and died at Wellewatte, March 15, 1895. He was converted in 1866, and at once became conspicuously earnest in the extension of Christ's kingdom. After being trained for three years in the Theological Institution at Galle, he was employed for three years as a Catechist, and in 1874 was received into the Ministry. He was a loving man, who knew how to win and retain the affections of the people. He was prudent in the midst of opposition, and yet earnest and faithful in doing right. Marked features in his character were his submissiveness to God's will, and his humility, which made him willing to work among the lowliest. His faith in Christ was steadfast, both in life and death. Towards the end of his illness he said with evident joy, "I am now complete in Christ." Of this faithful Sinhalese brother, St. Paul's words were true: "To me to live is Christ, and to die is gain."

(6) DANIEL W. THORPE; who was born of African parents, at Murray Town, Sierra Leone, in 1836. He received a good education, and entered the Ministry in 1858, after having served as a Catechist for six months. Many precious souls have been won for Christ through his instrumentality. He was an able and earnest preacher, whose sermons were characterised by careful thought and ample preparation. As Superintendent of a Circuit, though a strict disciplinarian, he blended justice with mercy. As a Methodist, he was jealous of the honour of the Church of his birth and of his choice, and above all, as a Christian, he always kept in view the glory of God. For several years his health was feeble, but he faithfully pursued his work. On his death-bed one of his attendants asked, "Do you wish to die?" He replied, "To die is gain." He passed to his rest at Sierra Leone on April 24, 1895, in the sixtieth year of his age, and the thirty-seventh of his ministry.

The obituary of ELIAS T. DICKINSON, who died on August 9, 1895, will appear next year.

Q. VII. Are there any OBJECTIONS to any of our Ministers or Preachers on Trial?

A. They were examined, one by one.

Q. VIII. Who have CEASED TO BE RECOGNISED AS MINISTERS amongst us?

A. 1. In Great Britain,

(1) Ernest Osborn Barratt, M.A., and William Lile Stone, who have voluntarily retired, because of ill health.

(2) William May, who has also retired.

2. In our Foreign Missions,

Levi S. Lee, Sinhalese Minister, who has voluntarily retired.

Q. IX. How are our Ministers and Preachers on Trial STATIONED for the ensuing year?

A. As follows; viz.

[N.B.—1. Each of the places mentioned in these Stations, and numbered consecutively, from 1 to 935, is the head of the Circuit; and the Minister first named is the Superintendent.

2. The Superintendent and other Minister or Ministers, stationed in or appointed to the several Circuits undermentioned, is and are appointed by the Conference to preach and to perform all acts of religious worship and Methodist discipline in each and every one of the Wesleyan Methodist chapels already erected, or to be erected, in each Circuit respectively, within the space of twelve kalendar months, at such time or times, and in such manner, as to him or them shall seem proper; subject, nevertheless, to the Superintendent Minister.

3. The Minister appointed to any Station without a number is the Superintendent, and is therefore entitled to preside in the Quarterly Meeting and Trustees' Meetings; but he shall, as heretofore, act under the direction of the Chairman of the District.]

OFFICIAL APPOINTMENTS.

Q. XI. Whom do we appoint to be our Delegate in Ireland?

A. Our PRESIDENT, the Rev. DAVID JAMES WALLER, D.D.; or, in his unavoidable absence, one of the following Ministers: the Rev. WALFORD GREEN, EX-PRESIDENT; the Rev. WALLACE M'MULLEN, D.D., nominated by the Irish Conference; the Rev. HENRY JOHN POPE, D.D.; or the Rev. JAMES H. RIGG, D.D.

N.B.—1. The PRESIDENT, or other Minister, acting as Delegate under the authority of the preceding appointment, who shall preside at the next Conference in Ireland, shall exercise the powers confided to him under and by virtue of the thirteenth clause of Mr. Wesley's Deed Poll, dated February 28, 1784.

2. The EX-PRESIDENT, the Rev. WALFORD GREEN, the Rev. MARSHALL RANDLES, D.D., and the Rev. ALBERT CLAYTON, are appointed to accompany the PRESIDENT to the Conference in Ireland, which will commence in Dublin on Wednesday, June 17, 1896.

Q. XII. What other Official Appointments are made?

A. (A) 1. The Rev. MATTHIEU LELIÈVRE, D.D., is appointed the President of the next French Conference, to be held at Lausanne, in the month of June, 1896.

2. The Rev. PHILIP TEARLE is appointed the President of the next South African Conference, to be held at Durban, in the month of April, 1896.

3. The Rev. WILLIAM L. WATKINSON is appointed our Representative to the Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church of the United States of America, to be held at Cleveland, Ohio, May, 1896.

(B) 1. The PRESIDENT of the Conference is appointed to attend the Annual Meeting of the South Wales District Synod, to be held at Lampeter, in the spring of 1896. The Rev. JOHN SAMUEL JONES and the Rev. FEATHERSTONE KELLETT are appointed to accompany the President.

2. The Rev. JAMES ERNEST CLAPHAM and the Rev. HUGH PRICE HUGHES, M.A., are appointed to attend the Annual Meeting of the North Wales District Synod, to be held at Llanrwst in the spring of 1896.

3. The Rev. WALFORD GREEN, Ex-President, is appointed to attend the Annual Meeting of the Isle of Man District Synod, to be held at Douglas in the spring of 1896.

EXAMINATIONS OF CANDIDATES FOR ORDINATION.

Q. XIII. What are the Directions of the Conference respecting the EXAMINATIONS OF CANDIDATES FOR ORDINATION?

A. 1. Before any Preacher, having travelled four years, is recommended by his District Synod for admission into Full Connexion, he shall undergo a careful examination, by the Chairman of that Synod, respecting his acquaintance with Wesley's Works in general, and especially with his Sermons and his Notes on the New Testament, in addition to the other Examinations required by our existing Rules: and no Preacher shall be so recommended unless the result of his examination be satisfactory to the Synod (Minutes, vol. iv., p. 122).

2. Arrangements shall be made for conducting the Examination, in the Conference, of Candidates for Ordination at a time when the President of the Conference can attend, and when a large proportion of the Conference, including its official members, may be expected to be present.

3. An explicit declaration of his belief of the Doctrines of Methodism shall be required of each Candidate.

EXAMINATION OF PREACHERS ON TRIAL.

Q. XIV. What is the Report upon the EXAMINATION OF PREACHERS ON TRIAL for the past year? And what are the directions of the Conference respecting the EXAMINATION OF PREACHERS ON TRIAL for the ensuing year?

A. 1. The following is a summary of the Report upon the Examination of Preachers on Trial.

The Examination was held on March 28 and 29.

The Regulations concerning re-examination have been duly observed. Four men of the Fourth Year were re-examined prior to the meeting of the Synods. Of the other years thirty-one cases of failure were re-examined at the June examination. Influenza has again seriously interfered with the examination. We regret to report that 116 papers were postponed to June. But in no case has a request for postponement been acceded to, except in accordance with the rule laid down by the last Conference, that the Chairman of the District and the Superintendent of the Circuit should give their sanction. In nearly all cases the full number of subjects have been taken; there are, however, the following exceptions: One man in the Fourth Year, one in the Third, and two in the Second, have each taken four subjects only, and one in the Second Year has taken only two subjects; and in the First Year, one has taken only three subjects: but the reasons for these exceptions are quite sufficient to satisfy the Committee.

The following is a comparison of the present system of marking with that which was formerly in use:

Present Scale.		Former Scale.	Meaning.
i*	answers to	i+	Exceptionally excellent.
i	,, ,,	i	Excellent.
2	,, ,,	2+	Very good.
3	,, ,,	2	Good.
4	,, ,,	3+	Fair.
5	,, ,,	3	Moderate.
6	,, ,,	4+	Poor.
7	,, ,,	4	Very poor.

The general results of the examination of the Probationers of each year are as follows:

First Year.—47 probationers were examined, who wrote 187 papers, the valuation marks of which are as follows: i*, 1; i, 20; ii, 25; iii, 49; iv, 60; v, 29; vi, 3; vii, 0; Failures, 0.

Second Year.—43 probationers were examined, who wrote 211 papers, the valuation marks of which are as follows: i*, 2; i, 24; ii, 42; iii, 56; iv, 49; v, 30; vi, 5; vii, 0; Failures, 3.

Third Year.—41 probationers were examined, who wrote 204 papers, the valuation marks of which are as follows: i*, 3; i, 7; ii, 35; iii, 51; iv, 52; v, 48; vi, 4; vii, 3; Failures, 1.

Fourth Year.—32 probationers were examined, who wrote 159 papers, the valuation marks of which are as follows: i*, 7; i, 15; ii, 21; iii, 34; iv, 53; v, 25; vi, 4; vii, 0; Failures, 0.

The average marks obtained by the examinees as compared with those of 1894 are as follows:

Second Year.—1894: Papers valued 4, 27%; above 4, 51%; below 4, 22%.—1895: Papers valued 4, 23%; above 4, 59%; below 4, 18%.

Fourth Year.—1894: Papers valued 4, 23%; above 4, 54%; below 4, 23%.—1895: Papers valued 4, 33%; above 4, 48%; below 4, 18%.

A place in the Honours List is assigned to those who take the full number of subjects required, and in other respects fulfil the conditions of the Examination as laid down in the Minutes of Conference, and who obtain an average mark not exceeding 3 for the subjects taken in the Examination. In the First Class are placed those whose average mark does not exceed 1. In the Second Class those who have an average of between 1 and 2. In the Third Class those who have an average of between 2 and 3. The names in each year stand in the order of merit; but, on account of the difference in subjects, no attempt is made to compare one year with another. In Greek and Hebrew there are two Papers—an easier and a more difficult. It is plain that it would not be fair to classify together those who took the easier and those who took the harder Papers, without distinguishing them by discriminating marks. The Committee has consequently attached diacritic marks to the names in the Honours List as follows: (a) Higher Greek and Hebrew; (b) Greek and Hebrew—one Higher, one Lower; (c) Lower Greek and Hebrew; (d) Greek, but not Hebrew; (e) neither Greek nor Hebrew. The Honours List for this year is as follows:

N.B.—Inasmuch as it is now optional to take Subject iv. in the Fourth, Third, and Second Years, and Subject iii. in the First Year, in Greek, it would be manifestly unfair to classify the marks in Greek as being on a level with those in English. The Committee has therefore, when making up the Honours List, reckoned the mark in Greek as two grades higher.

FIRST YEAR.—First Class: (a) J. H. Darrell, B.A.; (a) E. Greeves.—Second Class: (a) T. H. Barratt, B.A., (a) E. D. Jackson, B.A., (a) E. T. Simpson, B.A., (a) H. E. Wright, B.A., (bracketed equal); (b) P. H. Ellenberger, (b) A. T. Hocking, (bracketed equal).—Third Class: (b) B. I. K. Cowling, (a) S. B. Gregory, B.A., (a) W. C. Piggott (bracketed equal); (b) G. H. Bloye; (b) J. C. Adlard, (b) A. D. Baskerville, (d) E. J. Chappell, (e) R. W. Jones, (a) M. Phillipson, (b) W. Platt (bracketed equal).

SECOND YEAR.—First Class: None.—Second Class: (a) W. J. Moulton, B.A.; (d) H. Fytche, (a) B. Nume, (a) J. E. Rattenbury, (a) W. H. Thorp, B.A. (bracketed equal).—Third Class: (d) A. Gray, (a) W. R. Maltby, (d) A. Myers (bracketed equal); (d) J. Kelly, (d) R. H. Lloyd, (e) H. M. Nield (bracketed equal); (a) W. H. O. Lake, (d) F. R. Watson (bracketed equal); (a) J. E. Clegg, (a) E. A. French, (a) A. P. Gill, (d) W. W. Hollings, (c) W. Norton (bracketed equal); (b) E. Bulmer, (e) R. G. Roberts (bracketed equal).

THIRD YEAR.—First Class: None.—Second Class: (a) W. E. Beet, B.A. (special examination); (a) J. P. Hodgson; (a) H. Martin, M.A.—Third Class: (a) J. W. Lightley; (a) R. E. Brown, B.A., (a) C. A. Healing, (d) J. Ward (bracketed equal); (a) F. Cox, (c) H. J. Cundy, (e) T. C. Roberts, (a) G. Wright, B.A. (bracketed equal); (d) V. C. Cook, (a) J. E. Dixon, (c) S. H. Dunstan, (d) W. H. Parkin, (d) C. D. Thomas (bracketed equal).

FOURTH YEAR.—First Class: (a) J. H. Ritson, M.A.; (d) A. O. Sanderson, M.A.; (a) T. Stephenson, B.A.—Second Class: (a) E. J. B. Kirtlan, B.A., B.D. (of the Second Year, took Fourth Year's subjects); (a) P. Watchurst.—Third Class: (b) J. W. Clarke, (b) D. G. Macrae (bracketed equal); (a) F. F. Bretherton, B.A.; (d) T. S. Knowlson, (d) S. Marriott (bracketed equal); (a) A. W. Bunnett, M.A., (d) E. H. Woolrych (bracketed equal).

F. Edwards, examined according to the regulations concerning those who have not begun Probation, has qualified for First, and W. E. Rees and C. F. Groom for Third Class Honours.

Special Examinations were arranged for W. E. Beet, B.A., H. C. Morton, B.A., and F. W. Lewis, B.A., who took subjects and marks as follows: W. E. Beet, B.A.: (i.) Mackenzie's Ethics and Muirhead's Ethics, 1*; (ii.) Sidgwick's History of Ethics, 1; (iii.) St. John's Gospel (Greek), 2; (iv.) Colossians (Greek, advanced), 4; (v.) Psalms i.–xvii. (Hebrew, advanced), 4.—H. C. Morton, B.A.: (i.) Caird on Hegel, 1; (ii.) Herbert Spencer's Psychology, vol. i., 2; (iii.) Martineau's Types, vol. ii., 1*; (iv.) Acts xvii.–xxii. (Greek, advanced), 1; (v.) Micah (Hebrew, advanced), 4.—F. W. Lewis, B.A.: (i.) Stevens' Pauline Theology, 1*; (ii.) Orr's Christian View of God and the World, 1; (iii.) Seth's Scottish Philosophy, 1; (iv.) Acts xvii.–xxii. (Greek, advanced), 1; (v.) Micah (Hebrew, advanced), 5.

Six Probationers on the President's List of Reserve who had not entered upon the four years of Probation were examined according to the Regulations for such cases (see p. 200).

2. GENERAL REGULATIONS.—(1) The Examination of Preachers on Trial shall be conducted by a Connexional Board of Examiners, to consist of one Examiner in each subject contained in the course of reading prescribed for the four years of probation.

(2) In addition to the Probationers' Examination Committee, three General Examination Secretaries shall be appointed.

(3) Arrangements shall be made at each Financial District Synod for a Central Examination of Preachers on Trial in each District, or more than one, if necessary; at which Central Examination or Examinations the Probationers in that District shall attend. In the event of any Preacher on Trial being unable to pay the necessary travelling expenses, those expenses shall be defrayed, together with other expenses of the Examination, from the Home Mission and Contingent Fund and from the Theological Institution Fund, in such proportions as the Committees of those Funds may decide.

(4) At each Financial District Synod a District Probationers' Examination Secretary shall be appointed, or more than one, so as to provide a Secretary to take charge of each Central Examination in the District; and each District Secretary shall be held responsible for the efficient conduct of the Central Examination. Full and clear instructions as to the course to be pursued shall be forwarded to the District Secretaries by the General Secretaries.

(5) The Examination shall be held in the spring, on days to be fixed from year to year; and shall take place throughout the Connexion on the same days.

(6) The Examination Papers, prepared under the direction of the Committee, shall be sent by the General Secretaries to each District Examination Secretary, whose duty it shall be to distribute them at the Central Examination, and by the earliest post transmit to the General Secretaries the Papers written by the several Probationers at those Examinations.

(7) The Probationers' Papers shall be forwarded by the General Secretaries to the Examiners for valuation, and each Examiner shall send to them the results of his valuation of the Papers shown by numbers, together with any remarks upon them which he may think desirable.

In the case of the North and South Wales Districts, such variations from the foregoing arrangements are permitted as the Examination Secretaries may find necessary.

(8) The General Secretaries shall compile from the returns of the Examiners a complete Report upon the examination of each Probationer, and forward it to the District Examination Secretary, to be presented by him to the May District Synod, together with such remarks on the Examination of the Preachers on Trial in the District as he may think desirable. The numbers obtained by each Preacher on Trial in the several subjects of Examination shall be entered on the Minutes of the District Synod. The Resolutions of the District Synods on the Examination of Preachers on Trial shall be forwarded to the General Secretaries by the District Examination Secretaries.

(9) The Conference directs the General Examination Secretaries to send, in May, to each District Synod having one or more Candidates for Ordination, a Report showing the result of the examination of every such Candidate during each year of his probation.

(10) The General Secretaries shall prepare and present to the Conference a General Report upon the Examination of the Preachers on Trial.

3. The following Ministers are appointed the Probationers' Examination Committee for the ensuing year; viz. the PRESIDENT of the Conference, the EX-PRESIDENT, the SECRETARY; the Tutors of the four Branches of the Theological Institution; the General Examination Secretaries; the Rev. George W. Olver, B.A., Dr. Rigg, Dr. Stephenson, and William L. Watkinson. The Rev. DR. MOULTON is appointed the Secretary of this Committee.

4. The Rev. DR. MOULTON, G. ARMSTRONG BENNETTS, B.A., and JAMES HOPE MOULTON, M.A., are appointed General Examination Secretaries.

(c) Romans i.–viii., in English.
vi. (a) Amos, in Hebrew (advanced); or (b) Malachi, in Hebrew (easier); or (c) Amos and Malachi, in English.

7. The Conference requires every Probationer who is acquainted with Greek and Hebrew to take the Greek and Hebrew subjects which are specified in the list of subjects for his year. Every Probationer who has been a Student in the Theological Institution shall be examined in these Greek and Hebrew subjects, unless the Tutors under whom he studied, having taken into consideration his attainments on leaving the Institution, are of opinion that these examinations cannot reasonably be required in his case. In each year two Greek and two Hebrew papers shall be provided, of different degrees of difficulty; and, not later than October 1 in each year, the Committee shall decide, on the recommendation of the Tutors, what Probationers shall be expected to take the more difficult Papers.

8. The subject marked iii. in the list for the First Year, and iv. in the other lists, may be taken either in Greek or in English by those Probationers who, in the portions of the Greek Testament prescribed for their respective years, take the advanced papers. All who take the subject in Greek shall receive special recognition in the Report of the Examination.

9. The Conference requires every Probationer of the Second, Third, and Fourth Years respectively to be examined in four subjects; but it expects such Probationers to be examined, as a rule, in five subjects. Probationers of the First Year shall be examined in four subjects. In all cases in which the full number of subjects is not taken, special attention shall be called to the fact in the report presented to the District Synod.

10. Every Probationer of the Second, Third, and Fourth Years respectively shall be examined in the subjects marked iv., v., and vi., in the list of subjects for his year. Every Probationer of the First Year shall be examined in the subjects marked iii., iv., and v., in the list of subjects for his year. Every Probationer of the Fourth Year shall be examined in subject i. in the list of subjects for his year.

11. Whenever a Probationer obtains a lower grade than 5 (see p. 190) for a paper on any portion of Scripture, either in the original language or in English, he shall be re-examined in the same subject, and the results of both examinations shall be specially reported to the Conference. In the examinations on the Hebrew Bible and Greek Testament, questions on points of grammar shall form an essential part of every paper set.

12. In the case of Probationers of the Fourth Year, the second examination referred to in the last paragraph shall, if possible, take place early in May, in order that the District Synod may be made acquainted with the result. In other cases, the second examination shall, as a rule, be held in the latter part of June.

13. In no case shall the Examination, in whole or in part, be postponed without the sanction of the General Examination Secretaries, the Chairman of the District, and the Superintendent of the Circuit.

14. Every Probationer shall, not later than October 1, 1895, inform Dr. Moulton what subjects he will present for Examination.

15. Every Probationer, whether appointed to a Circuit or on the List of Reserve, shall be examined in the subjects of his year.

16. If any Student be removed from the Theological Institution for Circuit work later than Christmas Day in any year, he shall not be expected to take the subjects prescribed for the examination of Probationers; but provision shall be made for his being examined, not later than June, in five subjects arranged by his Tutors and the General Examination Secretaries, in accordance with the course of study which he pursued before leaving the Institution. In every instance three of the subjects presented for examination shall be books (or portions of books) of Scripture. The result of this Examination shall be reported to the Conference, and shall be included in the special report required in the case of all Candidates for Ordination. The examination of any who are on the President's List of Reserve, but have not entered upon the four years of Probation, shall be arranged on a similar principle.

17. The days of Examination for the ensuing year shall be Thursday and Friday, March 19 and 20, 1896.

18. Should any Probationer be prevented by illness, or otherwise, from attending the Annual Examination, the General Secretaries shall, in concert with the Chairman of the District in which he is stationed, make suitable provision for his examination. In every case, intimation should be sent to Dr. Moulton as early as possible.

19. The Conference sees no sufficient reason for the exemption of those brethren who have formerly been Ministers in other Churches from the usual course of reading and examination prescribed by the Conference for Preachers on Trial, and directs that they be required to observe such regulations.

20. The Examination Committee is instructed to prepare and send to each Probationer, early in October, a list of books specially recommended for the reading of Preachers on Trial, some of which shall have particular reference to the scriptural doctrine of the Church. The Conference directs that when the Book Lists of Preachers on Trial are under consideration in the May District Synods, the Chairmen shall note how far their reading has been guided by this list. The list for the year 1895–6 is as follows:

EXAMINATION OF CANDIDATES FOR THE MINISTRY.

Q. XV. What are the directions of the Conference respecting the EXAMINATION OF CANDIDATES FOR THE MINISTRY?

A. 1. (1) No Candidate for the Ministry shall be received who does not possess a fair acquaintance with English Grammar, Orthography, Arithmetic, Geography, and History.

(2) In any case in which a Candidate has not resided for two years continuously in the Circuit from which he is recommended, the Superintendent of that Circuit shall obtain a written report concerning him from his former Superintendent or Superintendents, so as to cover the previous two years, and present the same to the March Quarterly Meeting and to the District Synod.

(3) A preliminary Examination by papers, which shall be prepared each year by the Tutors of the several Branches of the Theological Institution in turn, shall be conducted, before the session of the District Synod, by a Sub-Committee, who shall value the answers of the Candidates; the report of their valuation to be sent to the District Synod concerned. This Sub-Committee shall be appointed by the Conference. The answers shall be written in the presence of the Superintendents of the Circuits by which the Candidates are recommended, or of one or more other Ministers. This Examination shall be held on Thursday, April 16, 1896.

The Sub-Committee for this year shall consist of the Rev. G. Armstrong Bennetts, B.A., Simpson Johnson, J. Scott Lidgett, M.A., and John Telford, B.A.

(4) Candidates who have matriculated at the London University, or have passed an equivalent entrance examination at any other University in the United Kingdom, or have passed the Oxford or Cambridge Senior Local Examination, or obtained a Queen's Scholarship as Candidates for Admission into a Training College, are exempt from the preliminary Examination.

(5) In order to secure, as far as practicable, uniformity of valuation, figures showing the number of marks obtainable by a complete answer shall be placed at the end of each question; and no Candidate shall be considered to have passed a satisfactory examination who does not gain one-fourth of the maximum number of marks allotted to the whole of the papers. No Candidate shall be excused from the preliminary Examination on the ground that he has passed it in a former year.

(6) No Candidate who has failed to obtain the minimum number of marks in the preliminary Examination shall undergo the usual Examination by the District Synods unless, in the judgment of the Synod, he possesses such special gifts as to justify an exceptional procedure.

2. (1) Every Preacher who is recommended for Admission on Trial shall, at or before the time of the Annual District Synod, preach in the presence of, at least, three of the Ministers of the Synod, to be selected by the Chairman, exclusive of the Superintendent by whom the Candidate is proposed; and a special report of the Sermon shall be made in the District Synod, and immediately forwarded, in writing, to the Secretaries of the Committee for the Examination of Candidates.

(2) Arrangements shall be made by the May District Synod for the hearing of each Candidate by two Ministers of the District, in addition to those who have heard him before his recommendation by the Synod; and such Ministers shall immediately forward their Report to the Rev. Peter Thompson, 2, Portland Street, Commercial Road East, London, E. They are requested not to fix marks of value.

(3) In the case of Candidates from the Zetland District, arrangements shall be made by the Secretaries of the Committee for the Examination of Candidates for the second trial sermon to be preached in England.

N.B.—Three different Trial Sermons are required from each Candidate; two preached, and one sent in manuscript.

(4) District Synods are empowered to examine by Special Committee any Candidates who, for exceptional reasons, are prevented from being present at the appointed time of Examination; every such case to be specially recorded in the Minutes of the Synod, and reported to the Conference.

3. The Special Examination of Candidates for the Ministry, who have passed the District Synods, shall be conducted by a Committee in two Sections, having charge of Examinations to be held simultaneously at Richmond and Didsbury, respectively.

This Examination shall be held in the week following Sunday, July 12, 1896.

(1) The two Sections of this Committee shall be constituted as follows:

(i.) THE SOUTHERN SECTION, to meet at Richmond, shall consist of the PRESIDENT of the Conference; the Ex-Presidents living in the London and adjoining Districts; one or two of the Secretaries of the Missionary Society; the Tutors and Governors of the Richmond and Birmingham Branches; the Local Secretary of the Richmond Branch; the Secretary of the Home Mission Committee; one of the General Secretaries of the Examination Committee; the Rev. Robert Culley; together with twelve other Ministers of the three London Districts, four of whom shall be elected by the District Synod of each of the said Districts in May.

(ii.) THE NORTHERN SECTION, to meet at Didsbury, shall consist of the Ex-Presidents living in the Manchester and adjoining Districts; the SECRETARY of the Conference; one of the Secretaries of the Missionary Society; the Tutors and Governors of the Didsbury and Headingley Branches; the Local Secretary of the Didsbury Branch; one of the General Secretaries of the Examination Committee; the Rev. E. Lightwood Smith; together with twenty-one Ministers of the Liverpool, Manchester, and Bolton Districts, seven of whom shall be elected by the District Synod of each of the said Districts in May.

N.B.—The Tutors of the Theological Institution shall conduct the Oral Examination of Candidates before the Committee.

(2) Two Sub-Committees, to read and report on the manuscript sermons of the Candidates, shall be annually appointed as follows: one for the Southern Section, consisting of six Ministers, two of whom shall be chosen by the District Synod of each of the three London Districts from among the Ministers elected by it as members of the Examination Committee; and another for the Northern Section, consisting of six Ministers, two of whom shall be chosen by the District Synods of the Liverpool, Manchester, and Bolton Districts respectively, from among the Ministers elected by them as members of the Examination Committee.

(3) The Literary Paper for the Examination shall be prepared, in succession, by the Tutors in Biblical Literature and in Classics of each of the four Branches of the Theological Institution; and the Theological Paper for the Examination shall be prepared, in succession, by the Theological Tutors of the said four Branches.

(4) The Tutors in Biblical Literature and in Classics of the Richmond and Birmingham Branches shall be the Literary Examiners for the Southern Section of the Committee; and the Tutors in Biblical Literature and in Classics of the Didsbury and Headingley Branches shall be the Literary Examiners for the Northern Section of the Committee.

(5) Candidates who are Graduates of any University in the United Kingdom shall not be required to take the Literary Paper.

(6) The Examiners of the Papers in Theology, written by the Candidates, shall be appointed as follows: the First and Second London, the Liverpool, and the Manchester District Synods shall each appoint one Examiner from among the Ministers elected by it as Members of the Examination Committee; thus providing two Examiners for each of the two Sections.

(7) In connexion with each Section of the Committee two Medical Examiners shall be employed, one of whom shall be a specialist on residence in a tropical climate.

(8) The Rev. WILLIAM J. TWEDDLE, General Secretary of the Theological Institution, and PETER THOMPSON are re-appointed General Secretaries of the Examination Committee.

(9) All communications relating to Candidates, and the Reports on their sermons heard after the District Synods, must be addressed to the Rev. Peter Thompson, 2, Portland Street, Commercial Road East, London, E.

(10) The Local Secretary of the Richmond Branch of the Theological Institution, and the Rev. Robert Culley, are appointed to act as Examination Secretaries for the Southern Section; and the Local Secretary for the Didsbury Branch, and the Rev. E. Lightwood Smith, to act as Examination Secretaries for the Northern Section.

4. SYSTEM OF MARKING IN EXAMINATIONS.—The Conference resolves: (1) that in future, in valuing all Examinations and Trial Sermons, a system of marks by numbers from 1 to 7 be adopted: number 1 being the highest value, and 7 the lowest; (2) that the seven grades from 1 to 7 shall signify respectively, Excellent, Very good, Good, Fair, Moderate, Poor, Very poor. Also, that the marks 1, 2, 3, denote three grades of an Honours' Division; and 4, 5, 6, 7, four grades in a Pass Division; "average" quality being indicated by the mark 4 (fair).

5. CANDIDATES FROM THE WELSH DISTRICTS.

(1) The Conference directs that Candidates from the North and South Wales Districts shall be examined alternately by the two Sections of the Examination Committee, and that a Minister be elected to be a Member of this Committee by the North or the South Wales District Synod, according as the Examination is held at Didsbury or Richmond.

(2) Candidates from the Welsh Districts are required, if able, to preach two sermons in connexion with the Annual District Synod, one in Welsh and one in English.

(3) Candidates for the Ministry from the Welsh Districts, who are able to preach in English and who pass their Examinations in English, shall be regarded as eligible for the general work.

6. CANDIDATES FROM IRELAND FOR FOREIGN MISSION WORK. (See Minutes, 1886, pp. 203, 204.)

7. The names of the Candidates who come before the Candidates' Examination Committee shall be presented to the Conference in three sections: (1) those who are unanimously recommended; (2) those upon whom a divided vote was taken, with the result of the voting (in recording the voting, the number of neutrals shall be counted); (3) those who are unanimously declined.

N.B.—When a Candidate has been recommended by a divided vote in the Examination Committee, he shall be only provisionally accepted until the entire list of Candidates has been considered, when the Conference shall finally decide his case.

8. Except when the Conference directs otherwise, accepted Candidates shall be sent forthwith to the Institution.

THEOLOGICAL INSTITUTION DISCIPLINE COMMITTEES.

Q. XVI. What are the Resolutions of the Conference with regard to the DISCIPLINE COMMITTEES for the Theological Institution?

A. 1. The General Discipline Committee shall consist of all the Members of the Local Discipline Committees; and shall meet at the least twice a year; the first Meeting to be in anticipation of the second Quarterly Meeting of the General Committee of the Theological Institution, and the second to take place before the fourth Quarterly Meeting of the same General Committee.

2. Each Local Discipline Committee shall meet quarterly, and at every Meeting the question shall be asked concerning each Student, Is there any objection to ——?

N.B.—This enquiry shall include all questions affecting his moral and religious character, observance of College rules, attention to studies, preaching ability, competency for our work, and health.

3. In any case of discipline, when the Local Discipline Committee shall so decide, a Meeting of the General Discipline Committee shall be called to consider the case; and on receiving notice thereof, the General Secretary shall, in consultation with the President of the Conference, arrange for such meeting. The place and time shall be fixed by the President.

4. Subject to the foregoing provision, the Local Discipline Committees shall retain the power of summary action in urgent cases, and in cases of idleness or incompetence.

5. The Local Discipline Committee, on dismissing a Student from College, shall have power to determine all points concerning his status, employment, and maintenance until the next meeting of the General Discipline Committee, whose decision shall take effect until Conference.

6. All cases of discipline during the year, at any Branch of the Institution, shall be reported to the General Discipline Committee at its meeting immediately before Conference.

7. The Governor of the Institution House shall answer for the Students to the Conference.

8. In the resolutions of the Conference, 1883, on the constitution and powers of the Discipline Committees, the words "that a list of ministers so appointed shall be forwarded to the Nomination Committee" are deleted, resolution No. 4 is rescinded, and the resolutions so modified are as follows:

(1) Inasmuch as from the beginning of the Institution the custom has been to refer to the Discipline Committee of the Branch, consisting of Ministers only, all questions affecting the moral conduct, theological soundness, or general behaviour of the Students, and the Discipline Committee has reported to the Conference; but in cases where the action of the Discipline Committee affected the residence of a Student, the custom has been to inform the Executive Committee of such action, the Conference directs: That no alteration be made in these customs, and that they be uniformly followed in all the Branches.

(2) The Conference directs that the practice which prevails at some Branches shall be adopted at all; viz. that in accepting the report of the Discipline Committee in regard to the reception as full Students of those who have been three months on probation, the vote of the Executive Committee shall be taken in each case separately.

(3) The Conference shall appoint from year to year for each Branch of the Institution ten Ministers, who, in addition to the Tutors and Secretary of such Branch, shall constitute the Discipline Committee. The Secretaries of the Missionary Society shall be ex officio members of the Discipline Committee of the Richmond Branch.

9. When it is decided by the Local and General Discipline Committees that the full period of three years' training at College should in the case of any Student be shortened, the ministerial probation of such Student shall not be reckoned as beginning until the Conference at which he would have completed his three years' training. This rule shall not apply to Students who have taken a Degree in any of the Universities of the United Kingdom.

The Rev. WILLIAM J. TWEDDLE is the Secretary of the General Discipline Committee.

10. The following are the members of the Local Discipline Committees:

Richmond Branch.—The PRESIDENT of the Conference; the EX-PRESIDENT of the Conference; the SECRETARY of the Conference; the Tutors and Local Secretary; the Secretaries of the Missionary Society; the Rev. J. Ernest Clapham, Joseph Dixon, Charles H. Kelly, Joseph Nettleton, Dr. Rigg, Richard Roberts, Dr. Stephenson, Peter Thompson, and William J. Tweddle.

Beardmore, George Charter, Edward Dodds, William Hawken, William Middleton, Charles F. Nightingale, Joseph Olphert, Alfred Sargent, and Ralph M. Spoor.

NOMINATION COMMITTEE.

Q. XVIII. Who is appointed the Ministerial Secretary of the NOMINATION COMMITTEE?

A. The Rev. Thomas Allen.

BOOK AFFAIRS.

Q. XIX. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on receiving the Report of the Committee on BOOK AFFAIRS?

A. 1. The Conference adopts the Report of the Book Committee.

2. The Conference resolves:

(1) That the Book Committee shall consist (a) of the following ex officio members: The PRESIDENT of the Conference, the SECRETARY of the Conference, the Ex-Presidents residing in the London and adjoining Districts, the Book Steward, the Connexional Editor, the Secretary of the Book Committee, the Secretary of the Tract Committee, the Secretary of the Education Committee, the Secretary of the Connexional Sunday-school Union, the Secretaries of the Missionary Society, the Secretary of the Home Mission and Contingent Fund, the Tutors at the Richmond Branch of the Theological Institution, and the Librarian of the Allan Library; and (b) of twenty-five Ministers to be annually appointed by the Conference from those resident in the Metropolitan Postal and Police area.

(2) That a Finance and Consultation Committee, consisting of fourteen Members, including the Officers of the Book Room, shall be appointed by the Book Committee from its own Members at its first meeting after Conference.

(3) That Readers shall be annually chosen by the Book Committee at its first meeting after Conference; that one or more of these shall be selected by the Book Steward to read any Manuscript offered for publication, who shall make confidential reports to the Book Steward and Editor.

The Book Steward shall report to the Committee, and the Committee shall have power to accept or reject Manuscripts.

(4) That the Tract Committee shall consist of the Officers of the Book Room and twelve other Ministers to be annually appointed by the Conference from those resident within the same area as the London Book Committee. The names of the Tract Committee shall be printed in the Minutes of Conference.

The Tract Committee shall report, through its Secretary, to the Book Committee.

3. The Book Committee for the ensuing year shall consist of the Rev. DAVID J. WALLER, D.D., President of the Conference; MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary; Walford Green, William Arthur, M.A., Dr. Rigg, Dr. Gregory, Dr. Jenkins, Richard Roberts, John Walton, M.A., Charles H. Kelly, Dr. Moulton, and Dr. Stephenson, Ex-Presidents; William L. Watkinson, Connexional Editor; William J. Tweddle, Secretary of the Book Committee; Arthur Wood, B.A., Secretary of the Tract Committee; Robert Culley, Secretary of the Connexional Sunday-school Union; George W. Olver, B.A.,

and Frederic W. Macdonald, Secretaries of the Wesleyan Missionary Society; J. Ernest Clapham, Secretary of the Home Mission and Contingent Fund; George Fletcher, Joseph Agar Beet, D.D., Alfred S. Geden, M.A., Tutors of the Richmond Branch of the Theological Institution; Nehemiah Curnock, Librarian of the Allan Library; and Richard W. Allen, Thomas Allen, William G. Beardmore, John Bond, William J. Brown, George Charter, James Crabtree, James Critchison, Joseph Dixon, Arthur E. Gregory, Samuel Gregory, John H. Grubb, Hugh Price Hughes, M.A., Simpson Johnson, Alfred Martyn, William Middleton, Joseph Nettleton, Charles F. Nightingale, Joseph Olphert, Allen Rees, Thomas G. Selby, Alfred Sargent, Ralph M. Spoor, John Stevinson, and J. Cornelius Wright.

4. The Rev. WILLIAM J. TWEDDLE is re-appointed the Secretary of this Committee for the ensuing year. Letters should be addressed to him at 34, Croftdown Road, Highgate Road, N.W.

5. The Methodist Tract Committee shall consist of the Book Steward, the Connexional Editor, the Secretary of the Book Committee, the Rev. Frederick B. Cowl, Thomas Cross, Nehemiah Curnock (B), Samuel Gregory, John H. Grubb, Simpson Johnson, Charles F. Nightingale, Joseph Olphert, George Sanderson, Alfred Sargent, John E. Wakerley, and Arthur Wood, B.A.

The Rev. ARTHUR WOOD, B.A., is re-appointed the Secretary of the Tract Committee. Communications should be addressed to him at 47, City Road, London, E.C.

6. The Conference directs that the old rule as to payment of Ministers' Book Accounts be observed; viz. that remittances be made quarterly, and all balances paid at the Conference.

7. The Conference resolves that for the future the Grants to Connexional Funds shall be paid out of the profits actually made during the Connexional Year then ending, and not out of profits to be made, in part or wholly, during the year then ensuing.

Q. XX. What RESOLUTIONS provisionally adopted by the last Conference in its Pastoral Session, and sent to the District Synods for consideration, are now confirmed?

A. Native Ministers and the Yearly Conference (see p. 217).

Q. XXI. What RESOLUTIONS of the Conference are to be submitted to the Districts in Great Britain, at their Annual Synods, when Ministers only are present?

A. None.

MISCELLANEOUS RESOLUTIONS.

1. The respectful and hearty thanks of the Conference are due and are hereby presented to its late President, the Rev. WALFORD GREEN, for his able, genial, and indefatigable discharge of the duties of his office, both during the Sessions of the last Conference and throughout the year.

2. The cordial thanks of the Conference are presented to the Rev. DAVID J. WALLER, D.D., for his most efficient services as Secretary of the Conference during the past year.

3. The respectful thanks of the Conference are due, and are hereby presented to the EX-PRESIDENT, the Rev. WALFORD GREEN, for his able, edifying, and inspiring Charge delivered to the newly ordained Ministers in Ebenezer Chapel, Plymouth, on Monday, August 5, 1895.

THE REV. GEORGE BOWDEN, D.D.—In granting the request of the Rev. George Bowden, D.D., to become a Supernumerary, the Conference records its high appreciation of his personal character, and of the distinguished services which, through so many years, he has rendered to the Church, alike by his fervent and successful ministry of the word, and by his assiduous attention to pastoral duties. His ability and tender fidelity in the pulpit have been seconded by loving care of our people in their homes and families; and in his various Circuits, the Saturday afternoon Bible-class for Children has been made pre-eminently useful in bringing young hearts to Christ. The Conference records its special thankfulness to the Giver of all grace for the high standard of Christian character which Dr. Bowden has maintained throughout his ministry.

In the important offices of Superintendent of a Circuit and Chairman of a District Dr. Bowden has been faithful to his trust. His administration has been characterised by firmness, vigour, prudence, and enterprise. The recent revival of Methodism in the rural Circuits of the Bristol and Bath District is largely owing to his initiation and zealous co-operation.

His brethren gratefully remember Dr. Bowden's devoted services during the seven years in which he filled the responsible position of Governor of Kingswood School. They owe him an unspeakable debt of gratitude for the influence he there exerted over the boys. Nor can they forget the unremitting care of Mrs. Bowden.

The Conference prays that Dr. Bowden may be long spared to serve the Church, for the extension and consolidation of which he has so long laboured, and that he may day by day be filled with all spiritual benediction and grace.

CHAIRMAN OF MEMORIALS COMMITTEE.—The Conference resolves that the Ex-President, year by year, shall be the ex officio Chairman of the Committee on Memorials and Suggestions.

CONVENER OF MEMORIALS COMMITTEE.—1. The Rev. JOHN S. SIMON is appointed the Convener of the Committee on Memorials and Suggestions.

2. The Convener is instructed to divide the District Suggestions into two lists, according to their Subjects: (1) For the Pastoral Session, and (2) for the Representative Session, of the Conference; and submit the lists to the President before they are entered in the Agenda.

3. The SECRETARY of the Conference shall furnish the Convener with a list of all matters referred for consideration to the several Departmental Committees; and the Convener shall obtain the several decisions of the said Committees thereupon, and present them to the following Conference.

CONVENER OF SCRUTINEERS.—The Rev. JAMES E. HARGREAVES is appointed to take charge of the voting for the Legal Conference, and for all offices, at the Conference of 1896; and is an ex officio member of the Pastoral Session of that Conference.

NATIVE MINISTERS AND THE YEARLY CONFERENCE.—The Conference finally adopts the following Resolutions (see Q. XX., p. 215). Inasmuch as it has been and is the purpose and practice of the Conference to establish on its various Mission Fields, as soon as may be, self-supporting and self-controlling Churches, and as the progress of Mission Churches renders it expedient from time to time to develop their organisation in agreement with this purpose, and gradually to entrust them with powers of general administration and of discipline in particular, as preparing the way for the constitution of Affiliated Conferences:

In order, therefore, to define both the relation to the Yearly Conference of Ministers employed in these Missions, and also the disciplinary powers which may be entrusted to them, the Conference provisionally resolves as follows:

I.—That in place of the Question, "Who are now admitted into Full Connexion with the Conference?" and its Answer as heretofore, the entry in the Journals and in the Minutes shall be in the form following; viz.

Q. 1. Who are now admitted into Full Connexion with the Conference?

A. (1) In Great Britain:

(2) In our Foreign Missions:

a. Ministers sent out from this Country.

b. Ministers admitted for Service in the Countries specified; viz.—

(3) In Ireland:

Under Section (2) a of this Answer shall be entered the names of all Ministers who have been sent out by the Missionary Committee, and have a claim, on their return, to enter the Home Work.

Under Section (2) b shall be entered the names of all Ministers, whether Native or otherwise, who have been called into the work on Foreign Stations. These have no claim to any appointment in this Country, or to any payments from Home Funds. (See also Minutes, 1891, pp. 231 and 232.)

N.B.—If any Minister who has been admitted into Full Connexion with the Conference for service in a specified Country shall be appointed to service in another Country his Full Connexion with the Conference shall not be disturbed thereby.

II.—1. That Courts of Superior Jurisdiction shall be constituted in such manner and for such Districts or Groups of Districts as the Conference may from time to time direct.

2. That these Courts shall hear all appeals from the decisions of the District Synods concerning discipline.

3. That these Courts shall investigate and decide all questions of fact, and that the certified records of the Courts shall be taken as conclusive evidence of what the facts are: subject always to the right of the Conference, if new and material evidence is produced, to direct a new trial.

4. That the decisions of these Courts as to penalty shall be final, except that:

(1) On all questions of judicial procedure, the interpretation of law, or the definition of doctrine, an appeal shall lie to the Conference.

(2) In the case of an ordained Minister a sentence of expulsion, or loss of one or more years in ministerial standing, shall be liable to revision by the Conference.

(3) Any similar sentence in the case of a Preacher on Trial sent out from England shall be liable to revision by the Conference, but only as affecting his relation to the Home Work.

5. Provided always:

(1) That no appeal shall be allowed to the Conference, unless the case has first been presented to the Superior Court.

(2) That in every case in which there is an appeal to the Conference from the decision of the Superior Court or any request for revision by the Conference, it shall be sent to the Secretary of the Conference; but notice thereof shall be given to the Chairman of the Superior Court, and a copy of the appeal or request placed in his hands, within six weeks after the decision of the Court. The said copy shall be forthwith forwarded by the Chairman to the General Secretaries of the Missionary Society for the consideration of the Missionary Discipline Committee, and that Committee shall report thereon to the next Conference.

6. Provided further that every Minister or Preacher on Trial shall be subject to the Provincial and District Synods within the area of whose jurisdiction he is for the time being appointed to labour.

III.—1. That the North India, the South India, and the Ceylon Provincial Synods, when constituted as hereafter described, shall be such Courts of Superior Jurisdiction for the Districts which they respectively include.

2. That the North India Provincial Synod shall include the Calcutta, Lucknow and Benares, and Burma Districts; the South India Provincial Synod shall include the Madras, Negapatam and Trichinopoly, Hyderabad, and Mysore Districts; and the Ceylon Provincial Synod shall include all the Districts in Ceylon.

3. That in the Provincial Synods each of the District Synods shall be represented by Ministers sent out from England (hereafter called European Ministers) and by Ministers taken into the work in India or Ceylon, whether Native or otherwise (hereafter called Indian Ministers and Ceylon Ministers respectively), in equal numbers.

N.B.—This section shall be in force, although in any particular District there may not be, for the time being, a sufficient number of Indian or Ceylon Ministers to complete the corresponding Indian or Ceylon representation.

4. That in each of the Indian Districts the number of European Ministers chosen to represent the District shall be one in three of the total European Staff whether in India or on furlough; and of these the Chairman of the District shall be one.

5. That the Ceylon Provincial Synod shall consist of the Chairmen of the Colombo, Kandy, and Galle Districts, with one European Minister and two Ceylon Ministers from each of these Districts; and of the Chairman and three other European Ministers, and four Ceylon Ministers from the Jaffna District.

6. All elections shall be by the united vote of the European and other Ministers.

7. Probationers shall not be eligible as representatives.

8. Each Provincial Synod shall elect its own Chairman and Secretary.

RECORDS AND JOURNALS OF THE CONFERENCE.—1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference resolves:

(1) That in future it shall not be necessary to write out in full in the Daily Record of the Conference, the Lists, Reports, Resolutions, Suggestions, Minutes, or other matters which are already printed in the Conference Agenda, but in each case the entry shall be by reference to the page in the printed volume, such alterations or additions as the Conference may make in what is printed being duly noted; and that, to insure accuracy, every alteration or addition to any List, Resolution, or other matter shall be entered in the official copy of the Agenda when the business in question is before the Conference.

(2) That Lists of Committees appointed to sit during the Conference shall not be re-written in the Daily Record, but the Committee Book shall be preserved with the other official Books; and in each case a copy of the List shall be furnished to the Convener of the Committee in question.

All Lists of Committees appointed to sit during the year shall be entered in the Daily Record, as heretofore.

(3) That every Resolution of the Conference (including the Reports of Committees) which is not presented in print in the Agenda shall be written out as heretofore.

(4) That the Stations of the Ministers shall not be copied into the Journal by hand, but a printed copy, duly certified as correct by the Secretary of the Conference, shall be bound up with the Journal sheets year by year.

With this exception, the keeping of the Journal shall remain as at present.

OBITUARIES OF DECEASED MINISTERS.—1. The following are appointed the Committee for the ensuing year (see Standing Order, No. 76, p. 359): The Rev. DAVID J. WALLER, D.D., President of the Conference; WALFORD GREEN, Ex-President; MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary; Charles H. Kelly, Book Steward; William L. Watkinson, Editor; James Chapman, George Fletcher, Dr. Gregory, William Hirst (A), Dr. Jenkins, Frederic W. Macdonald, Dr. Moulton, Dr. Rigg, William J. Tweddle, John Walton, M.A., and John Telford, B.A., Convener.

2. Secretaries of District Synods are directed to forward obituaries of deceased Ministers to the Convener, immediately after the Annual Meeting of the Synod.

TRANSFERS AND REPORTS ON PROBATIONERS, ETC.—1. The Conference appoints a Committee, consisting of the PRESIDENT and SECRETARY of the Conference, and fifteen other Ministers, five of whom shall be chosen by the Home Mission, the Foreign Missionary, and the Theological Institution Committees, respectively. The Junior Secretary of the Foreign Missionary Society is the Convener of the Committee.

2. This Committee shall sit prior to the Sessions of the Conference, to consider and report upon:

(1) All cases of proposed transfer between the Foreign and the Home Work.

(2) All cases in which the Conference has determined that special reports upon Probationers shall be presented to the ensuing Conference.

(3) The health and general fitness for our work of the men on the President's List of Reserve.

(4) The number of Candidates required for the Ministry.

(5) All applications for admission to our work made by Ministers of other Conferences and Churches.

CANDIDATES FOR THE MINISTRY.—1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference approves the Schedules as revised by the Committee.

The Rev. J. ERNEST CLAPHAM and Mr. PERCY W. BUNTING, M.A., are re-appointed Secretaries to this Committee.

3. The Conference adopts the Report of the Committee.

4. The Conference refers back to the Committee of Privileges the questions dealt with by the following Bills, which were before the late Parliament:

(1) Nonconformist Marriages (Attendance of Registrar) Bill.

(2) Places of Worship (Sites) Bill.

(3) Rating of Places of Worship and Schools Bill.

(4) A Bill to amend the Public Health Acts Amendment Act (1890), Part IV.

(5) Burial Laws Amendment Bill.

(6) Places of Worship Enfranchisement Bill.

And also

(7) The project of law relating to Marriages in Malta now before the Privy Council, with power in certain contingencies to take steps to secure an alteration of the law.

(8) The extension to the entire country of the provisions of the Act for the Regulation of Metropolitan Suburban Racecourses.

(9) The question of the formal recognition of Wesleyan Ministers as Chaplains in Workhouses and Gaols.

(10) The consideration of the question of the introduction into Parliament of a Bill to secure religious liberty in the Elementary Schools of Guernsey.

5. The Conference directs the Committee to endeavour to secure the early reception of a deputation by the Prime Minister and the Leader of the House of Commons, in order o represent the serious disabilities under which Nonconformists till labour, in respect of the various questions dealt with in ıe above-mentioned bills numbered from (1) to (6).

6. The Conference further directs the Committee to endeavour to secure the early reception of a deputation by the ecretary of State for the Colonies, with reference to the ievous injustice done to a considerable number of our llow subjects in Malta, both British and Maltese, through e extraordinary delay in the Report of the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council in the Malta Marriages question.

7. In order to prevent any misunderstanding as to the itude of the Wesleyan Methodist Conference on the subject the Nonconformist Marriages Bill, the Conference deems right to declare that its chief demand is, such legislation as ll remove from Methodist marriage services the presence the Registrar, on the ground that such presence makes invidious distinction between the ministrations of the ablished and Non-established Churches, and tends to discrage the performance of marriage services in Methodist ces of worship.

8. The Conference authorises the Committee to take steps secure such an amendment in the law, or in the administion thereof, as shall secure, within reasonable limits, the nterrupted right of preaching in public thoroughfares and n spaces.

9. The Conference again directs the Committee to consider ng the year the electoral disadvantages to which Wesleyan hodist Ministers are subject in consequence of the Itiney, and to take such legal action as may be advisable in r to the removal of such disadvantages.

10. The Conference directs that Rule 47 of Schedule I. of Prisons Act of 1865 be printed in the Minutes; viz.

If any prisoner is of a religious persuasion differing from of the Established Church, and no Minister has been inted to attend at the prison on the prisoners of that uasion, the Visiting Justices shall permit a Minister of such persuasion, to be approved by them, to visit such prisoners at proper and reasonable times, and under such restrictions as may be imposed by the Visiting Justices to guard against the introduction of improper persons and prevent improper communications, unless such prisoner expressly objects to see such Minister."

N.B.—The Chairman of any District, who may be in London at the time of holding any Meeting of the General Committee shall be entitled to attend and to vote with the Committee.

4. Day of Intercession.—The Conference resolves that the first Friday in October be observed throughout the Connexion as an Annual Day of Intercession for Foreign Missions.

5. SPECIAL FINANCIAL EFFORT.—The Conference receives with thankfulness and satisfaction the announcement that a movement has been initiated for the permanent improvement of the finances of the Missionary Society, not only by extinguishing the present debt, but also by providing such a sum as will enable the Missionary Committee to consolidate and develop the work in other lands.

In commending this movement to the hearty sympathy and co-operation of our people, the Conference expresses its earnest hope that a sum of at least £50,000 may be raised, and declares its conviction that this can be done without injury to the general interests of Methodism, and, in particular, without any hindrance to the increase of the regular income of the Missionary Society.

The Conference trusts that such arrangements may be made in every Circuit as will give all our people an opportunity of joining in the endeavour, and hopes that, in connexion with the Day of Intercession, gifts will be made towards the Special Fund, and that, in addition, collections will be voluntarily made in many of our Chapels for this special purpose.

6. REMITTANCES.—The Conference directs (1) that every Circuit Treasurer shall remit the amount that may be in his hands to the District Treasurer, at least once in every month; that every District Treasurer shall, at least once in every month, forward all moneys in his hands to the General Treasurers of the Society.

7. CIRCUIT MISSIONARY COMMITTEES.—The Conference resolves to amend its Resolution of 1893 upon the annual appointment of Circuit Missionary Committees (Minutes, 1893, 319), by the addition of the following:

N.B.—In any case in which the Circuit Quarterly Meeting is satisfied with the efficiency of any Branch or Local Committee, it may sanction its continuance.

6. The arrangements for the meetings of the Committee for the ensuing year are Thursday, November 28, in Manchester; Thursday, April 9, 1896, in Bath; and Thursday, June 25, in London.

7. The Conference, having received the report of the General Committee, resolves:

(1) That the Ministerial Subscriptions (viz. Ministers, one guinea; Preachers on Trial, half a guinea) and Circuit Assessments be continued; and that the payment by Ministers in Circuits and Departments, having children at the schools, of £2 for each child at school, shall be, as heretofore, in addition to the subscription of one guinea.

(2) That Ministers received into full Connexion with the Conference, yet not provided with houses, shall, in the matter of the annual subscription, be treated as Preachers on Trial, subscribing half a guinea per annum to the Fund.

(3) That such part of the Common Fund as is for Education shall be made self-adjusting upon the lines already adopted in respect of Maintenance; the charge in this respect upon each Circuit calling out an additional Minister being £2 per annum during the period of probation, and £4 per annum afterwards; making a total assessment in such cases of £11 and £22 respectively.

(4) That the increase of half a guinea each in the subscriptions of Ministers and Preachers on Trial, which was first assessed in 1888, be continued. The total of these increased subscriptions in any District may be allotted among the Ministers of that District by the District Synod, when composed of Ministers only, in other than equal proportions.

8. ADMISSION TO THE SCHOOLS.

(1) On the Foundation. The number of boys for whom provision is made is 250.

(2) On Payment. In addition to the 250 admitted on the Foundation, fifty boys are received annually on payment. In the case of boys who have neither received Education owance nor been at the School, the charge is £25. Parents ıose boys are thus received will be entitled, for that year, the usual allowances from the Maintenance Fund, and ı2 for Education.

Extra Years. The Rule as to extra years shall be construed harmony with Clause XXI. of the Scheme of Manage- nt of the Kingswood School, and with Clause XIX. of Scheme of Management of the Trinity Hall School. In ry case where an extra year, at the end, is granted to any r or girl, the sum of £30 shall be paid. Parents whose ldren are granted an extra year are entitled to the six neas from the Maintenance Fund; and, unless they have ady received for six years, the £12 for Education.

Special Resolution on Extra Years. In the case of boys who ıe very near to winning Scholarships, an extra year shall be nted on the payment of £25, if the parents desire it, subject he recommendation of the Governor and Headmaster. This ulation shall be made retrospective, so as to secure the ırn after Midsummer of boys specially reported to the erning Body.

APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION.—Not later than November ı, name and age of every applicant for admission must be , in the case of boys, to the Rev. DR. BOWDEN, Chew Stoke, tol; and, in the case of girls, to the Rev. RALPH M. ›R, 69, Manor Road, Brockley, London, S.E. The age of ission to the Schools shall be, for boys not before ten, for girls not before twelve years.

›. EXAMINATIONS FOR ENTRANCE.

n Examination will be set in Elementary English subjects ıble to boys of about the age of eleven. A graduated age vance will be made for younger boys, while older boys be expected to reach a correspondingly higher standard, and boys above the age of twelve will be expected to show some knowledge of Latin and Greek.

A specimen examination paper will be sent by the Head Master (Mr. W. P. WORKMAN, M.A.) upon receipt of a stamped envelope.

II. GIRLS.

The Examination shall be according to the minimum standard appointed in the year 1877 (Minutes, 1877, p. 171); viz.

"Reading—The candidate must be able to read, with intelligence, a few lines of poetry, selected by the examiner. Writing (Small Hand)—Eight lines to be slowly dictated from a reading book. This will be also a test of spelling. Arithmetic—The Four Simple Rules and the four Compound Rules (Money and Weights and Measures). Geography—Outlines of the Geography of Europe in general, particularly of England. English Grammar—To parse single sentences correctly and readily. History—To have a fair knowledge of Bible History and of the History of England. The Candidate must give evidence of skill in Plain Needlework."

The Conference further directs that the above standard be printed in the Minutes of this year, with the following addition, from the "Scheme of Management" (Minutes, 1886, p. 382, par. 20): "The examination shall be graduated according to the age of the girl, or other circumstances, at the discretion of the Governing Body."

11. NOTICE OF REMOVAL FROM SCHOOL.—The Conference directs that, in order to avoid any unnecessary disturbance of arrangements made for the teaching and general management of the Schools, and in order to give the Governing Bodies sufficient time to make an equitable selection of candidates for any vacancies which may occur during the year, parents having children at the Schools shall be required to give three months' notice before the removal of such child or children. In the event of parents neglecting to give such notice, the officers of the Fund for the Maintenance and Education of isters' Children are authorised to withhold three months' wances which would otherwise be payable for each such d or children.

he Conference further directs that should a boy or girl, to m an extra year has been granted, be withdrawn without required three months' notice, the parent or guardian shall one-fourth of the sum charged for the extra year in lieu of notice.

2. EDUCATIONAL ALLOWANCES FOR CHILDREN NOT AT THE OOLS.

ayments are made at the Conference for the past year; in every case in which the Educational Allowance has received by the parent, the claim upon the Education ion of the Fund shall be understood to have been met satisfied for that year.

arents may begin to claim for their children when they nine, ten, eleven, or twelve years of age, on the preceding stmas Day; but the first claim for a child who is twelve s of age on or before any Christmas Day must be made at ollowing Conference at the latest; and having once begun aim, they shall receive their payments annually. Claims red are deferred at the risk of the parents.

the case of a candidate for admission to one of the Schools, has passed the entrance examination, and has been elected ter, but for whom there is not room on the next following ening, the regulation requiring the taking up of the Annual vance shall not apply for that year.

B.—The clause, "Payments are made at the Conference he past year," in the first paragraph of this regulation, es to those claimants who began to claim under the regu- n which required that a child should be nine years old ie preceding Midsummer. It is modified in the case of ants beginning to claim in 1891, and in the case of ants in succeeding years, so as to read "Payments are at the Conference for the kalendar year then current."

13. The application and enforcement of the rule respecting the clothing of the sons of necessitous Supernumeraries or Widows at Kingswood School is left to the discretion of the General Committee (Minutes, 1882, p. 240).

14. CIRCUIT SCHEDULES. — Not later than March 1, each Superintendent shall send to the Rev. JOHN HORNABROOK, 15, Blenheim Square, Leeds, a particular account of all claims for Educational Allowances in his Circuit; specifying distinctly the names of the children for whose education the claims are made, together with the date, year, and place of their birth, and the exact number of years during which the allowance has been received.

15. THE SCHOOL YEAR.—The School Year at both Schools begins in January.

16. SCHOOL TERMS, TRINITY HALL.—The Conference directs that the School year at Trinity Hall be divided into three terms.

17. RESIDENCE AT KINGSWOOD SCHOOL.—The position of boys at Kingswood School with regard to the award of Scholarships, length of residence, etc., is determined by the year in which they stand; this phrase being defined as follows:

(1) A boy entering Kingswood at any period of the kalendar year is called a First Year Boy, if his parent or guardian has received no Educational Allowance before he enters; a Second Year Boy, if one allowance has been received, and so on. One allowance may be returned within three months of a boy's admittance to Kingswood School, and when this is done an additional year is secured upon the Foundation.

N.B.—In the case of boys admitted by vote of the Governing Body under the age of ten, or at any other period of the year than January, the father may be required by the Governing Body to pay for the portion of that year at the rate of £25.

his case the boy begins to count his year from the following ıary.
:) A boy passes from one year into the next in January, ıpective of the month in which he entered the School.
;) Boys are admitted into the sixth year by the vote of the erning Body, upon the recommendation of the Governor Head Master.
) Boys in any year, from the first to the sixth inclusive, ıescribed as being upon THE FOUNDATION. The number aces on the Foundation is 250.
) Scholarships are awarded in December to Sixth Year
ɜ, with exceptions as named in (7).
ɔ Scholarship can be awarded to a boy in the Sixth Year is over the age of eighteen, at the date of the award; but boys shall be eligible for Scholarships in their Fifth Year.
) Seventh Year Boys include "Scholars" and Boys on nent; the scale of payment is as follows:
) Any boy who began to count his years in August is ɾed one half-year at the rate of £20 6s. per annum.
nilar privilege may be granted in the case of boys who lost any portion of their time through illness; but special cation must be made through the Governor to the rning Body.
) Sons of Supernumeraries and Widows, £22.
.) For boys recommended by the Governor and Head er, as being "near to winning a Scholarship," £25.
.) For all others, £30.
ı Eighth Year Boys include only the holders of such larships as may be awarded to boys who have already one Scholarship, and boys "on payment" on the scale ioned in (6).
ı In so far as they affect the position of boys in residence ıe School in June, 1895, these regulations shall not be spective; but fathers who desire to take advantage of the ıission accorded by the previous Minute to repay one ational Allowance, must do so before the close of October.

(9) Fathers, whose sons entered the School in August of a previous year, are at liberty, and are recommended, to pay for the half-year's education the sum of £12 10*s*. This half-year will not then be counted in determining the boy's position on the FOUNDATION; such payment must be made before the close of October.

18. OLD BOYS' UNION.—The Conference hears with satisfaction of the formation of the Kingswood and Old Grove Union, and sanctions the same representation upon the Governing Body of Kingswood School as was formerly possessed by the Association of Old Kingswood Boys, which the new Union has replaced.

19. The thanks of the Conference are presented to the Officers of the Children's Fund, Education Section, the General Committee, the Governing Bodies, and the Managing Committees, for the diligent and faithful discharge of the duties of their respectives offices during the year; also to Mr. J. Hartley Blackburn, of Bradford, for his valuable services as Honorary Auditor of the Kingswood School Accounts.

22. All Collections, Subscriptions, and Circuit Assessments on behalf of the Education Section of the Fund are to be sent to the Rev. WALFORD GREEN, Centenary Hall, Bishopsgate Street Within, London, E.C.

23. All payments for children at the Schools, whether £25 for first year or £30 for extra year, are due in four equal instalments, one on each quarter day; and the money must be sent to the Rev. WALFORD GREEN, Centenary Hall, Bishopsgate Street Within, London, E.C.

N.B.—The by-laws and regulations governing the administration of the Fund have been codified and published by direction of the Conference (1886), and can be obtained at the Book Room, London.

CHAPEL AFFAIRS.

). XXVI. What are the Resolutions of the Conference h regard to CHAPEL AFFAIRS?

. 1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of Wesleyan Chapel Committee.

. The Conference authorises the President, during the r, to affix his signature to any consent to the sale of Trust perty which may be certified to him as approved by the ıpel Committee.

. IRREGULAR CHAPEL CASES.

he Conference receives the Report.

he Conference directs the Chapel Committee to send to several District Synods the particulars of those cases in ch it is, in the opinion of the Committee, desirable that ːial enquiry should be made from time to time, until it .l appear that the conditions of erection or enlargement e been fulfilled.

he Conference further directs the District Synods to the attention of the Trustees to those cases in which the ɔortion of debt is excessively heavy, or the proceedings ılly irregular, and to communicate the judgment of the rict Synod to the Trustees through the Superintendents.

. ALTERATION OF RULES.

:) Applications for Grants for Relief of Chapel Debts, if :e on the proper Schedule, may, in urgent cases, be con-red and determined by the Chapel Committee without the mmendation of the District Synod, or the District Chapel ımittee.

:) The Committee is authorised to appropriate such portion he Loans' Erection Fund as it may deem prudent in the ınce of Loans without interest to assist in defraying the of Chapel Enlargements, Alterations, and Renovations have been duly sanctioned by the Committee, but subject xisting rules as to terms and period of repayment.

5. SUBSCRIPTIONS TO THE FUND.

In view of the great saving of cost to Trustees resulting from the provisions of the Trustees Appointment Act, 1891, and of the additional expense for administration brought upon the Chapel Fund in consequence, the Conference urges all Trustees of our Chapels to subscribe annually to the Fund, and suggests that enquiry should be made whether in some cases existing Annual Subscriptions might not be increased. The Conference expresses its judgment that the Committee cannot justly be expected to assist with oversight and advice non-subscribing Trusts, or Trusts whose subscriptions are unworthy of their resources.

2) By the London District Synods; four Ministers and r Laymen in each District, at the September meeting of Synod.

HOME MISSION AND CONTINGENT FUND.

Q. XXVII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference in reference to the HOME MISSION AND CONTINGENT FUND, and other HOME MISSION AFFAIRS?

A. 1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee, and of the Army and Navy Sub-Committee; and directs that the Returns from the Army and Navy and Reserve Forces be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix II.)

2. The Conference appoints the following Special Commissions to visit the undermentioned Circuits and Districts:

(1) Portsmouth District, to report upon the condition of Methodism.—The Chairman of the District, the Financial Secretary (Convener), the Rev. Thomas Allen and J. Ernest Clapham, with Messrs. Moses Atkinson, Williamson Lamplough, Ernest H. May, and George Curtis.

(2) Wimborne —The Chairman of the District, the Financial Secretary (Convener), the Rev. J. Ernest Clapham, Joseph Robinson, John J. Brown, James Fieldhouse, and Messrs. George Curtis, Richard H. Tamsett, and John B. Cole.

(3) Worcester and Hereford Mission, to consider the position of Methodism in this Mission and the surrounding Circuits, including Worcester, Bromsgrove, Leominster, and Tewkesbury.—The Chairman of the District, the Financial Secretary (Convener), the Rev. Henry J. Pope, D.D., Joseph Bush, J. Ernest Clapham, and Messrs. William Bayliss, John Brewer, Alban G. Buller, William F. Green, and John I. Parkes.

(4) Horncastle.—The Chairman of the District, the Ex-President, the Rev. Henry J. Pope, D.D., Charles H. Kelly, J. Ernest Clapham (Convener), and Messrs. Joseph M. Collingham, Joseph Maltby, Thomas B. Holmes, and Moses Atkinson.

(5) Methodism in various Circuits in Scotland, especially in the North.—The Chairman of the District, the Rev. Henry J. Pope, D.D., Dr. Stephenson, J. Ernest Clapham (Convener), and Messrs. Charles B. Davidson, Herbert B. Law, Thomas H. Bainbridge.

(6) Longton and the Potteries.—The Ex-President, the Chairman of the District, the Rev. Henry J. Pope, D.D., J. Ernest lapham, John S. Jones, and Messrs. Joseph Beckett, Arthur ıines, J. Wilcox Edge, Spencer Lawton, James Lovatt, and ıomas Malkin. The Financial Secretary of the Macclesfield strict is the Convener.

3. The Conference directs the Committee to take steps at ce either to secure a more general fulfilment of the pledges furnish houses at the proper time, or to secure the withawal of the Minister concerned; and further, to prepare a mplete return of all Circuits under obligation, with such ıer information as may be available, to be submitted to the xt Annual Meeting of the Committee.

4. The Conference directs that a return be furnished by the rious District Home Missionary Committees, to their ıpective Synods, of the amount raised in the Circuits to ıet grants made by the Home Mission Committee towards y agency, and of the way in which such moneys are ɔended.

ıDULT BIBLE-CLASSES AND PLEASANT SUNDAY AFTERNOONS FOR THE PEOPLE.

5. The Conference directs that the Superintendents of cuits, in conjunction with the Leaders' Meetings and the ıday-school authorities, be directed to encourage the formaı of such classes in all cases when the work of God may promoted thereby; but that in every case care be taken ıecure the appointment of a suitable Conductor, who shall a member of Society, and be approved by the Leaders' ɛting. With respect to Classes which may be instituted in future, the Conference directs that where they are not ned under the supervision of the Leaders' Meeting or ıday-school Committee, a Committee of Management be ointed, consisting of the Ministers of the Circuit with an ɛed upon number of Laymen, half of whom shall be ointed by the Class, and the other half by the Sunday-school Committee and Leaders' Meeting in equal proportions; and that the appointment of the Conductor of the Class, who shall be a member of Society and ex officio a member of the Committee, shall be subject to the approval of the Leaders' Meeting. With respect to Classes already existing, the Conference recommends the adoption, as far as practicable, of the above plan. The Conference directs that an annual return of the members of these Classes be made to the District Synods in May, through the Sunday-school Committees of the Districts, and shall be by them reported to the Sunday-school Union Committee, and by it forwarded to the Conference.

COMMITTEES OF CENTRAL MISSIONS.

6. The Conference is of opinion that, while it will probably be necessary in the future to deal with the question of the constitution of the Committees of Central Missions, the time has not yet arrived for any special legislation upon the subject. The Conference directs that the London Mission and the Manchester Mission shall continue to report direct to the Conference, and that the Committees be appointed as at present; that in the case of the other Central Missions, the annual report shall be made to the Synod of the District in which the Mission is situate, that the Committees shall be appointed by such Synod at its meeting in September, and that the members of such Committees shall be members of Society. This resolution shall take effect at the Conference of 1896.

PLEDGES TO PROVIDE FOR MARRIED MINISTERS.

7. Of sixteen Circuits under pledge to provide houses for additional Ministers at the Conference of 1895, the following is the result:

Ferndale, Bolton (Wesley), Halifax (St. John's), Leeds (Woodhouse Moor), and Newcastle (Elswick Road), have fulfilled the pledge.

Eccles hopes to provide a house in 1896, and will pay compensation.

Shotley Bridge asks for a year's grace, and offers £40 compensation.

Risca, Rhondda, and Radcliffe request a year's grace.

Halifax (Wesley) asks that on account of the division of the Circuit, the provision of an additional house should be deferred for one or, if necessary, two years, without compensation.

Huddersfield (Gledholt) asks for an extension of one year without compensation.

Birmingham Mission (Central) will arrange with Home Mission Committee direct.

Pembroke declares its inability to fulfil the obligation.

Merthyr Tydvil (Welsh) gives no reply.

WORN OUT MINISTERS' AND MINISTERS' WIDOWS' AUXILIARY FUND.

Q. XXIX. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the affairs of the AUXILIARY FUND?

A. 1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference is thankful to learn from the Financial Statement of the General Treasurers that there is a credit balance on the year of £947 15*s.* 11*d.*, which has been carried to the Suspense Account. The Conference, while most grateful for the support accorded to the Fund, cannot but express its earnest hope that every effort will continue to be made to sustain the income, so that the policy which has been steadily pursued for the last five years may be still maintained.

3. The Conference regrets to find that the contributions from the Classes continue to decline, especially in some Districts, and desires to repeat its deep conviction that it is essential to the continued prosperity of the Fund that this source of income should be maintained, as any serious diminution in the contributions from the Classes would soon involve the Fund in debt and difficulty.

4. The Conference learns with satisfaction that, including interest, a further sum of £2,419 16*s.* 7*d.* has been received on account of the Special Effort. This has been carried to the Suspense Account, which now stands at £29,786 16*s.* 7*d.*

5. The Conference resolves that the scale of allowances made to Ministers' Widows be 10*s.* for each year the husband travelled, with a bonus of £14.

6. The cordial thanks of the Conference are presented to the friends who have made special donations; to the Executors who have paid sundry legacies; to those Trustees who have contributed to the Fund from their Chapel income; and to the District and Circuit Treasurers for their valuable services during the past year.

7. The thanks of the Conference are presented to the Rev. WALFORD GREEN and Mr. JOHN LEES BARKER for their services as General Treasurers during the past year; and they are re-appointed.

8. The Conference directs that Collections in aid of the Fund be made in all our Chapels; that the claims of the Fund be specifically brought before the Members during the visitation of the Classes in September; and that efforts be made to obtain new annual subscriptions.

9. The following are appointed the Committee of Management for the ensuing year: The Rev. DAVID J. WALLER, D.D., President of the Conference; WALFORD GREEN, Ex-President; MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary of the Conference; the General Lay Treasurer, Mr. John L. Barker; together with the Rev. Thomas Allen,

12. The Conference directs that the following Resolutions, eviously adopted, shall be reprinted:

(1) The Conference resolves that, wherever it is practicable, o Collections shall be made annually in each Chapel through- t the Connexion on behalf of the Funds of the Institution; d that these Collections shall be made, if possible, in ecember.

(2) The Conference directs the Superintendents of Circuits remit all Subscriptions and Collections for the Institution the General Treasurers early in the year; and instructs Chairmen of Districts to ascertain, by enquiry at the May nod, whether such payments have been made.

(3) The Conference affirms the principle, which has from the ginning been recognised in the administration of the Institu- n, in regard to charges on account of Students, that such dents as have the means, or whose friends have the means, ll be expected to contribute, in whole or in part, according heir ability, towards the cost of their own maintenance and cation; and it directs the General Committee to consider adopt such methods as may be deemed best for carrying rule into effect.

(4) The Conference resolves that a minimum charge for intenance shall be made, which every Student shall be ected to defray; it being, however, distinctly understood t the General Committee shall be empowered to remit the rge wherever, and in so far as, it may be found on enquiry, any Student is unable to pay. And further, that all dents who are able, either themselves or by their parents friends, to add, to the payment for maintenance, payment account of education, should be urged to do so.

(5) The Conference directs that information be given to General Treasurers of the Institution Fund of the resigna- of any Preacher on Trial, or of any Minister who has not n ten years in the Full Work of the Ministry, in order that a list may be kept of those who have not discharged their obligations in respect of their College training.

13. The respectful thanks of the Conference are presented to Mr. JOHN F. HAWORTH, of Bowdon, for the gift of the Library of the Rev. W. B. Pope, D.D., to the Didsbury Branch of the Institution.

EDUCATION.

Q. XXXI. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the subject of WESLEYAN EDUCATION?

A. 1. The Conference receives the Report of the proceedings of the Education Committee during the year, together with a Statistical Statement relating to Training Colleges, Day Schools, Sunday Schools, and the Connexional Sunday-school Union; and directs that an Abstract thereof be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix III.)

2. The thanks of the Conference are presented to the Rev. WALFORD GREEN, to Sir FREDERICK HOWARD, and to Mr. WILLIAM VANNER, for their services as Treasurers of the Education Fund.

3. The Conference re-appoints the Rev. WALFORD GREEN, Sir FREDERICK HOWARD, and Mr. WILLIAM VANNER to be Treasurers of the Education Fund.

The special duty of Mr. William Vanner shall be the charge of the Sunday-school Union branch of the finance.

4. The EDUCATION COMMITTEE shall consist of The following:

(iii.) In all cases of transfer which may hereafter occur, the Conference recommends that provision be made in the instrument of transfer to secure the resumption of the premises by the Trustees, without their being required to reimburse any money laid out upon them by the School Board solely for its own purposes.

9. The Conference further directs as follows:

(1) All who are contemplating the erection or alteration of premises for the establishment of new Schools shall communicate with the Education Committee, for the purpose of receiving counsel as to their projected undertakings and the adaptation of the premises to the system of instruction designed to be adopted.

(2) The Managers of every School shall require from the Teacher, at least once a year, a report as to the nature and extent of the Religious Instruction given in the School, in order that they may be satisfied that the truths of Scripture are regularly taught to the children.

(3) It is deemed desirable that the Managers shall arrange, in conjunction with the Teacher, for regular examinations of the School in Religious Knowledge; such examinations to be conducted, as to time and method, as circumstances may require.

(4) A General Report on the Religious Instruction given in the Day Schools, founded upon the Teachers' Reports from the several Schools, as well as upon the personal visitation of the Ministers, shall be submitted to the March Quarterly Meetings, when the Returns as to the Day and Sunday Schools of the Circuit are presented.

(5) The October Examination of Pupil Teachers in Religious Knowledge shall be held on the last Saturday of that month. The March Examination will continue to be held on the first Saturday of that month.

10. SUNDAY SCHOOLS.—The third Sunday in October in each year shall be observed as a day for Special Prayer on behalf of Sunday Schools and young people.

11. The Conference attaches the utmost importance to doctrinal teaching in Sunday Schools by means of Catechetical instruction, and directs that Ministers shall give special attention to this subject. Superintendents and Teachers are also urgently and affectionately recommended to do their utmost to promote the use of our own Catechisms in our Sunday Schools.

12. The Conference resolves that, while it may be well to provide a separate service for very young children, it is most undesirable that scholars of eight years of age and upwards should be kept from the services in our chapels.

13. The Conference directs that the District Education Committee shall be consulted before a Sunday School is closed.

14. DAY AND SUNDAY SCHOOLS.—The Statistics of the Day and Sunday Schools of each Circuit shall be read in the March Quarterly Meeting; but if sufficient time be not then available for the discussion of the Statistics, and for enquiry into the state of the Schools, such discussion and enquiry shall take place in the June Quarterly Meeting.

15. The Education Schedules, having been duly filled up and presented to the March Quarterly Meeting, shall be sent by the Superintendents to the District Education Secretary, not later than April 20, in each year.

16. The District Sunday-school Committees shall have charge also of the interests of the Day Schools in their respective Districts.

MIDDLE-CLASS EDUCATION.

1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee, and expresses its thankfulness for the success of the movement for Middle-class Education.

2. The Conference receives with pleasure the favourable reports of the Schools at Truro, Jersey, Bury St. Edmunds, Woodhouse Grove, Congleton, Canterbury, Folkestone, Trowbridge, Penzance, Camborne, and Queenswood, Clapham.

3. The Rev. W. Henry Thompson and the Rev. Samuel Fogg are appointed Directors of the Cornwall Wesleyan Methodist School Association, Limited. The Rev. Dr. Waller, the Rev. W. Henry Thompson, the Rev. Joseph Cranswick, and the Rev. Henry T. Arthur Smith, M.A., are appointed Directors of the Queenswood School, Limited.

4. The Education Committee shall have charge of Middle-class Education. A special Sub-Committee shall be appointed in the interests of Middle-class Schools, which shall report to and through that Committee to the Conference.

THE CHILDREN'S HOME AND ORPHANAGE.

Q. XXXII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the subject of the CHILDREN'S HOME AND ORPHANAGE?

A. 1. The Conference receives the Report of the Children's Home and Orphanage, and directs that an Abstract be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix IV.)

2. The Conference learns with pleasure that the ordinary income of the Home has been considerably increased during the past year; and that the Committee has felt at liberty not only to maintain the number of inmates, but to add to it, making the number of resident children nine hundred and thirty-one.

3. Remembering that many of the inmates are orphan children of the godly poor, and that very many are children snatched by this agency from the utmost moral peril, the Conference rejoices to learn that the income received from Sunday Schools, and from collections in churches and chapels, exceeds that of any previous year, and commends these methods of assisting this truly Home Missionary work to our ministers and people generally.

4. The Conference permits the election of Vice-Presidents of the Children's Home, beyond the present limited number of six.

5. The Conference hereby authorises the President to affix his signature as Representative of the Conference to any sale of property recommended by the General Committee of The Children's Home.

RELIGIOUS OBSERVANCE OF THE LORD'S DAY.

Q. XXXIII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on receiving the Report of the Committee for Promoting the RELIGIOUS OBSERVANCE OF THE LORD'S DAY?

A. 1. The Conference adopts the Report, and commends its facts and principles to the thoughtful and serious consideration of the Methodist people.

2. (i.) In view of the growing tendency to the desecration of the Lord's Day, the great influence wielded by Sunday Societies, and the recent federation of these Societies for united and aggressive action, the Conference warns our people against these perils, and urges increased watchfulness in the observance and defence of the Lord's Day.

(ii.) The Conference resolves that the Home Mission Committee of each District shall take direct oversight of this question.

TEMPERANCE.

Q. XXXVI. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the subject of TEMPERANCE?

A. 1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee, and directs that an abstract thereof be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix V.)

2. The Conference recommends that, on the last Sunday of November in each year, special reference shall be made in all Wesleyan Methodist places of worship, and in all our Sunday Schools, to the appalling extent and dire results of Intemperance in Great Britain.

3. The Conference expresses its regret that a measure has not been carried through Parliament giving to the inhabitants of localities the control of the liquor traffic in their midst, and urges upon the Temperance Committee and upon our people generally to continue their exertions in this behalf.

4. The Conference declares its opinion that it is desirable in the highest interests of the nation, and in justice to the employees of the liquor traffic, that all public-houses should be entirely closed on the Lord's Day, and that legislation to this end should be pushed forward without delay.

5. In consideration of the widespread and terrible evils resulting from the drink traffic as at present conducted, and the generally admitted and urgent need for reforms in the licensing laws, the Conference is of opinion that the time has come when all parties in the State and all sections of the Church should combine to promote new legislation on the subject; and expresses the hope that this question, which so nearly concerns the well-being and credit of the nation at large, may be promptly dealt with apart from political partisanship and sectarian bias.

6. The Conference deeply deplores the terrible injury which is inflicted upon uncivilised races through the introduction

if alcoholic liquors by means of the commerce of Christian ations; and earnestly implores Her Majesty's Government o use their best influence with the Powers which signed the ct of Brussels to bring about a revision of the clauses of that ct dealing with the traffic in ardent spirits, with a view to more effectual protection of the African races from the eplorable ravages of that traffic. The Conference directs at a Memorial in this sense, signed by the President and ecretary of the Conference, be presented to Her Majesty's overnment.

7. The Conference again calls attention to its recommendation at in all our Bands of Hope the Quarterly Ticket of member- ip shall be used, and that this ticket shall be given not only those who are members of the Band of Hope in the ordinary ay, but also to any young people in our Sunday Schools ho may for various reasons be unable to attend Band of ope Meetings, but who are willing to enrol themselves in e Sunday-school Teacher's Pledge Book.

8. The Conference recommends the appointment of a Circuit emperance Secretary in every Circuit; and the Super- tendents are directed to send the name and address of such ecretaries to the Secretary of the Temperance Committee of e Conference not later than the end of September; and herever no Circuit Temperance Secretary is appointed, the perintendents of Circuits are directed to send to the nnexional Temperance Secretary by the same date the mes and addresses of all the Secretaries of Bands of Hope d Temperance Societies in their respective Circuits.

9. The Conference deeply deplores the widespread pre- lence of betting and gambling and kindred practices, and presses its grief that the newspaper press of this country mulates these vices by the publication of sporting items. declares its hope that before long there may be some ective legislation for the suppression of these evils, and pecially for prohibiting the publication of betting items by e newspapers.

10. The Committee for the ensuing year shall consist of:

ŒCUMENICAL CONFERENCE.

1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference appoints the following as its representatives upon a Commission charged with making the necessary arrangements for a third Œcumenical Methodist Conference to be held in the year 1901 in Wesley's Chapel, London:

The Rev. DAVID J. WALLER, D.D., President of the Conference; WALFORD GREEN, Ex-President; MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary; John Bond, Hugh Price Hughes, M.A., Dr. Stephenson; Messrs. Moses Atkinson, T. Morgan Harvey, Robert W. Perks, M.P., William Vanner, Samuel D. Waddy, Q.C.; and the Rev. Dr. Crook and William Greenhill on behalf of the Irish Conference.

The Conference authorises the Rev. William L. Watkinson, the Representative appointed to the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church of America, to promote the necessary negotiations.

CONCERTED ACTION.

1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee, and adopts it, as follows: That Concerted Action among the Methodist Churches is eminently desirable; and in order to its promotion the Conference agrees:

(1) That a United Committee be annually constituted by the appointment of Representatives by the several Conferences for the purpose of mutual defence, in the following proportions; viz. Wesleyan Methodists, 16; Primitive Methodists, 8; United Methodist Free Churches, 6; Methodist New Connexion, 4; Bible Christians, 4; Methodist Reform Union, 1; Independent Methodists, 1.

(2) That it is desirable that a General Methodist Year Book be regularly published, and that it be referred to the United Committee to consider if this be practicable.

(3) That wherever practicable a United Meeting of the linisters and an equal number of Representative members of he various Methodist Churches be held once a year for evotion, fellowship, and counsel.

(4) That wherever practicable a United Lovefeast of the iembers of the various Methodist Churches be held annually, n a Sunday afternoon; and that, where other arrangements ill allow, Whit Sunday be chosen.

(5) The Conference expresses the belief and hope that the etter understanding which now prevails between the different lethodist Churches will issue in the avoidance of the un-ecessary multiplication of Chapels, especially in small places, nd directs its Chapel Committee to correspond with similar ommittees of the other Methodist Churches to promote this esult in any case of local difficulty and disagreement that iay arise.

The members apportioned to the Wesleyan Methodist hurch, as its proportion of the United Committee, are the llowing: The Rev. DAVID J. WALLER, D.D., President of ie Conference; WALFORD GREEN, Ex-President; MARSHALL ARTLEY, Secretary; John Bond, Hugh Price Hughes, M.A., r. Rigg, Dr. Stephenson, Silvester Whitehead; and Messrs. ohn Cooper, T. Morgan Harvey, John Molineux, C.B., Robert V. Perks, M.P., William W. Pocock, B.A., William O. Quibell, [. Arthur Smith, M.A., William Vanner.

LOCAL PREACHERS.

1. The Conference confirms the new legislation provisionlly adopted at the Conference of 1894, and submitted to the lay Synods of 1895 (Minutes, 1894, p. 310).

2. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee, nd adopts the following Scheme; viz.

A. THE DISTRICT LOCAL PREACHERS' COMMITTEE.

(1) Each Synod shall have power to associate with the lembers of the District Local Preachers' Committee other Ministers and Local Preachers interested in the subject; provided always that the Laymen so added shall not thereby become Members of the Synod.

(2) Each Synod shall appoint a Ministerial Secretary and a Lay Secretary of the District Local Preachers' Committee.

(3) At the September Local Preachers' Meeting in each Circuit, a Local Secretary shall be appointed, who shall forthwith forward his name and address, with the names and addresses of all the Local Preachers on the Circuit Plan, to the Lay Secretary of the District Local Preachers' Committee.

(4) The Local Secretary shall, immediately after the March Local Preachers' Meeting, report to the District Local Preachers' Committee, on forms to be prepared, the various statistical facts relating to the Local Preachers in that Circuit.

(5) The District Local Preachers' Committee shall prepare a Report based upon the Statistics so furnished, and relating to the work of the year, to be presented to the May Synod.

(6) It shall be the duty of the District Local Preachers' Committee to enquire whether the directions of the Conference with regard to the mental and theological culture of Local Preachers have been observed in the various Circuits of the District, and to take any necessary steps to assist in carrying out those directions.

(7) The District Local Preachers' Committee is empowered to establish and conduct Voluntary District Examinations of Local Preachers in Theology, Biblical Study, and Homiletics.

(8) Subject always to the laws and usages of Methodism, the District Local Preachers' Committee shall endeavour to promote the interest and efficiency of Local Preachers' Meetings in all practicable ways, by suggesting subjects for discussion, providing deputations to visit such Meetings, and otherwise.

(9) Subject to the laws and usages of Methodism, the District Local Preachers' Committee may initiate and promote arrangements providing for the ministrations of Local Preachers in Circuits other than their own, especially with a view to the advantage of the neediest and poorest Circuits; and may also ndertake arrangements for Special Missions and Services 'here desired.

B. THE CONNEXIONAL LOCAL PREACHERS' COMMITTEE.

(1) Immediately after the May Synod the Reports of the istrict Local Preachers' Committees shall be sent to the Lay ecretary of the Connexional Committee, which shall report ıereon to the Conference.

(2) The Connexional Committee shall furnish a List of ooks for guiding the Studies of Local Preachers. It shall so prepare a scheme of Voluntary Examinations and the :cessary Examination Papers.

(3) The Connexional Committee shall put itself into communication with the Book Room and other publishing Houses ith a view to obtain books for Local Preachers on the eapest terms; and shall also take into consideration the best ethod in which the Allan Library can be made available for ɔcal Preachers.

(4) A Lay Treasurer, a Ministerial Secretary, and a Lay :cretary of the Connexional Committee shall be annually ɔpointed by the Conference.

The following is the Connexional Committee:

The Conferenc edirects that the subject of the Theological Reading of Local Preachers be dealt with by this Committee, together with the working out of the scheme of the Committee which reported to the Conference in 1894 on "A Course of Reading for Local Preachers." (Minutes, 1894, pp. 462–465.)

The Conference sanctions the following changes in the Order and Form of Business for Local Preachers' Meetings as set forth in the Minutes of Conference, 1894:

Page 458, after Question 2, delete the words "Each brother answers this question for himself; but others may object, or enquire."

Page 462, under the heading "December" leave out the sentence "A Secretary for the next year shall be elected," and insert that sentence under the heading "September." (See p. 440.)

The Conference resolves that a Local Preacher who shall be adjudged a Bankrupt, or who shall make a composition with the general body of his Creditors, shall thereby be suspended from his office as a Local Preacher, until the Local Preachers' Meeting shall have decided whether the circumstances of the case are such as to justify his continuance on the Plan.

Q. XXXIX. What Resolutions provisionally adopted by e last Conference in its Representative Session, and sent the annual District Synods for consideration, are now nfirmed?

A. Local Preachers.

1. The special Local Preachers' Meeting. (See Appendix ., p. 435.)

2. That every accredited Local Preacher shall be a member the Circuit Quarterly Meeting. (See Appendix XI., p. 437.)

3. That members of the District Local Preachers' Committees ill be members of the District Synods. (See Minutes, 1894, 315.)

Q. XL. What Resolutions of the Conference are to be mitted to the Districts in Great Britain, at their Annual nods, when Ministers and Laymen are present?

A. None.

MISCELLANEOUS RESOLUTIONS.

1. The respectful thanks of the Conference are presented to President, the Rev. DAVID J. WALLER, D.D., for his timely, nprehensive, and profitable sermon preached in King Street apel, Plymouth, on Sunday morning, July 28, 1895.

2. The respectful thanks of the Conference are presented to Ex-President, the Rev. WALFORD GREEN, for his earnest l appropriate sermon, preached in King Street Chapel, mouth, on Sunday evening, July 28, 1895.

3. Mr. John Cooper is appointed, in conjunction with the nisters appointed during the Pastoral Session, to attend the presentative Session of the Conference in Ireland, to be held Dublin in June, 1896.

4. The Rev. J. Ernest Clapham is appointed to ascertain, and receive and forward to the respective Treasurers, the payments to be made, in accordance with our Rules, to the various

Connexional Funds in the case of married men who are received as Ministers, or of Ministers received from other Conferences or Churches. (See Minutes, 1889, pp. 413–415.)

5. The Rev. Ralph M. Spoor is directed to prepare the volume of Agenda for the Conference of 1896, and to have it sent to the Lay Representatives as early as possible.

[N.B.—The Conference directs that the Order of Conference Procedure and Rules of Debate be printed in the volume of Agenda for 1896.]

A copy of the Agenda shall be sent to each member of the Legal Conference, resident in Great Britain, who is unable to attend the Conference.

6. Mr. William Middlebrook is appointed Convener of the Scrutineers of votes for the election of Lay Representatives by the Conference.

7. The Rev. James E. Hargreaves is appointed Convener of Scrutineers of all votes, other than those for the election of Lay Representatives, in the Representative Session of the next Conference; and, as such, an ex officio member of that Session.

DECEASED LAY REPRESENTATIVES.—Rarely has the Conference been called upon to mourn the removal, in one year, of so many of its most prominent laymen from the service of the Church. The names of JOHN DYSON, EDWARD HUTCHINSON, and HENRY B. HARRISON, in particular, have been known and respected throughout Methodism for many years. Large-hearted and generous, they exemplified in their respective spheres loyal devotion to their Master and unremitting toil for the highest welfare of their fellowmen. All three were members of the Conference, Justices of the Peace, and filled positions of honour and influence in civic life.

JOHN DYSON was characterised by unobtrusive piety and profound faith in the truths of the gospel. He was a most acceptable and successful Local Preacher. While thorough in the discharge of the duties of all other offices, preaching was his supreme delight.

EDWARD HUTCHINSON was an ardent lover of the cause of Christ, and of every form of agency capable of promoting that cause. But his deepest sympathies were evoked in favour of aggressive work, whether in our large towns, poor country circuits, or in heathen lands. His hand was ever open to the most needy. Whilst liberal towards every form of Christian enterprise, he especially supported our Foreign Missions with an unstinted and stimulating generosity.

HENRY B. HARRISON will be remembered as an example of intense, self-sacrificing devotion to Mission work among the masses. He gave himself unreservedly to it. His flaming zeal found expression in evangelistic services, in the visitation of the outcast and degraded members of the community, and in the management of various philanthropic movements in Salford and Manchester.

Mr. Dyson had attained a ripe old age, but from Mr. Hutchinson and Mr. Harrison years of service might have been expected. The Master has, however, seen fit to call them from toil to rest, and to His will the Conference submits, in the full conviction that the influence of their life and example will be long felt in every department of our Church.

NOMINATION COMMITTEE.—1. The Nomination Committee shall consist of (a) the eighteen Lay Representatives elected by the Conference in the three preceding years; viz. Messrs. William Middlebrook, Thomas H. Bainbridge, Thomas P. Wansbrough, W. Percy Workman, M.A., Alfred Jermyn, Sir George Hayter Chubb; the Rt. Hon. Sir Henry H. Fowler, M.P., Messrs. Thomas Barnsley, John I. Parkes, J. Bamford Slack, B.A., Joseph Beckett, John R. Hill; Messrs. Thomas G. Osborn, M.A., Percy W. Bunting, M.A., Thomas Owen, M.P., William H. Stephenson, W. Shepherd Allen,

M.A., William O. Quibell; (b) eighteen Ministers to be appointed by the Conference of 1896 in its Pastoral Session; and (c) two Secretaries, one Minister and one Layman.

2. Mr. WILLIAM VANNER is re-appointed Lay Secretary of the Nomination Committee, and is directed, in conjunction with the Rev. THOMAS ALLEN, the Ministerial Secretary, to prepare lists of the persons recommended by the Committee for service on the several Connexional Committees.

3. It shall be the duty of the Secretaries: (a) to convene the Meeting of the Nomination Committee, and to summon to it persons entitled to attend its Meeting; (b) to receive from the Committee of each Connexional Department a list of persons, ex officio and otherwise, who are proposed for appointment upon it by the Conference; (c) to present the lists so received to the Nomination Committee; (d) to keep the record of the proceedings of the Committee; and (e) to report to the Conference on its behalf.

4. The Nomination Committee shall meet on the Saturday previous to the Meeting of the Representative Session of the Conference. At that Meeting the President of the Conference shall preside, or in his absence some Ex-President or other Minister whom he shall depute; and the Secretary, or some other deputed Representative, of each Connexional Department shall attend to give such information as may be necessary.

5. The Nomination Committee shall consider the lists sent forward by the several Committees of Connexional Departments; it shall take care that the Constitution of each Committee nominated is in accordance with the regulations of the Conference; it shall have power to amend the lists sent forward, as it may deem desirable, and to make any changes in reference to Ministers recommended for nomination which the action of the Ministerial Conference may have rendered necessary: but only in cases of necessity shall it make any change in reference to either the Ministerial or Lay nominees of a District Synod, and every such change shall be reported to the Conference.

6. The Conference directs that all Lists of Committees which re to be considered by the Nomination Committee shall be rinted in the Conference Agenda, as far as possible : the names f new members being printed in italics, and those of members ominated for re-appointment by a four-fifths majority dis-nguished by an asterisk ; care being taken to give the hristian name and postal address of each Layman.

N.B.—A complete List of the Lay Members of each Con-exional Committee, with their postal addresses, shall be nded to the Secretary of the Conference for insertion in e Minutes.

7. Secretaries of Departments shall duly inform all new embers, ministerial and lay, of their appointment upon onnexional Committees.

WOMEN REPRESENTATIVES TO CONFERENCE.—The Conference ceives the Report of the Committee, but does not adopt its commendation.

THE CUSTODY OF CONNEXIONAL DOCUMENTS.—1. The Con-ence receives the Report of the Committee, and repeats the structions contained in Standing Order No. 53.

2. The Conference resolves :

(1) That Standing Order No. 53 be so amended as to make clear that the Journals and Daily Records of the Confer-ce, together with the rough drafts of the findings of all mmittees sitting during Conference, are not under the care the Custodian of Connexional Documents, but are kept at Conference Office.

(2) That means be adopted to insure that all complete and used Volumes of District Minutes shall be forthwith sent to Book Steward for safe custody.

3. The Committee shall consist of the Rev. DAVID J. WALLER, D., President of the Conference ; WALFORD GREEN, Ex-sident ; MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary ; William J. Brown, eph Bush, J. Ernest Clapham, Richard Green, Charles H.

Kelly, Dr. Rigg, Ralph M. Spoor, and John Walton, M.A.; with Messrs. William T. Eastman, T. Morgan Harvey, Richard H. Holman, and John Molineux, C.B.

4. The Rev. Walford Green is appointed Custodian and Registrar, and also Convener of the Committee.

ENGLISH PREACHING IN NORTH WALES.—1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee.

2. WESLEY DEACONESS INSTITUTE.—1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference, learning that a responsible Council has been formed for the management of the Wesley Deaconess Institute, recommends the Institute to the confidence and sympathy of the Connexion.

MEMORIALS FROM CIRCUIT QUARTERLY MEETINGS TO CONFERENCE.—1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference adopts the recommendations, and directs that the Standing Orders upon this subject be amended accordingly (see p. 367).

TERM OF MINISTERIAL APPOINTMENT TO A CIRCUIT.

(1) The Conference declares its hearty adhesion to the principle of Itinerancy and to the three years' limit as a general rule; but it repeats its conviction that there are cases—in Circuits as well as in Missions—when the interests of the work of God demand that, under careful regulations and restrictions, the term of ministerial residence should be extended beyond three years.

(2) The Conference feels, however, that the present method of extending the time is very inconvenient, and appoints a Special Committee to consider, first, whether a satisfactory solution of the difficulty of method can be reached without an appeal to Parliament; and, secondly, if such an appeal to Parliament be deemed necessary or desirable, to suggest the form in which it should be made; and, thirdly, also to prepare a statement of the nature of the proposed change, and the reasons why it is proposed, so that when the subject is submitted first of all to the necessary judgment of our people, their response may be definite and decisive.

But the Conference is not prepared to sanction an application to Parliament for the unconditional repeal of the eleventh clause of the Deed Poll, or of that portion of it which limits successive appointments to three years.

2. The following is the Committee: The Rev. DAVID J. WALLER, D.D., President of the Conference; WALFORD GREEN, Ex-President; MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary; William J. Brown, J. Ernest Clapham, Albert Clayton, James Crabtree, William Gorman, Walter G. Hall, Hugh Price Hughes, M.A., Simpson Johnson, Charles H. Kelly, Dr. M'Mullen, Dr. Nicholas, George W. Olver, B.A., William Perkins, Dr. Henry J. Pope, Joseph Posnett, Dr. Randles, John Rhodes (B), Dr. Rigg, Enoch Salt, H. Arnaud Scott, John S. Simon, Thomas E. Westerdale; Messrs. Hill, Henry Holloway, John W. Laycock, Thomas Lewis, William Middlebrook, J. Cory Monkhouse, Thomas G. Osborn, M.A., Thomas Owen, M.P., Robert W. Perks, M.P., William O. Quibell, J. Bamford Slack, B.A., Colonel George J. Smith, and Lewis Williams.

The SECRETARY of the Conference is the Convener.

METHODISM IN WALES—1. In view of the spiritual needs and opportunities in Wales, the Conference appoints a special Committee to consider the entire condition and prospects of Welsh Methodism, and, especially, whether it is desirable to form a Provincial Synod in Wales.

2. The Committee shall consist of the Rev. DAVID J. WALLER, D.D., President of the Conference; MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary; six Ministers and six Laymen from North Wales, and three Ministers and three Laymen from South Wales, to be appointed by the respective September Synods; together with the Rev. J. Ernest Clapham, Hugh Price Hughes, M.A., Dr. Henry J. Pope, Dr. Rigg, Richard Roberts, Dr. Stephenson; Messrs. Moses Atkinson, William Middlebrook, Thomas G. Osborn, M.A., Robert W. Perks, M.P., William O. Quibell, and Lewis Williams.

The Rev. HUGH PRICE HUGHES, M.A., is the Convener.

COMPULSORY SUPERNUMERARYSHIP.—The Conference appoints he following Committee to consider the claims of those Ministers who are made Supernumeraries under discipline, or because Circuits cannot be found for them, with a view to find an quitable basis upon which their claims may be commuted, nd thus enable them to withdraw without financial loss: he Rev. DAVID J. WALLER, D.D., President of the Conerence; WALFORD GREEN, Ex-President; MARSHALL HARTLEY, ecretary; William J. Brown, J. Ernest Clapham, William . Codling, James Crabtree, Robert Culley, Charles H. Kelly, r. Jenkins, Dr. Henry J. Pope, Dr. Rigg, G. Stringer Rowe, ohn S. Simon, Dr. Stephenson, Peter Thompson, J. Cornelius Vright; Messrs. Thomas H. Bainbridge, John Lees Barker, ercy W. Bunting, M.A., John Cooper, T. Morgan Harvey, Villiam Hedges, William Hunt, George W. Munt, Thomas G. sborn, M.A., Digby F. Shillington, J. Bamford Slack, B.A., ir Clarence Smith, Colonel George J. Smith, James Taylor, id Ezra T. Wilks.

The Rev. PETER THOMPSON is the Convener.

REPRESENTATIVES TO CONFERENCE.—1. The Conference relves that, in the event of one or more of the Ministers or aymen elected to attend the Conference in its Representative ession being unable to fulfil their appointments, they shall form the Chairman of the District before the beginning of e Representative Session, and their place or places shall then be taken by the person or persons who received the highest number of votes next to those elected.

2. The Conference directs that Standing Order No. 47 be amended acordingly.

LAY REPRESENTATION.—The Conference appoints the following Committee to consider and advise what arrangements can be made to supply the places of Lay Representatives (official or elected by Conference) who may be unavoidably prevented from attending the Conference: The Rev. DAVID J. WALLER, D.D., President of the Conference; MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary; Thomas Allen, J. Ernest Clapham, Hugh Price Hughes, M.A., Dr. Henry J. Pope, John S. Simon; Messrs. Moses Atkinson, John Cooper, Henry Holloway, William Middlebrook, John I. Parkes, and J. Bamford Slack, B.A.

Mr. WILLIAM MIDDLEBROOK is the Convener.

METHODISM IN SOUTH LIVERPOOL.—The Conference appoints the following Committee to consider the re-arrangement of Circuit boundaries in the south of Liverpool, with special reference to the case of the St. John's and Woolton Circuits, and to the financial interests involved. This Committee shall report to the May Synod of the Liverpool District, and to the Conference. The Rev. Owen Davies, Charles Garrett, John Hornabrook, Joseph Nettleton, Dr. Henry J. Pope, Owen Watkins; Messrs. Joseph Beckett, Edwin Cannington, Isaac A. Mack, J. Cory Monkhouse, and Thomas G. Osborn, M.A.

The Rev. OWEN WATKINS is the Convener.

CANNING TOWN AND BARKING.—The Conference appoints the following Committee to consider the opportunities for aggression presented by the Canning Town and Barking Circuits; and directs that its Report be considered by the First London Synod before it is presented to the Conference: The Rev. DAVID J. WALLER, D.D., President of the Conference; WALFORD

GREEN, Ex-President; MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary; John Bond, William J. Brown, J. Ernest Clapham, Edward Dodds, William W. Grigg, Simpson Johnson, Charles H. Kelly, Frederick H. Naylor, Dr. Nicholson, Alfred Sargent, Dr. Stephenson, F. Charles Stuart, Peter Thompson, William J. Tweddle, John E. Wakerley, J. Cornelius Wright; Messrs. John K. Brown, J. Norman Button, Charles Campion, George Corderoy, Frederick A. Corley, John H. Godwin, Edward Harris, T. Morgan Harvey, William Hedges, John Hibbard, John T. Hills, Dr. Hine, William G. Horncastle, George W. Kilner, George W. Munt, William Palmer, Edward H. Temple, Ezra T. Wilks.

The Rev. SIMPSON JOHNSON is the Convener.

TEMPERANCE LEGISLATION.—In consideration of the widespread and terrible evils resulting from the drink traffic, as at present conducted, and the generally admitted and urgent need for reforms in the licensing laws, the Conference is of opinion that the time has come when all parties in the State and all sections of the Church should combine to promote new legislation on the subject; and expresses the hope that this question, which so nearly concerns the well-being and credit of the nation at large, may be promptly dealt with apart from political partisanship and sectarian bias.

OPEN SESSION OF CONFERENCE: FOREIGN MISSIONS.—The Conference resolves to discontinue the Conjoint and Open Session on behalf of Foreign Missions, hitherto held on the Wednesday evening of the week of the Representative Session.

SECTION V:

STANDING ORDERS.

PART I.

Regulations Concerning Supplies and Students.

Minutes of Conference, 1812, 1857, 1876, 1879, 1885, 1886, 1887, 1888, 1889, 1891.

1. Any Minister needing a Supply is directed to communicate with the Chairman of the District before applying to the President; and the Chairman is also directed to satisfy himself, by personal enquiry, that an efficient local Supply cannot be obtained.

2. Any Minister on whose behalf a Supply has been appointed shall retain the Supply for one month after he has given notice to the President that his services will no longer be required,—unless the President has employment for him sooner. And such Minister, when he gives notice to the President that, after a given date, the services of the Supply will be no longer required, shall, at the same time, notify the fact to the Chairman of the District.

3. The retiring President shall furnish to the Conference, on the second day of its Session, a list of all Ministers who have had Supplies during any part of the preceding year, with the date in each case on which the Supply was sent and withdrawn. And on receiving this list, the Conference shall appoint a Committee to enquire whether these Ministers are physically competent to take a Circuit.

4. The retiring President shall furnish to the Committee on Transfers a Report as to the health and fitness for our work of those Probationers who had been, during the year, on his List of Reserve; the Committee to report to the Conference.

5. On the second day of each Conference the retiring President shall furnish a list of the names and addresses of the Preachers on his List of Reserve, with particulars of their employment during the year. The list shall contain (1) the names of those sent out as Supplies by the President, with the date of appointment; (2) the names of those employed under private arrangement.

6. All applications for the services of Probationers on the List of Reserve shall be forwarded to the President of the Conference not later than July 1 in each year; and a Committee to classify the cases shall meet during the Sessions of each Conference.

7. Except in special cases, the President's List of Reserve shall consist of men who have been trained in the Theological Institution.

8. Every Student who has completed his term of three years in the Theological Institution, and is duly certified by the Discipline Committee, shall be regarded as commencing his Probation at the Conference next ensuing.

If he receives an appointment at the Conference, or is called out by the President as a Supply before Christmas, he shall be entitled, after Ordination, to the usual allowances of an Ordained Minister.

But if not so appointed or called out, or if he shall be specially recommended to return to the Institution for a fourth year's course of study, he shall, in the year immediately following his Ordination, be entitled only to the allowances of an unmarried Minister. This resolution does not carry any disabilities with regard to other Funds than the Home Mission and Contingent Fund.

Those Candidates of the Ministry who have taken a Degree in any one of the Universities of the United Kingdom shall not, of necessity, spend the full term of three years in the Theological Institution; but, on the recommendation of the Staff of the Branch, the term of their residence may be shortened. And in such case, their Probation shall also, on the above conditions, commence at the Conference next ensuing.

9. Every Preacher sent by the President as a Supply shall be paid at the rate of Thirty Guineas a year for the time he is in the Circuit; this allowance being in addition to Board and Lodging.

In regard to Travelling Expenses, a Preacher sent to a Circuit as a Supply is dealt with on the same principle as one who is appointed by the Conference to his first Circuit. Once arrived in a Circuit as a Supply, he receives his travelling expenses from that Circuit to another when removed by the President during the year, or by the Conference at the end of the year.

10. In respect of payment, the year of a trained man on the President's List of Reserve appointed in connexion with, or immediately after, the Conference, shall reckon from the first day of September to the last day of August.

11. Students who have not completed their term at the Institution, but are called out to meet special emergencies, shall, when their services are no longer required by the President, return to the Institution and complete their term.

12. Students who have completed their term at the Institution, and were not called out during their third year by the President, and have not received appointments at the Conference, shall, if no other course be open to them, return to the Institution, and there await the call of the President.

13. Students who have completed their term at the Institution, but were called out during the previous year by the President, yet have not received appointments at the Conference, are under the care and at the cost of the Home Mission Committee.

14. Students who have completed their term at the Institution, and have been sent by the President as Supplies, shall, when their services are no longer required, be placed by the President under the direction of the Home Mission Committee, which shall be responsible for their maintenance; the Committee shall, however, be entitled to a week's notice from the President before any such Student receives another appointment.

15. The employment of Students as Supplies, otherwise than by the President, during their vacation, shall continue as heretofore to be matter of private arrangement, in regard to which neither the President nor the Home Mission Committee shall have responsibility; except in those special cases in which the Home Mission Committee may grant Supplies, for short periods, to Chairmen of Districts.

PART II.

1. Title of the Connexion.—Having regard to the terms used in our Trust Deeds and other Legal Documents, it is not possible for the Conference to alter the title of the Connexion as it appears on the front page of the Minutes of the Conference. The Conference declares, however, that the title hitherto used is not, and never has been, inconsistent with the assertion for "the People called Methodists" of a true and proper position as a Church, with all the authorities, privileges, and responsibilities belonging to the New Testament Church; and in this view of our principles and of the facts of the case, the Conference, so far from discouraging, distinctly approves of the general and popular use of the term, "The Wesleyan Methodist Church." (Minutes, 1891, p. 321.)

2. Enlargement of District Synods.—(1) In addition to the Circuit Stewards, who represent especially the financial interests of the Circuit, each Circuit shall, at the March Quarterly Meeting, elect as members of the District Synod either one or two Laymen who are considered suitable on general grounds to take part in the counsels of the District Synods in the May and September following.

(2) The plan of enlargement shall be based upon the number of Ministers in Circuit work stationed in each Circuit.

(3) Circuits employing one or two Ministers shall elect one Representative to the District Synod; Circuits with three or more Ministers shall elect two Representatives.

(4) At these elections the usage of open voting may be departed from, and the elections decided by ballot, after nomination by the Lay Members of the Meeting.

(5) Circuit Stewards, who are otherwise members of the District Synod, shall not be at liberty to decline to attend the District Synod as Stewards, and then claim the right to sit and vote by virtue of any other office. (Minutes, 1892, p. 311; 1893, p. 319.)

3. Membership and District Synods.—No one is eligible for a seat in a District Synod, or upon any Committee thereof, who is not a member of the Wesleyan Methodist Church. (Minutes, 1892, p. 309.)

4. District Synods, 1896.—The Annual Meetings of the several District Synods shall be held between May 10 and 17, with the exception of those of the North Wales, South Wales, Lincoln, Hull, and Isle of Man Districts. (Minutes, vol. viii. [1837], p. 224.)

5. Isle of Man District.—It shall be a part of the business of the Financial District Synod of the Isle of Man District to call the attention of Superintendents, and other Ministers who may be responsible, to the Regulations as to the duty of making certain Quarterly Returns to the Registrar-General of the Island, according to the provisions of the "Dissenters' Marriage Act Amendment Act, 1885," of the Isle of Man. (Minutes, 1885, p. 285.)

6. Names and Addresses of Circuit Stewards.—The Superintendents of Circuits are required to furnish the Chairman of the District with the names and addresses of the Circuit Stewards immediately after the December Quarterly Meeting; and, immediately after the March Quarterly Meeting, with the name and address of any Gentleman elected to attend the May District Synod in the place of any Circuit Steward declaring his inability to attend such District Synod; and also with the names and addresses of those persons, in addition to the Circuit Stewards, who have been elected as Representatives to the District Synod. (Minutes, vol. xviii. [1871], p. 402; 1885, p. 276; 1892, p. 311; 1893, p. 319.)

7. Admission of Members.—Rule of 1797. It is not intended that the names of all those who are on trial should be laid before a Leaders' Meeting for distinct and formal discussion; but solely, that if there be, in the opinion of a Leader, any reasonable objection to the character and conduct of any person who is on trial, such objection may be stated by him; and that, if the validity of the objection be established to the satisfaction of the Meeting, a Member's Ticket shall not be given to such person at the Quarterly Visitation. (Minutes, 1880, p. 265.)

8. Trial of Members.—When a charge is brought against any Member resident in a place where no Leaders' Meeting is statedly held, the case shall be referred for investigation to the Leaders' Meeting of the principal Society in the Circuit Town. The Leader or Leaders, and the Society Stewards, of the Society of which the accused is a Member, shall be associated with the Leaders' Meeting for the purposes of the investigation. (Minutes, vol. xv. [1863], p. 541; vol. xviii. [1872], p. 656.)

9. Trial of Trustees.—If the accused person is a Trustee, then there shall also be associated with the Leaders' Meeting, as above constituted, the Trustees of the Chapel with which the Society of which he is a Member is connected; or, if there is no such Chapel, then the Trustees of the Chapel in connexion with the principal Society in the Circuit Town. But no Trustee shall, in either case, be so associated, unless he is himself a Member of the Society in the same Circuit. (Minutes, vol. xviii. [1872], p. 656.)

10. Attendance of Ministers at Official Meetings.—All the Ministers and Preachers on Trial appointed to a Circuit have a constitutional right to take part as members in our Leaders' Meetings, and in all other official meetings of the Circuits to which they are appointed. (Minutes, vol. xii. [1852], p. 121.)

11. Probationers and the Lord's Supper.—Superintendents are required to make the necessary arrangements, in their Circuit Plans, for securing to their junior Colleagues proper facilities for partaking of this holy Sacrament. (Minutes, vol. x. [1844], pp. 91, 92.)

12. Resolutions on Pastoral Work.—These "Resolutions," as far as the words "counted for a forest," shall be read in the stead of the "Liverpool Minutes" at each Annual District Synod, and at the Ministers' Meeting of each Circuit in September. And the Chairmen of Districts are directed to make enquiry concerning the due observance of this regulation. (Minutes, 1885, pp. 356–366.)

A copy of the "Resolutions on Pastoral Work" shall be presented, under the direction of the Chairman of each District, to every Preacher on Trial on his first appointment to a Circuit. (Minutes, 1885, p. 183.)

13. Reading of the Pastoral Address.—Superintendents are directed to appoint special Society Meetings, to be held at the principal Chapels in their Circuits, for the purpose of having the Pastoral Address read, and made the subject of suitable remarks and exhortations. (Minutes, vol. viii. [1838], p. 360.)

14. Covenant Services.—As many of the members of our Church in village Societies cannot take part in the Annual Covenant Service when held only in our principal chapels, the Conference directs Superintendents to arrange, when necessary, for additional Covenant Services for the smaller Societies, to be conducted by Ministers on the week-nights at the commencement of the new year; and that in connexion with these Services the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper be administered. (Minutes, 1893, p. 228.)

15. Recognition of New Members.—The public and formal Recognition of New Members of Society is in accordance with early Methodist usage. A public welcome given by the Society tends to encourage the New Members, whilst the formal recognition will deepen their sense of responsibility.

Such recognition should be associated, wherever practicable, with the Public Service on the Lord's Day, morning or evening, and be followed by the administration of the Lord's Supper. In some places it might be found more expedient to recognise New Members at a Society Meeting after the Quarterly Visitation of the Classes; or, in villages, a Recognition Service might take the place of a week evening service.

The Conference therefore directs that, at least two or three times a year, if practicable, meetings for the Recognition of New Members be held in every Circuit, the frequency and exact nature of such meetings being left to the discretion of the Superintendent. (See "Form of Service," Minutes, 1894, pp. 448–454).

If, upon enquiry, it be found that any person, in other respects eligible for recognition, has not received Christian baptism, that Sacrament shall be administered before the recognition of that person, and, if not otherwise, in connexion with the Recognition Service. (Minutes, 1878, p. 186; 1885, p. 278.)

16. Annual Return of Members.—The number of Members in the Society, and of persons admitted on trial, as taken at the March Quarterly Visitation in each year, and reported at the District Synods, shall be the number returned on the Minutes of the following Conference. These Returns of Members in the Society are to be forwarded, immediately after the May District Synods, to the Rev. J. Ernest Clapham, Wesleyan Centenary Hall, Bishopsgate Street Within, London, E.C.

17. Returns of Membership.—The Conference directs that, where practicable, the numbers for each Society be read in the Leaders' Meeting immediately before each quarter day. (Minutes, 1893, p. 228.)

18. Sunday-school Official Meetings.—The Superintendent Minister of the Circuit shall preside at the Annual Meeting (of the Committee and Subscribers); and also at all Meetings of the Committee, and at all Meetings of the Teachers. If at any one of the said Meetings the Superintendent Minister be not present, one of the other Ministers of the Circuit shall preside. If either at an Annual Meeting, or at a Meeting of the Committee, no Minister is present, the Meeting shall appoint one of the Officers of the Institution to act as Chairman. If at any Teachers' Meeting no Minister is present, one of the Superintendents of the School shall preside. (Minutes, vol. xvii. [1868], p. 384.)

19. Representation of Sunday Schools in Circuit Quarterly Meetings.—(1) No one who is not a member of the Wesleyan Methodist Church of at least three years' continuous standing shall be ex officio, or eligible to be elected as, a Representative from a Sunday School to the Circuit Quarterly Meeting. No person shall be deemed eligible to represent a Sunday School at the Quarterly Meeting of any Circuit in which he is not at the time a Member of the Wesleyan Methodist Church.

(2) The senior superintendent of every Sunday School shall be a member ex officio of the Quarterly Meeting.

N.B.—Where there are more superintendents than one, should any difficulty arise as to which superintendent should be counted the senior, the point may be determined at the meeting when the election of representatives takes place. The word "senior" is intended to refer to seniority as superintendent of the school, not to seniority in age.

(3) In schools with an average attendance of one hundred to three hundred scholars, in addition to the ex officio representative, a special representative shall be chosen from the teachers and officers of the school at the Annual Teachers' Meeting.

(4) In schools with an average attendance of three hundred scholars and upwards, a second special representative shall be elected in like manner. The special representative or representatives shall be elected annually, the same persons being eligible for re-election.

(5) Where there are two sessions, the average attendance shall be that for the larger session, as given in the official returns for the year preceding that in which the election is made.

(6) Only members of the Wesleyan Methodist Church shall vote for representatives. Should any school superintendent not be a member of the Church, the teachers and officers of the school may, at the Annual Teachers' Meeting, elect some other person from among their own number as a representative who is duly qualified in respect of his membership.

(7) The time and place of the meeting when representatives are elected shall be fixed in consultation with the superintendent Minister, either he or one of his colleagues being in the chair; and in the event of a Circuit Minister not being present, the chairman shall be elected by the meeting, such chairman being a member of the Church. (Minutes, 1894, pp. 313, 314.)

20. Sunday-school Statistics.—With a view to securing more correct returns from Sunday Schools, it is an instruction to the Secretary or Secretaries of each School that, wherever practicable, the Schedule of Returns be submitted to the Local Committee before such Returns are presented to the Circuit Quarterly Meeting. (Minutes, 1885, p. 278.)

21. Catechetical Instruction in Sunday Schools.—The Conference attaches the utmost importance to doctrinal teaching in Sunday Schools by means of catechetical instruction, and directs that Ministers shall give special attention to this subject. Superintendents and Teachers are also urgently and affectionately recommended to do their utmost to promote the use of our Catechisms. (Minutes, vol. xix. [1873], p. 176; 1882, pp. 224, 225; 1890, p. 279.)

22. Junior Society Classes.—For the resolutions of the Conference upon the subject, see Minutes, 1894, pp. 218, 219.

23. Examination of Pupil-Teachers.—The Annual Examination of Pupil-Teachers in Religious Knowledge shall be held on the last Saturday in October and on the first Saturday in March. The questions shall be prepared by the General Committee; the Examination held, either in the several Circuits by the Superintendent Ministers or their Colleagues, or at suitable places for Central District Examinations, as may be determined by the September District Synods, and agreed to by the respective School Committees; and the written answers forwarded to the General Secretary, to be valued by a Central Board of Examiners elected by the General Committee. (Minutes, vol. xv. [1863], pp. 534, 535; vol. xx. [1877], p. 409.)

The Conference recommends that, in connexion with Central Examinations, Meetings of Teachers and Pupil-Teachers be held under the direction of the Chairman of the District and the District Educational Secretary.

24. Quarterly Fast-Days.—The days upon which the Quarterly Fast, appointed by Rule, is to be observed throughout the Connexion, for the following year, are Fridays, October 4 and December 27, 1894; March 27 and June 26, 1896. (Minutes, vol. i. [1767], p. 73; vol. v. [1821], p. 249.)

25. The Ballot in Quarterly Meetings, etc.—The practice of voting by ballot in the administration of Methodism in our Circuits is contrary to long-established usage, and its adoption would in various ways be injurious to the interests of our Societies. (Minutes, 1884, p. 191.)

26. Election of Representatives to District Synods.—The Conference resolves that at the elections in Quarterly Meetings of the Representatives to the District Synods the usage of open voting may be departed from, and the elections decided by ballot, after nomination by the Lay Members of the Meeting.

In respect of all other elections made at Quarterly Meetings the Conference re-affirms its regulation of 1884. (See Standing Order No. 25.) (Minutes, 1893, p. 319.)

27. Discipline of Methodism.—The Chairmen of Districts are enjoined to make particular enquiries at their Annual Synods in reference to the several points of Discipline specified in the first Section of the Answer to Question XXVIII. in the Minutes of 1825. (Minutes, vol. vi. [1825], p. 65.)

28. Interchanges of Ministers.—The expenses of interchanges between Ministers residing in various Circuits, appointed by the Conference, shall in no case fall upon the Ministers themselves, but shall be provided by the Circuits concerned, under the direction of the District Synod. (Minutes, 1878, p. 252.)

29. Political Meetings in Wesleyan Methodist Trust Premises.—Having regard to the fact that a desire has been expressed in some places to use our Trust Property for the purpose of Political Meetings, the Conference declares that such uses are not contemplated by the provisions of any of our Trust Deeds; and it reminds Superintendents and Trustees that our Trust Properties can only be lawfully used for the purposes provided for in the Trust Deeds.

The Conference expresses the conviction that any such use of the premises as that suggested would be detrimental to the best interests of our Societies by endangering their peace and unity. (Minutes, vol. vii. [1834], p. 420; 1885, p. 185; see also Resolutions on Parish Councils, Minutes, 1894, p. 323.)

30. Candidates for the Ministry.—(1) Those Preachers who are recommended for Admission on Trial shall, at or before the time of the Annual District Synod, preach in the presence of, at least, three of the Ministers of the Synod, to be selected by the Chairman, exclusive of the Superintendent by whom the Candidates respectively are proposed; and a special report of the Sermons shall be made in the District Synod, and immediately forwarded, in writing, to the Secretaries of the Committee for the Examination of Candidates. (Minutes, vol. x. [1844], p. 91.)

(2) In any case in which a Candidate has not resided for two years continuously in the Circuit from which he is recommended, the Superintendent of that Circuit shall obtain a written report concerning him from his former Superintendent or Superintendents, so as to cover the previous two years, and present the same to the March Quarterly Meeting and the District Synod.

(3) Arrangements shall be made by the May District Synods for the hearing of each Candidate by two Ministers of the District, in addition to those who have heard him before his recommendation by the District Synod; and such Ministers shall immediately forward their Report to the Rev. Peter

Thompson, 2, Portland Street, Commercial Road East, London, E. (Minutes, 1889, p. 194.)

N.B.—Three different trial Sermons are required from each Candidate; two preached, and one sent in manuscript. (Minutes, 1889, p. 193.)

31. Neutrals in Voting.—The Conference resolves that in all voting upon cases of discipline, or upon Candidates proposed for the Ministry, in the District Synods, the number of neutrals shall be recorded. (Minutes, 1894, p. 226.)

32. System of Marking in Examinations.—The Conference resolves: (1) that in future, in valuing all Examinations and Trial Sermons, a system of marks by numbers from 1 to 7 be adopted: number 1 being the highest value and 7 the lowest; (2) that the seven grades from 1 to 7 shall signify respectively, Excellent, Very Good, Good, Fair, Moderate, Poor, Very Poor. Also, that the marks 1, 2, 3, denote three grades of an Honours Division; and 4, 5, 6, 7, four grades in a Pass Division; "average" quality being indicated by the mark 4 (fair). (Minutes, 1888, p. 214.)

33. Candidates for the Ministry from the Welsh Districts.—(1) Candidates for the Ministry from the Welsh Districts who are able to preach in English, and who pass their Examinations in English, shall be regarded as eligible for the general work. (2) Except when the Conference directs otherwise, accepted Candidates shall be sent forthwith to the Institution. (Minutes, 1889, p. 317.)

34. Probation of University Graduates.—Candidates for the Ministry who have obtained a Degree in any University of the United Kingdom shall, on passing a satisfactory Examination in Theology, have the special consideration of the Conference in regard to the term of their Probation. (Minutes, 1886, p. 203; see also Minutes, 1895, p. 334, No. 8.)

35. University Degrees.—(1) For the future, no Minister shall be entitled to have his Degree printed in the Minutes until the approval of the Probationers' Examination Committee has been obtained.

(2) In the case of every Degree printed in the Minutes, the source of the Degree shall be stated, except in the case of that of Doctor of Divinity received before Conference, 1895.

(3) Degrees obtained from a Foreign University, by means of examinations conducted in this country, shall not be printed in the Minutes. (Minutes, 1893, pp. 227, 228; 1895, p. 225.)

36. Preachers on Trial and Wesley's Works.—Those Preachers on Trial who do not already possess Wesley's Works are required to procure them during the period of their Probation, and shall be allowed to pay for them to our Book Steward by such instalments as may best suit their convenience. (Minutes, 1882, p. 224.)

37. Preachers on Trial and the District Synod.—Whenever it shall be found to be practicable, Preachers on Trial shall preach during the District Synods. (Minutes, vol. xviii. [1871], p. 403.)

38. Candidates for Ordination.—Candidates for Ordination shall, at or before the May District Synod, preach before three Ministers of the District, who shall report, in writing, to the Synod. (Minutes, vol. xviii. [1871], p. 403.)

39. Administration of the Sacraments by Probationers.—Any application for a dispensation to a Probationer to administer the Sacraments shall be made to the President through the Chairman of the District. (Minutes, 1892, p. 219.)

40. Army and Navy Work.—(1) The Chairmen and Superintendents of our Foreign Mission Districts where there are Garrison and Naval Ports are instructed to make such arrangements with the Naval and Military authorities as may be necessary for the benefit of Wesleyan Soldiers and Seamen, in concert with the Army and Navy Sub-Committee. (Minutes, 1889, p. 317.)

(2) Soldiers' and Sailors' Homes.—The Conference directs that, in addition to the Connexional sanction already required by our Rules before any property can be acquired for Methodist purposes, any Ministers or other persons connected with our Societies contemplating the erection or acquisition of a Soldiers' or Sailors' Home shall communicate with the Army and Navy Sub-Committee; and no binding arrangements shall be entered into until the written consent of the Home Mission Committee and of the Foreign Missionary Committee respectively shall have been received. (Minutes, 1887, p. 227.)

(3) All Ministers working for the benefit of Soldiers and Sailors in Stations where Wesleyan Homes already exist, or shall be established, shall include in their quarterly reports an account of the work done in the Homes; and at the Annual District Synods in May the financial condition of such Homes shall be reported, as in the case of other Trust properties. (Minutes, 1887, p. 227.)

(4) The following information shall be presented from each of our Military and Naval Stations to the District Synods at their Annual Meetings in May; together with a Report of the work done for the benefit of our Soldiers and Sailors:

(i.) The number of declared Wesleyans in the Army and Royal Navy, including the Coastguard, taken for December 31 of each year.

(ii.) The number of Members of the Society in the Army and Royal Navy, including the wives and children of Soldiers and Seamen.

(iii.) The average attendance at divine Service during the year.

(iv.) The amount of capitation and other official payments for the year.

In the case of Home Stations, these Reports and Returns shall be submitted to the District Home Mission Sub-Committee, which shall present them, with any needful remarks thereupon, to the District Synod. (Minutes, 1888, p. 311.)

(5) Ministers who are appointed to Army and Navy Work are not to be considered as Ministers of the Circuit in which they may be stationed, so as to be claimed for Circuit work, unless special arrangements be made in any case with the Army and Navy Sub-Committee. After their proper work has been efficiently done, they may give such help to the Circuit as they may be enabled to do, but only by arrangement in writing between the Superintendent of the Circuit and the Army and Navy Sub-Committee. Their personal conduct is to be under the cognisance of the Superintendent of the Circuit and the District Synod, subject to the before-mentioned conditions. (Minutes, 1888, p. 311.)

(6) Wherever capitation payments are received on behalf of our Wesleyan Soldiers and Seamen, the pastoral duties which are entailed thereby shall be strictly fulfilled, and every facility and encouragement given to the men, their wives, and families, to become attached to the services of the chapels in which, by these payments, they are now seat-holders. (Minutes, 1888, p. 311.)

41. Home Missionary Ministers.—A special enquiry shall be made at the May District Synods whether the Regulations for the employment of Home Missionary Ministers, adopted by the Conference, have been faithfully observed in the Circuits to which Home Missionary Ministers are appointed; and a Report in each case shall be made to the Conference. (Minutes, vol. xv. [1862], p. 327.)

42. Juvenile Home and Foreign Missionary Associations.—The Conference is decidedly of opinion that wherever sums, large or small, are collected avowedly for the Foreign or Home Missions, the whole amount should be remitted to the Treasurers of those Funds, respectively, to be administered under the direction of their Committees; and that sums so remitted to the Home Mission Fund should entitle a Circuit to favourable consideration if it requests a Grant for any effort within its boundaries which may be a legitimate object for the application of moneys collected for Home Missions. In the case of Circuits which are not in a position to ask for the appointment of a Home Missionary Minister, and to give the pledge required, but which feel the necessity of adopting some plan of Home Missionary operations, the subjoined allocation is allowed: One-third of the sums received to be paid to the Funds of the Foreign Missionary Society, it being expressly understood that in every case the contribution to the Foreign Missions shall be at least equal to what has been presented from Christmas Offerings, on the average of several preceding years; one-third to the Home Mission and Contingent Fund; one-third to the Circuit, to be expended in support of local movements of a directly Home Missionary character, under the direction of the Superintendent, and of a Committee to be appointed at the December Quarterly Meeting. (Minutes, vol. xv. [1863], p. 528; and vol. xx. [1877], p. 398.)

43. Circulars to Lay Members of District Synod.—The Chairman shall send a Circular to the Lay Members of the District Synod requesting their attendance on the Wednesday, and, if necessary, on the Thursday, in the week of the Annual District Synod; specifying the business that will be brought forward, and particularly mentioning any subject that may have been specially remitted by the Conference to the consideration of such Synod. (Minutes, vol. xviii. [1871], p. 402.)

A similar Circular shall be prepared and sent with reference to the Financial District Synod.

44. Obituaries of Deceased Ministers.—Secretaries of District Synods are directed to forward copies of the Obituaries of Deceased Ministers to the Convener of the Committee on Obituaries, immediately after the Annual Meeting of the Synod. (Minutes, 1892, p. 217.)

45. Election of Representative to the Stationing Committee.—The Minister who shall be the Representative of any District to the Stationing Committee shall be chosen by the united votes of the Ministers and Laymen who are members of the District Synod. (Minutes, vol. i. [1791], p. 256; vol. xviii. [1870], p. 154.)

46. Election of Ministers to attend the Conference in its Representative Session.—(1) The election shall be made by ballot, after nomination, from among the whole number of Ministers in any district who desire to attend the Conference. (2) The Ministers so elected shall have permission to attend the Conference in its Pastoral Session. (3) The Ministers necessary to complete the number permitted to attend the Conference in its Pastoral Session shall then be elected. (4) In the event of any Minister elected to attend the Conference in its Representative Session offering to "provide for himself," his election shall not thereby be rendered void. (Minutes, 1886, p. 199.)

47. Representatives to Conference.—In the event of one or more of the Ministers or Laymen elected to attend the Conference in its Representative Session being unable to fulfil their appointments, they shall inform the Chairman of the District before the beginning of the Representative Session, and their place or places shall then be taken by the person or persons who received the highest number of votes next to those elected. (Minutes, 1895, p. 325.)

48. Division of Circuits.—Before a District Synod consents to the division of any Circuit, enquiry must be made whether due attention has been paid to satisfactory arrangements for the Trust Estates affected by the proposed division, especially in reference to any debts existing thereon. (Minutes, vol. xviii. [1870], p. 154.)

For Regulations as to Division of Circuits, see Minutes, 1886, pp. 270–273.

49. Boundaries of Circuits.—Whereas difficulties have arisen from the want of accurate and recorded definitions of the boundaries of Circuits, in future, the boundaries of Circuits which are divided shall be fully stated in the Minutes of the District Synod to which they belong, and the Secretary of the Synod shall send a copy of the record to be inserted in the Minutes of the Quarterly Meetings of the Circuits concerned; and in such cases, copies of the ordnance maps, or some other maps, of the localities concerned shall be coloured, so as to show the boundaries, and deposited in the safes provided for the custody of the Trust Deeds of the Circuits.

These arrangements shall be made in all cases of alteration in the boundaries of existing Circuits. (Minutes, vol. xix. [1874], p. 454.)

50. Minor District Synod.—In all cases in which the holding of a Minor District Synod is rendered necessary, except under the Regulation of 1840, such Synod shall be held in the District in which the accused party resides; the accused and the accuser selecting respectively two Ministers from the said District, and the Chairman of the District other two; the six thus chosen, together with the Chairman of the District, to constitute the Minor District Synod.

Should either party refuse or decline to choose two Ministers to act as members of the meeting, the Chairman is empowered and directed to nominate them, so that the number required by Rule may be made up. (Minutes, vol. ix. [1840], p. 94; vol. xviii. [1870], p. 154; 1894, p. 217.)

51. Regulations for the Trial of a Chairman.—In case of any complaint arising against the Chairman of a District, in reference either to his personal or his official conduct, the accuser, after duly apprising the Chairman of his intention, shall place his complaint in the hands of the President of the Conference for the time being, who shall have authority (if he deem such a course necessary or expedient) to summon a Meeting, consisting of the President of the Conference, the Secretary of the Conference (who shall act as Convener of the Meeting), and twelve other Ministers who are in Full Connexion with the Conference, of whom six, wherever practicable, shall be chosen from among the Ministers of the District of which the accused is Chairman (each party having the right to challenge any or all of the persons first nominated by the President), and to place the Chairman on his trial before them; when, if the guilt of the accused be proved, the meeting shall have power to suspend him till the ensuing Conference, or to depose him from the Chair, and in that case the members of the Synod concerned shall, as in the case of the death of a Chairman, elect another Chairman.

The above Resolution shall not apply to the legislation of 1835 (Min. Conf., vol. vii., p. 581) relative to the trial of an appeal against a sentence of expulsion pronounced by the Chairman of a District in the capacity of Superintendent of a Circuit. (Minutes, 1894, p. 217.)

52. District Minutes.—The Chairmen of Districts are required to procure two complete copies of the Minutes of the several Annual and other Meetings of the District Synods, transcribed according to the order of time in which such Synods shall have been held, and duly signed by the Chairman and Secretary.

One of these copies shall be inserted in the District Records; the other shall be sent to the Rev. ALBERT CLAYTON, 4, Melrose Terrace, Bradley Lane, Huddersfield, not later than June 19, and delivered by him to the President on the first day of the Conference, to be preserved under his direction, as a document appertaining to the Connexion.

The copies of the latter class shall be written on foolscap paper, that they may be annually bound together in one volume.

The District Secretary is required to furnish the Chairman with such extracts from the District Minutes as he will need at the Conference. (Minutes, vol. ii. [1799], p. 26; vol. vii. [1835], p. 554; vol. xx. [1877], p. 514; 1881, pp. 307, 308.)

53. Custody of Connexional Documents.—In addition to the Journals and Daily Records of the Conference, the Reports of Committees meeting during the Conference, and the Minutes of the several District Synods, which are kept at the Conference Office, the following Documents shall also be preserved: The printed Agenda of the Conference; the Minutes of the Committee on Memorials and Suggestions from year to year, with the Documents laid before that Committee, and the Resolutions of the Conference thereon; the Reports of any special Committees or Commissions appointed by the Conference; any legal opinion obtained from time to time by the direction of the Conference; and a Record of all Legacies and Funds left to the Connexion, of the place where the Trust Deeds are deposited, with the names of the Trustees, and the provisions (if any) for the renewal of the Trust; and when the Legacies have been finally disposed of, the Minute Books of the Trustees, showing the arrangements made; with any other Documents the safe custody of which the Conference may hereafter direct. (Minutes, 1882, pp. 287, 288.)

54. Schedules from Departments.—As it is obviously desirable that the Committees appointed by the Conference to manage the several Departments of the business of the Connexion, in the intervals of its Session, should be furnished with all necessary statistical information on the matters of business severally confided to their care, the Conference authorises them, through their appointed Officers, to send, when they deem it expedient, suitable Circulars and Schedules to the Superintendents, or to the Chairmen of Districts, as the case may require; and directs the Superintendents and Chairmen duly to return such Schedules properly filled up. (Minutes, vol. ix. [1840], p. 105.)

55. Designations and Nominations for Appointment to Departmental Offices.—Twelve months before the end of any term of Departmental Office, the Committee in charge of the Department shall submit to the Representative Session of the Conference the names of three Ministers in nomination for that office; of whom the Officer for the time being may, or may not, be one. The Pastoral Session of the Conference shall designate for appointment one of the three nominated by the Representative Session. A similar course shall be pursued in cases of emergency arising before the Conference, which involve immediate appointment. In case of an emergency arising after the close of the Representative Session, the Pastoral Session shall have the right to appoint without a previous nomination. (Minutes, 1886, p. 204; 1890, p. 423.)

56. Elections to Departmental Offices.—In any new appointment to a Departmental Office, the Minister elected shall have a clear majority of the total number of votes cast; and when such majority is not obtained on the first ballot, a second ballot shall be taken on the first two—or, if necessary, the first three—names on the list which have the largest number of votes. (Minutes, 1883, p. 183.)

57. Method of Nominating Ministers for Designation or Appointment to Departmental Offices.—(1) On the presentation of three names by the Committee of any Department, according to rule, for designation or appointment, the Conference, in its Representative Session, shall take at least one ballot; and then, if an absolute majority has been secured, and the Conference thinks fit, it may by open vote pass on the result of the first ballot to the Pastoral Session.

(2) When a ballot is taken, the Committee of Scrutineers shall consist of not less than twenty persons, and shall make all arrangements for the collection and counting of votes. (Minutes, 1892, p. 312.)

58. Election of Chairmen of Districts.—In the appointment of Chairmen, the Minister elected shall have a clear majority of the total number of votes cast, and according to the Standing Order relating to Elections to Departmental Offices. (Minutes, 1886, pp. 205, 295.) See Standing Order, No. 56.

59. Supply for Chairman of a District.—In case the Chairman of a District be unable to attend any meeting of the District Synod, a Chairman for the occasion shall be elected by the Synod from among the Ministers then present. (Minutes, 1891, p. 230.)

60. Committee on Appeals and other Cases.—At each Conference, the President shall nominate, not later than the second day, a Committee of twenty-one members of the Conference, to whom shall be referred, without discussion (1) all cases requiring further enquiry touching the character of Ministers or Preachers on Trial, immediately after the reading of the Minutes of District Synods thereupon; (2) any notice of charge or appeal relating thereto; or (3) any other matter which the Conference may so refer.

Any complainant or appellant, or any person under enquiry, may object to one in three of the members of the said Committee sitting on his case; and the President shall then appoint some other member of the Conference to act instead of the member so objected to.

Special cases to be decided upon by the Conference may be referred to the whole Committee; but it shall, for ordinary purposes, be divided into three sections, for each of which a Convener shall be appointed, who shall be responsible for preparing the business of the Committee. (Minutes, vol. xix. [1873], p. 202.)

61. Ministerial Members of Connexional Committees. — No Minister, who is not an Officer of a Departmental Committee, shall remain upon that Committee as a Member more than six consecutive years, unless he shall have been nominated for a further appointment thereon by the vote of four-fifths of the Members of the Committee present. (Minutes, 1882, p. 383.)

62. Lay Members of Connexional Committees.—(1) A certain number of Lay Gentlemen, being at least one-sixth of the number of Lay Members of each Departmental Committee, shall annually retire from each Committee by rotation; the same persons being ineligible for immediate re-appointment, except in special cases, and after nomination for such re-appointment by the vote of four-fifths of the members of the Committee present. (Minutes, 1882, p. 383.)

(2) A complete list of the Lay Members of each Connexional Committee, with their postal addresses, shall be handed to the Secretary of the Conference for insertion in the Minutes. (Minutes, 1892, p. 319.)

63. Preparations for the Stationing Committee.—(1) As soon as possible after the Annual District Synod, each Representative shall be furnished by the Secretary of the Conference with a list of all Ministers for whom arrangements have not been made, and of all Circuits in like case; the information necessary to compile this list being sent by the Representatives to the Secretary of the Conference not later than June 1; such lists to contain complete information, and to be regarded as private and confidential. (Minutes, 1892, p. 218.)

(2) The Representative of each District shall send to the Secretary of the Conference, not later than June 27 in each year, upon a Schedule to be provided, complete lists of—

(i.) The invitations accepted by Ministers in his District;

(ii.) The arrangements provisionally made for the appointment of Ministers to Circuits in his District; and (iii.) All Ministers in his District for whom no arrangement has been made.

Also, a list of all Ministers to be transferred from the Foreign to the Home Stations shall, at the same time, be furnished by the Missionary Secretaries to the Secretary of the Conference.

From these lists the Secretary of the Conference shall compile, and cause to be printed in a convenient form for use in the Stationing Committee, a Preliminary Draft of Stations embodying all arrangements thus provisionally made; and also a separate list of all Ministers for whom provisional arrangements have not been made; and a copy of these shall be furnished to each Member of the Stationing Committee, in London, on the Monday before the meeting of that Committee. (Minutes, vol. xix. [1875], p. 709.)

64. Regulations concerning the Stationing Committee.

(1) The Stationing Committee shall, from year to year, hold its first Session in London.

(2) The appointments made shall not, as heretofore, be printed day by day.

(3) The Stations shall be printed in the Conference Town.

(4) The First Draft of Stations shall be an absolutely confidential document until the Representatives' Copies are ready for the post.

Should any Minister be officially reported as under discipline and suspended until the Conference, his name shall not appear on the First Draft of Stations.

(5) All Students who are leaving the Institution, and are eligible for appointment, shall be entitled to a copy of the First Draft and of the Final Draft of Stations.

(6) Each Representative shall send to the Secretary of the "Conference Arrangements Committee" two sets of Addressed Wrappers, for the First Draft and the Final Draft, for the Ministers and Circuit Stewards in his District, and for Six other Laymen—Members of the District Synod; the cost of which shall be refunded by the "Conference Arrangements Committee." (Minutes, 1888, p. 317.)

65. Extra Sitting of the Stationing Committee.—After the first reading of the Stations, the Committee shall, when it is deemed expedient, retire for the further consideration of the Stations. (Minutes, 1888, p. 317.)

66. The Ex-President and the Stationing Committee.—The retiring President shall be, ex officio, a Member of the Stationing Committee during the sittings of Conference. (Minutes, 1888, p. 316.)

67. Stations in the Conference.—

(1) The Stations shall be presented twice in the Conference, for a First and a Final Reading.

(2) In the First Reading of the Stations, the names of the Ministers shall not be read out one by one, but the Secretary shall call the names of the Circuits, and any member of the Conference shall be at liberty to question, or raise a discussion upon, any proposed appointment. In the Final Reading, the usage shall be observed of making changes only when all parties are agreed. (Minutes, 1892, p. 218.)

68. Compulsory Supernumeraryship.— In the case of any Minister who has been made a Supernumerary on the ground of either (i.) discipline or (ii.) difficulty in finding him a Circuit, no District Synod shall recommend his re-appointment unless some Circuit in that District is willing to receive him, or he shall have received an invitation to a Circuit in another District. (Minutes, 1892, p. 218.)

69. Supplies in relation to Circuit Appointments.—A Probationer sent by the President, before Christmas, as a Supply, is not thereby disqualified for appointment for a third year to the Circuit where he served as a Supply. (Minutes, 1887, p. 193, 194.)

70. Numbering of Circuits and Stations.—(1) Except those in which no Minister's House is provided, all Stations appearing in the Minutes shall be numbered. (2) The Minister appointed to any Station without a number is the Superintendent, and is therefore entitled to preside in the Quarterly Meetings and in the Trustees' Meetings; but he shall, as heretofore, act under the direction of the Chairman of the District. (Minutes, 1886, p. 204.)

71. Conference Plan.—The Superintendents of those Circuits in which the Conference may, from year to year, assemble, shall, with the previous approbation of the President, complete and print, not later than June 15 in each year, a Plan of the order of preaching in the principal chapels during the Session of the Conference; and shall also, on or before the above date, send to every person whom they have appointed to preach in those chapels a copy of the Conference Plan.

Every Minister so appointed is responsible to the Conference for the fulfilment of his appointment. (Minutes, vol. vi. [1827], p. 291.)

72. Scrutineers of Conference Votes.—(1) At each Conference, in Pastoral Session, a Convener of Scrutineers shall be appointed to take charge of the voting for the Legal Conference, and for the offices of President and Secretary, at the succeeding Conference; and such Convener shall be an ex-officio member of the Pastoral Session of the Conference for which he is elected.

(2) The Committee of Scrutineers, annually appointed, shall consist of not less than twenty, and shall make all arrangements for the collecting and counting of votes. (Minutes, 1892, p. 217.)

73. Induction of the President of the Conference.—The first Session of the Conference shall be occupied with the constituting of the Conference, and with such other miscellaneous business as may be convenient (the Ex-President, if the newly elected President should so desire, occupying the Chair). The afternoon Session following shall be open to our people, under the customary regulations, until half-past four, and shall be occupied with the induction of the President into his office, the delivery of his address, and with devotional exercises.

The Conference Arrangements Committee is directed to reserve the body of the Chapel strictly for the members of the Conference. (Minutes, 1892, p. 217.)

74. Two Conference Sessions Daily.—With a view to facilitating the dispatch of the Conference business, there shall be two Sessions daily. (Minutes, 1886, p. 297.)

75. Open Session of Conference.—An open Session for the reception of Representatives from other Conferences shall be held on the evening of the first day of the Representative Session. (Minutes, 1890, p. 422.)

76. Memorial Service for Deceased Ministers.—(1) The consideration of the records of the deceased brethren shall be regarded and observed as a strictly religious service; and, whilst this solemn business is being transacted, no Committees of the Conference shall meet.

(2) The obituaries of deceased Ministers received by the District Synods shall be revised by a Special Committee, to be appointed at the preceding Conference.

(3) The obituaries thus revised shall be printed for the use of the Conference, under the direction of the Special Committee; and the official reading of these records shall be discontinued.

(4) The obituary notices of Ministers who have died since the May District Synods shall be revised by the Special Committee; and, if possible, be printed and presented at the same time as those which have been submitted to the District Synods.

(5) The Conference shall, as a rule, transact this solemn part of its business on the Tuesday morning of the third week of its Sessions.

(6) The list of the names of deceased Ministers shall be read by the Secretary of the Conference. (Minutes, 1891, p. 230.)

77. Suggestions to Conference from District Synods.—A copy of any Suggestion from a District Synod to the Conference, which relates to any Connexional Department, shall be sent, immediately after the District Synod, to the Secretary of the Department concerned. (Minutes, 1891, p. 323.)

78. Appeals in Cases of Discipline.—No appeal shall be received after the completion of the year following the Conference immediately succeeding the act of discipline, except by special decision of the Conference. (Minutes, 1891, p. 229.)

79. Memorandum of Agreement between the Conference and Candidates from other Churches.—The Memorandum of Agreement between the Conference and Candidates from other Conferences and Churches shall apply in all particulars to married men who are accepted in the ordinary way as Candidates for the Ministry; and the payments required therein shall be made, and the privileges described therein shall begin to be enjoyed, in both cases, at the time of their admission into Full Connexion with the Conference. (Minutes, 1882, p. 289.)

80. Junior Ministers becoming Supernumeraries for One Year.—Ministers who have travelled not more than twenty-one years, and have lost their health, may be allowed to retire for one year. In addition to the Allowances payable from the Annuitant Society and the Connexional Funds, such Ministers may, if in necessitous circumstances, receive for that year a sum not exceeding £80; of which one-half shall be provided by the Home Mission and Contingent Fund, the other half being paid by the Auxiliary Fund. (Minutes, 1878, pp. 233, 234.)

Where a Minister, who becomes a Supernumerary for one year, is not a member of the Annuitant Society, the extra Grant from the Auxiliary Fund shall be less by the amount which would have been due to him from the Annuitant Society. (Minutes, 1887, p. 261.)

Each case shall be examined by a Mixed Committee of seven Members, who shall be appointed by the Conference; namely, the Ex-President, three Ministers, and three Laymen.

Should the Conference deem it indispensable, the Grant may be allowed for a second year. (Minutes, 1878, p. 234.)

81. Temporary Supernumeraryship in Relation to the Legal Conference.—In the case of a member of the Legal Conference who has been permitted to retire for one or for two years, he shall not thereby cease to be a member of the Legal Conference provided he then (that is to say, at the end of the first or second year) returns to the full work; and he shall remain a member of the Legal Conference for two years after becoming a Supernumerary permanently. (Minutes, 1890, p. 212; revised, 1895.)

82. Ministers without Pastoral Charge.—(1) Any Minister wishing to maintain his ministerial status whilst holding no definite appointment to a Circuit or a Department, and without becoming a Supernumerary, shall apply for permission through the District Synod to the Conference, which shall decide the case after a full examination of it by a Special Committee.

(2) Any such Minister shall continue to be in every way subject to our discipline, including the usual enquiries as to character and doctrine.

(3) No such Minister shall receive any payment from the Auxiliary Fund during, or on account of, the years in which he shall occupy the position herein described; and he shall pay the yearly assessments to the Fund for the Maintenance and Education of Ministers' Children on the same scale as Ministers appointed to Departments; and he shall then continue to receive the benefit of those Funds in the ordinary course.

(4) The name of every such Minister shall stand upon the Minutes in connexion with some Circuit, and following his name shall be these words: "Resides in this Circuit without pastoral charge." Nevertheless, he shall not, as a Minister, be a member of the Quarterly Meeting or of any Leaders' Meeting in the Circuit. (Minutes, 1888, p. 215.)

(5) In the case of a Member of the Legal Conference having been entered on the Minutes as without Pastoral charge, in conformity with the Resolutions of the Conference of 1888, the Conference resolves that, at the expiration of four years from the commencement of such an arrangement, he shall cease to be a member of the Legal Conference.

The effect of this Resolution shall not be retrospective. (Minutes, 1890, p. 212.)

83. Supernumeraries or other Ministers Resident Abroad.—

(1) No Minister is allowed to be absent from the country during a great part of the year without the consent of the Conference, or, in case of emergency, of the President, who shall report the case to the ensuing Conference.

(2) Any Minister having permission to reside abroad shall have such permission annually renewed.

(3) If any Minister remain abroad for more than one year, he shall be required either to make arrangements with the officers of our Connexional Funds, with a view to retiring from the English Work, or to furnish the Conference annually with a satisfactory report from some other Methodist Conference in recognised relation with this Conference.

(4) If any Minister shall enter into business, or shall accept office of emolument of any kind, during his residence abroad, he is required, without delay, to notify the fact to the Chairman of the District where his name appears on the Stations.

(5) In all such cases the existing Rule which requires the presence of a Minister at the Annual District Synod shall be held to be binding, unless his absence has been expressly sanctioned in accordance with the foregoing resolutions; and even in that case he is required to furnish a statement in due time containing an answer to the Question in the Order and Form of Business in District Synods as to his continued belief of our doctrines.

(6) Any Minister having permission to reside abroad shall furnish a report as to his ministerial conduct from the proper authority, as defined in the above, or in the letter from the President giving the required permission.

(7) A list of all such Ministers shall be annually printed in the Minutes of Conference at the end of the Stations. (Minutes, 1889, p. 327.)

84. Ministers under Affiliated Conferences.—(1) British Ministers who have elected to remain in Full Connexion with the Yearly Conference whilst continuing to be employed under an Affiliated Conference must be held to be absolutely subject to the Affiliated Conference in all matters connected with the work and within the limits of that Conference; but the question of their continued connexion with the Yearly Conference can be determined only by the vote of the Yearly Conference.

(2) Any British Minister who has elected to enter into Full Connexion with an Affiliated Conference, or who may hereafter so enter, must be regarded as having thereby resigned his connexion with the Yearly Conference; and the fact of such resignation shall be entered on the Journal of the Yearly Conference.

(3) Ministers who were not sent out from England, but were taken into the Ministry in the Districts now belonging to Affiliated Conferences, and also Native Ministers, were intended to be absolutely subject to the jurisdiction of their respective Affiliated Conferences. The Conference declares that they are so subject to the Affiliated Conferences, and that they have ceased to be in connexion with the Yearly Conference; and directs that complete lists of those Ministers shall be entered on the Journal of the Yearly Conference. (Minutes, 1891, p. 231.)

85. Obituaries of Ministers of Affiliated Conferences.—On the decease of any Minister of an Affiliated Conference who had a right of return to this country, an obituary shall be inserted in the Minutes of the Yearly Conference. (Minutes, 1890, p. 211.)

86. Native Ministers and the Yearly Conference.—For the Resolutions of the Conference on this subject, see pp. 217–220.

87. Weekly Meetings of Ministers.—Ministers who labour together in the same Circuit shall meet together once a week, or as often as it is practicable, in order to converse freely with each other respecting the affairs of their Circuits. (Minutes, vol. ii. [1806], p. 348.)

88. Monthly Meetings of Ministers in Large Towns.—The Preachers of different Circuits, when resident in the same Town, shall meet at least once in every month for the purposes of mutual conference and prayer, in order to promote brotherly love, and to afford frequent and regular opportunities for friendly consultation on subjects of common concern in their respective Circuits. (Minutes, vol. vi. [1827], p. 281.)

89. Appointment of Ministers to Circuits in the same Town.—The Conference rescinds the following Rule of 1830:

"Where there are, in the same City or Town, two or more Circuits, no Preacher shall be so stationed in them as to remain in such Town or City for a period exceeding six years in succession." (Minutes, 1890, p. 305.)

90. Re-appointment of Ministers to Circuits.—The term during which a Minister must be absent from a Circuit in England or Wales, before he can be re-appointed, shall be three years. (Minutes, 1889, p. 304.) He may then return, provided that the invitation of the Circuit Quarterly Meeting is substantially unanimous. (Minutes, 1890, p. 207.)

In relation to Scotland, a similar resolution was adopted in 1866. (Minutes, vol. xvi. [1866], p. 589.)

91. Connexional Committees.—All Lists of Committees which are to be considered by the Nomination Committee shall, as far as possible, be printed in the Agenda for the Conference; the names of new members being printed in italics, and those of members nominated for re-appointment by a four-fifths majority being distinguished by an asterisk; care being taken to give the Christian name and address of each Layman. (Minutes, 1890, p. 292.)

92. New Members of Connexional Committees.—The Secretaries of Departments shall inform all new Members, Laymen and Ministers, of their appointment upon Connexional Committees. (Minutes, 1890, p. 292.)

93. London Mission.—The Number of Members at each Place in the Mission, with the amounts received as Ordinary Income, shall be printed, year by year, in the Agenda of the Conference. (Minutes, 1890, p. 262.)

94. Grants towards Removal Expenses.—If any Minister be appointed by the Conference to a Circuit, after an Invitation sent by that Circuit to the Minister, every expense incurred by his Removal, beyond what the Circuit he is leaving may provide, shall be borne by his new Circuit. (Minutes, 1878, pp. 221, 222.)

95. Sanitary Condition of Preachers' Houses.—(1) Circuit Stewards are recommended to have an inspection of every Preacher's house by an independent sanitary expert, at every change of Minister, and to hand a certificate of the good sanitary condition of the house to the incoming Minister.

(2) The District Synods shall enquire, at their September meetings, whether, in all cases of change of Ministers, the recommendation of the Conference, that a certificate of the good Sanitary condition of the Minister's houses should be handed to the incoming Ministers, has been carried out. (Minutes, 1893, p. 327; 1894, p. 323.)

96. Auxiliary Fund.—Whilst anxious to secure separate and accurate returns of the amounts raised in the Classes, the Conference urges upon the Circuits the necessity of the average of Sixpence per Member being made up in each Circuit; and sanctions this being done in such a way as may be approved in the respective Circuits—provided that the Public Collections, usually made in July, be separately returned. (Minutes, 1890, pp. 265, 266.)

97. Weekly Offertory System.—(1) The Conference recommends that in every Chapel in which the Offertory System has been introduced, as well as in all other chapels, the Connexional Collections be made on Sundays set apart for the purpose, be duly announced beforehand, the objects and need of the Fund concerned distinctly stated, and an appeal made; and the whole sum so gathered strictly devoted to the stated purpose.

(2) The Conference recommends that where the aggregate results of the Weekly Offertory System show an increase of Circuit income (derived from the same sources) over that of years antecedent to the introduction of the System, the Connexional Funds, whether they have suffered or not, shall equitably share in such increased income; and that this object shall be secured by Offertories specially appropriated for this purpose, or otherwise.

(3) The Conference expresses its strong objection to the practice of allotting to the Connexional Funds any average sum; i.e. a proportion of the yearly receipts from the Offertory, calculated upon the average Collections for a given Fund during a number of years preceding the introduction of the Offertory—in lieu of making Collections for each Fund according to rule. Such a practice is unfair to the several Funds, which are thus precluded from sharing in the general life and progress of the Circuit, and is further liable to the fatal objection that it shuts out all opportunity of bringing the various Funds and their claims before our Congregations.

(4) The Conference is of opinion that the Offertory System should not be adopted in any Chapel without the consent of the Circuit Quarterly Meeting. (Minutes, 1889, pp. 286, 287.)

98. Financial Statement at June Quarterly Meeting.—The Circuit Quarterly Meeting affords a most valuable opportunity for bringing the Connexional principle before the leading officials of our Circuit; and the Conference recommends that at each June Quarterly Meeting this should be done, and a Report made of the Circuit Contributions to each Connexional Fund during the year. (Minutes, 1889, p. 288.)

For list of Connexional Funds, see pp. 372–375.

99. Returns of Membership and Leaders' Meetings.—The numbers for each Society shall, when practicable, be read in the Leaders' Meeting immediately before each quarter day. (Minutes, 1893, p. 228.)

100. Orthodoxy of Office Bearers.—No person shall, on any account, be permitted to retain any official situation in our Societies who holds opinions contrary to the total depravity of human nature, the divinity and atonement of Christ, the influence and witness of the Holy Spirit, and Christian holiness, as believed by the Methodists. (Minutes, vol. ii. [1807], p. 405.)

101. Memorials from Circuit Quarterly Meetings to Conference. —(1) Should a majority of the June Quarterly Meeting, in any Circuit, be of opinion that it is desirable to address to the Conference a Memorial on any Connexional subject, and agree to do so, that Meeting itself, subject to the regulations which follow, shall have authority to adopt and transmit to the Conference such a Memorial. And at such Meeting any Member thereof may propose, for consideration, the propriety of addressing a Memorial to the Conference. (Minutes, vol. xii. [1852], p. 111.)

(2) Any Member of the Quarterly Meeting intending to propose a Resolution, and bring the same before the June Quarterly Meeting as the basis of a Memorial to the Conference, shall give notice, with a copy in writing, of the particular Motion or Resolution which he intends to propose either at the March Quarterly Meeting or to the Superintendent Minister not less than seven days preceding the date of the June Quarterly Meeting; and no proposal of which such notice has not been given shall be brought forward that year. But should the Quarterly Meeting adopt the substance or principle of a Resolution so brought forward, it may amend, as well as simply adopt or reject it. (Minutes, vol. xii. [1852], p. 112.)

(3) A Memorial, founded on such Motion or Resolution, if approved by a majority of the persons present, shall be signed by the Chairman of the Meeting; and he shall add a footnote, stating the number of persons present, and also the number voting for and against the Memorial. (Minutes, 1891, pp. 331, 362.)

(4) The Conference directs that Memorials from Circuit Quarterly Meetings be forwarded by the Superintendents of Circuits to the Convener of the Committee on Memorials and Suggestions, the Rev. John S. SIMON, Trinity House, Hurle Road, Clifton, Bristol, not later than ten days before the opening of the Conference. (Minutes, 1889, p. 285.)

The Conference will, as heretofore, receive Memorials up to and including the second day of its session. (Minutes, vol. xii. [1852], p. 112.)

(5) All Memorials thus received by the Conference shall be referred to a Committee of its Members, who shall carefully examine, consider, and classify the whole, and present their report thereon to the Conference. (Minutes, vol. xii. [1852], p. 112.)

(6) The Quarterly Meeting has complete freedom to memorialise the Conference. It is not competent for the Chairman of a June Quarterly Meeting to rule any Memorial out of order. The Conference reserves to itself alone the right to determine whether a Memorial contains a proposal of a revolutionary character, or subversive of the doctrine or discipline of Wesleyan Methodism. (Minutes, vol. xii. [1852], p. 112.)

(7) The Conference cannot sanction such Memorials as involve a direct interference on the part of one Circuit with the local affairs or proceedings of any other Circuit. (Minutes, vol. xii. [1852], p. 112.)

(8) No Memorial can be received from the Quarterly Meeting of a Circuit except in manuscript. (Minutes, vol. xix. [1874], p. 454.)

(9) The consideration and determination of all questions raised by Memorials from Circuit Quarterly Meetings shall come within the province of the Conference when exclusively Ministerial, or when the Lay Representatives shall be present, according to the subject-matter thereof, respectively. In all cases in which there may be any doubt as to the province to which a matter belongs, the President shall decide. (Minutes, vol. xx. [1887], p. 424.)

SPECIAL AND ANNUAL ADDRESSES.

THE

OF THE

CONFERENCE TO THE METHODIST SOCIETIES.

DEAR BRETHREN,—

We gladly avail ourselves of another opportunity to send you pastoral greetings and counsels from our Annual Conference. Among the many duties to which we are called by the business before us none is more welcome than this, enabling us, as it does, to express our sympathy with you in all the toils and trials of your daily life, and our desire that you may enjoy the highest kind of prosperity. We "watch for your souls, as they that must give account." We always realise the sacredness of the relation in which we stand to you, but the thought of it comes home to us at this time with peculiar force. We rejoice to know that you seek the divine blessing on our deliberations, and we meet you in spirit at the throne of grace, praying that you may be partakers of all the blessings of the new covenant, "that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all judgment; that ye may approve things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere and without offence till the day of Christ; being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God."

The sessions of the Conference this year have had special interest, because we have met for the first time in the ancient town of Plymouth, a place closely associated with memorable incidents in our national history. For us there is an additional charm in the recollection that John Wesley paid frequent visits to this locality. The fruit of the good work begun by him abides to this day, and we rejoice greatly in the energy and zeal of the Methodism of the neighbourhood. The public services in connexion with the Conference have been attended by large numbers, who met together in the spirit of expectation and prayer, and the blessing of the divine Master has rested upon all the assemblies. He has graciously guided our deliberations, giving us harmony amid many diversities of opinion, and uniting us in one common aim and desire for the highest welfare of the Churches committed to our care. The conversations on the state of the work of God among us, and the session of the Conference devoted to Foreign Missions, were seasons of remarkable inspiration and blessing.

We rejoice to know that the prosperity of Methodism during the past year has not been confined to one neighbourhood, but has been shared by the Connexion generally. The net increase in Church membership is four thousand three hundred and seventy-two, the net increase in Junior Society Classes, two thousand and seventy-one; while forty-six thousand and forty-six new members have been received into our Societies, and there are thirty thousand and fifty persons on trial for membership. This result of faithful toil is the more gratifying when we remember the tremendous forces of evil that are arrayed against us, and the special hindrances to successful work owing to the depressed state of trade in many parts of the country, the unusual severity of the winter, and the prevalence of illness. You have known much of the weary work of seed-time; but you have been called also to know "the joy in harvest, as men rejoice when they divide the spoil." At the same time, we need hardly remind you that success in spiritual service cannot be measured by statistics nor tabulated in reports. The real power of the Church is moral and spiritual; it can neither be guaranteed nor gauged merely by numbers. We devoutly thank God that the influence of Methodism as a spiritual force in the country is greater than ever; and with hearts filled with gratitude and hope we counsel you to hold fast the privileges and responsibilities of your high calling.

We are glad to know that the other evangelical Churches of the land have to rejoice in similar prosperity. They also are on the alert against the crying evils of the day. And we are "all one in Christ Jesus." Catholicity has always been one of the notes of our Church, and we are determined to maintain our friendly attitude towards "all them that love our Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity." Fraternal deputations and greetings have come to be among the most gratifying features of modern Conferences. We thus "consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works"; and in the vigour and success of all our brethren in other communions we "do rejoice, yea, and will rejoice." At the same time, the need for our own special form of testimony and our own peculiar Church organisation is as great as ever. Our testimony may be less controversial than it once was, but it need not be less pronounced. We must maintain the purity of our doctrine and the individuality of our Church life.

Methodism is essentially and emphatically a spiritual force; and, if efficiency and success are to be insured in the future, all its members must diligently cultivate spiritual life. Under the divine blessing everything depends on this. We charge you therefore to make it your first care and concern for yourselves, as it is our first care and concern for you. Let nothing be permitted to interfere with it; let no effort be spared in the endeavour to obtain it. Resolve to live on high levels of spirituality. Many claims will assert themselves—the claims of business, of public affairs, and, above all, of family life; but the claim of Christ is paramount. "Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and His righteousness."

In order to maintain a high-toned spiritual life, we counsel you to "give attendance to reading," always putting in the forefront the word of God. Believe in the direct communication of the Holy Spirit to the human spirit, and be not content unless you hear the message from heaven to your own soul. Listen with devout diligence to the teachings of the Holy Spirit.

> Search the written word,
> Till His very voice is heard.

Do not be satisfied merely with reading books about the Bible, though you may well appreciate the many helps to Bible study provided in these days; but above all familiarise yourselves with the Bible itself. Remember it is possible to know much concerning truth, without really knowing Him who is "the Way, the Truth, and the Life." We cannot too frequently and urgently insist on this duty of searching the Scriptures. They who would be strong must be strengthened by bread from heaven. We exhort you to commune with truth, that you may speak and live with power. Amid the current theories and tastes of the day, do not allow yourselves to be drawn away from communion with God in His word. There will be no need to fear for the future of the Churches if all their members —and especially the younger members—are conversant with the Holy Scriptures, which are able to make men "wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus."

Let your reading generally be of such a kind as will feed the devotional life. The stimulating works written by "the great old saints of other days" belong to us in common with all Christians. As a Church, we are rich in literature of this order. Our Hymn-Book may profitably be used in private as well as in public worship; and we have recently added considerably to the books of devotion which help and inspire all who are endeavouring to cultivate higher life. Many perils beset those who love reading; fortify yourselves and your children against these perils by having ever at hand such books of devotion.

Take care that your reading is accompanied by meditation. Give yourselves to heart-searching,—humble, yet not morbid, —in the light of divine truth. Let that light constantly play upon your inmost hearts. Commune with your own spirits diligently. Remember how easily you may be led away from the highest pursuits. Be on your guard against the subtle materialism of the day, and against the restless spirit of the age. The conditions of modern life, with its pressure and competition, place you in constant danger in this direction, and there are possible perils even in the activities of Church life. It is easy to dissipate energy and to fritter away power. Resolutely guard against these evils. Let not the world be too much with you. You must move among the multitude; see to it that you also visit the mount, and there endeavour to realise the unseen. Lessen the force of temptation, escape from the dominion of the present life, by bringing yourselves constantly under the influence of "the powers of the world to come."

Such habits as these will compel you to commune with God in the sacred exercises of private prayer. You cannot know "the mind of the Lord" without enquiring for it. There are given to us "exceeding great and precious promises"; but for the fulfilment of them our heavenly Father will be "enquired of by the house of Israel." Guard, then, the holy fire of devotion. Let it ever be burning on the altar of your heart. Our fathers were men mighty in prayer; they lived in the immediate presence of God; they dwelt in "the secret place of the Most High." Be true to these traditions of our history. "Tarry until ye be endued with power from on high." "It is good that a man should both hope and quietly wait for the salvation of the Lord."

In addition to this close communion with God in private, we exhort you to embrace all opportunities of public worship, both on the Lord's day and during the week. Cherish and exhibit the spirit of reverence which has been in some sense impaired, if not forgotten, in certain forms of modern religious life. Be familiar with sacred things; but be on your guard against treating them with familiarity. Draw near to the holy mountain daily; but "be not rash with thy mouth, and let not thine heart be hasty to utter anything before God: for God is in heaven, and thou upon earth: therefore let thy words be few."

We have had occasion during the Conference to consider a special report on the Sunday afternoon meetings which are a conspicuous feature in Church life to-day. When conducted as Bible-classes, they afford a fruitful field for service, in which much may be done for the spiritual benefit of the people, especially for thoughtful and intelligent young men; but, as popular services, they are not without dangers, against which we bid you be on your guard. It is possible to attempt to brighten the hours of the day of rest at the expense of its sacredness. Let your zeal in these things be tempered with discretion. Suffer nothing to interfere with the sanctity of the Lord's day; and remember there can be no real substitute for the great message of reconciliation with God through Christ. We rejoice to know there is a strong desire to hear the word of God, and that large numbers of young people attend the services of our sanctuaries; but we exhort you not to be content with the mere desire to hear preaching. Come to the house of the Lord with hearts prepared for the incorruptible seed of the kingdom. Resolve to receive the word "with all readiness of mind," and to allow it to exert its mighty influence on life and conduct.

Do not neglect the table of the Lord. Prepare yourselves for approach to it by strict self-examination. Use all opportunities of communion with your Lord in this memorial of His sacrifice. Do so intelligently, realising the full meaning of the act, and consecrate yourselves to Him as part of His sacramental host. "For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do show the Lord's death till He come."

Week-day services are frequently interfered with by the many claims of this busy age. But we counsel you not to forsake the assembling of yourselves together during the week. Do not attempt to attend too many meetings, but make the best possible use of a few. Especially we exhort you to continue faithful to the means of grace which we may speak of as peculiarly our own. Draw more closely than ever the bonds of Christian fellowship. For the sake of your influence upon others, as well as for your own advancement in spiritual life, diligently attend the class-meeting. Look out for new converts and hesitating disciples, that you may lead them into the fellowship of God's people. Maintain the Connexional principle, which is in harmony with the spirit of Christianity. "Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ." Resolutely resist the inroads of party spirit and strife. Guard the sacredness of spiritual relationship. Ever manifest considerateness and true Christian courtesy. Respect the reputation of others. Endeavour "to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace." You will thus "adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things," making your religion attractive as well as aggressive, and winning souls to Him. In all these things keep in sympathy with the divine Master, making His praise your "highest aim," His smile your "chief delight."

The Foreign Missionary organisation has always been one of the chief glories of Methodism. Of late years, largely owing to the embarrassment caused by our successes abroad and the depressed condition of trade at home, the funds of our Missionary Society have been lower than usual, and a large debt has accumulated. At our Annual Conference last year the subject was carefully considered, and we resolved to appoint a day of special intercession for the divine blessing on our foreign missions. That happy inspiration was acted on with most encouraging results. The day was observed in our home circuits, and on all our mission stations. Prayer on the subject of the spread of Christ's kingdom over the whole earth was simultaneously offered in all parts of the world, and in many different languages. The result has been a large increase of members on the foreign field and a revived interest in this work at home. We have resolved to hold a second day of intercession this year, and to raise a special fund in order to remove the existing debt, and to place our Missionary Society in a strong financial position, so that debt may not recur, or, if it should recur, may be at once met. The hand of God is in this work, and the heart of Methodism will be true to it. The session of the Conference when this effort was inaugurated will never be forgotten by those who had the privilege of being present. It was a time of unusual blessing, leading to a manifestation of liberality and self-sacrifice according to the fashion of early Methodism. We appeal to you to further this great effort by your prayers and gifts. "Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, and prove Me now herewith, saith the Lord of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it."

All this can be done without neglecting the claims of our own land. There is much work to be done at home. The true Christian is the true patriot. Those who "desire a better country" will be the first to seek the welfare of the country wherein their lot is now cast. You are called "to serve the present age." See that you do not miss the opportunities of doing good. Take your proper share in public affairs without invading your devotional life.

The Temperance cause has made remarkable advances during the last few years. Great social changes have been thereby effected, and in this we unfeignedly rejoice. But we long to see still greater progress. This cause appears now to have reached a crisis in its history; and we have expressed our opinion in very strong terms that "the time has come when all parties in the State and all sections of the Church should combine to promote new legislation on the subject," and our hope that "this question, which so nearly concerns the well-being and credit of the nation at large, may be promptly dealt with apart from political partisanship and sectarian bias." We call upon you to join in this holy crusade against one of the easily besetting sins of our land, and in the effort to roll away the reproach that has so long rested upon us as a people, and that has been one of the greatest hindrances to spiritual work both at home and abroad. Pray that our legislators may have wisdom to deal rightly with this gigantic evil; but do not trust to mere legislation. Cultivate a high moral tone on the subject. Train the young in harmony with the principles of Temperance; and, above all, remember that the only power which can really uplift men from their sins is the power of the cross. Social work must be spiritual work, leading men to Christ. Take your part in the great struggle that is going on in order to free our country from the curse of intemperance; and in this, as in all service, hear the Master's voice directing you, and trust to His mighty hand to bless your work.

Our loving interest in young people—the hope of the Church—leads us to rejoice that so many of them are under our care in sanctuaries and schools. There are nearly a million scholars in our Sunday schools, and in our day schools one hundred and sixty-eight thousand and ten. We have resolved still to take our share as a Church in the great work of national education, abiding by the same principles that have guided us hitherto. In order to help the youth of Methodism, we are considering the establishment of a Young People's Guild. This new form of organisation should not interfere with existing institutions, but it will give our young people associations and opportunities of usefulness that will be to them a lifelong benefit.

We charge you to remember, however, that no guild can take the place of the home. Parental influence is paramount; there is none like it. You cannot have too exalted an idea of family life as a power in forming and guarding character. See to it that you make a right use of this mighty influence. Seek for the young people in your homes the highest blessings. In the choice of schools, in the provision of companionships, in the regulation of recreation, surround them with all needful safeguards. Resolve that, so far as it lies in your power, the greatest influence in their lives shall be spiritual influence. Seek nothing less than their salvation. They belong to Christ. You dedicated them to Him in baptism. Claim them for Him in their earliest years, and "bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord."

We counsel you thus to hand on to the generation following the heritage of blessing which you received from those who went before you; and we do this the more earnestly when we remember that the opportunities of service are swiftly passing away. Whenever we assemble in our Annual Conference the shadow falls upon us because failing powers compel some of those who have been our faithful co-workers to leave the ranks of active service, while others are called to the nobler service above. During the past year Methodism has lost not only some of its prominent ministers, but several of its most energetic and devoted laymen, while from the ranks of membership no fewer than five thousand two hundred and ninety-eight have been summoned to the Master's presence. We are saddened, and yet stimulated, by these facts. The workmen are buried, but the work survives. We make our annual contribution to the "general assembly and Church of the firstborn" with holy gratitude and joy. As the conquerors are taken one by one to their reward, let the memory of their valour and of their victories inspire you to emulate them, so that with them you may share at last the Master's triumph. "Therefore, beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord." "And we have confidence in the Lord touching you, that ye both do and will do the things which we command. And the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into the patience of Christ."

"Now unto Him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of His glory with exceeding joy, to the only wise God our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and for ever. Amen."

THE ANNUAL ADDRESS

OF THE

IRISH CONFERENCE OF 1895

TO THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1895.

DEAR FATHERS AND BRETHREN,—

Once again the Irish Conference sends you its cordial greeting, praying that abundant grace may be given to you, and peace from God our Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

We have received with respect and affection your representatives, and have heard with deep interest of the progress of the work of God amongst you. The four Ministers had visited us previously, and we were pleased to see and hear them once more. We were specially thankful that the Rev. Walford Green, your President and ours, was able to be with us and take his place at our head. Your Lay Representative, Mr. Moses Atkinson, had been known to us by name for some years, and the opportunity of making his acquaintance and hearing his stirring words has been most welcome.

We are glad to be able to report an increase in our membership. The number (224) must seem small to you—it seems small to us; but when we compare the records of the past ten years there is sure evidence of steady advance and widening boundaries. We have about 1,500 more members to-day than we reckoned in 1885, though in that interval we lost upwards of 4,000 members by emigration. In other words, we have gained 6 per cent in the ten years, notwithstanding our loss of 17 per cent by emigration alone. This increase has not been won without earnest effort, for the difficulties we have to overcome are formidable and embarrassing. Many of our brethren labour amidst great discouragement and perplexity, the hearers are few, the distances to be travelled are great, the finances are often straitened, and the sphere of service is sometimes narrowed by the antagonism of creed and party. But we are sustained by the matchless loyalty and splendid generosity of our people, whose giving, in proportion to their means and their numbers, often amazes us; we have a bond of brotherly affection which is notable everywhere in Methodism, but especially here; and we have faith in the future of our country and our Church, for even in the most critical and anxious moments in our history the presence of our Master has been with us, and He has given us rest.

A rising tide of sacerdotalism has of late been threatening the Protestantism of this island, and we are convinced that this imposes a fresh responsibility upon us for the evangelisation of our native land. The outstanding doctrines of Methodism are the most effective antidote to all attempts to materialise the religion of the New Testament. The immediate access of the soul to God, the happy knowledge of sin forgiven, the sanctifying presence of the Holy Spirit in the believer's life, the atoning virtue of the blood of Christ availing to the uttermost of man's need—testimony to these great facts constantly and fully borne by thousands of Irish Methodists will protect the vital truths of Christianity, and check the insidious advances of Ritualism and ecclesiasticism.

We have observed with interest the movement amongst you for the modification of the itinerancy. Some years ago we affirmed the principle that it is desirable to leave to the discretion of the Conference the limit of years which a minister may remain in a Circuit; for though we are not prepared for any general alteration of the old itinerant system which has worked so well, we can see that in special cases the rule may be relaxed with advantage. We desire to co-operate with you in any measures which you may adopt to attain this freedom.

Last year has been one of sad loss to us by reason of death. Five of our Ministers have been called to their rest and their reward. Two of these, in comparative youth, died on the same day in the same city, and their graves are beside each other in the same cemetery. We specially miss and mourn the Rev. Dr. M'Cutcheon, President of the Belfast College, the value of whose wise and ungrudgingly devoted service to our Conference could scarcely be overstated. He was well known to you, and to know him was to esteem and admire him. The College, the Conference, our entire Church have been bereaved, and we feel it all the more keenly as we had anticipated that for years to come his useful life and valuable service would have been spared to us.

We have selected as his successor the Rev. Dr. Nicholas, a choice which has been both unanimous and cordial.

As we think of our losses we cannot forget yours. Two specially claim our mention. Dr. Frederic Greeves was much beloved in Ireland, and we were greatly touched by the rapid succession of calls by which the three brothers were summoned from your midst. Mr. Henry B. Harrison, who visited our last Conference, impressed us deeply by his beautiful devoutness of spirit, his earnest zeal, his charming brotherliness. We sympathise with you in the loss of such a faithful and valuable man.

We send as our representative the Rev. Wallace M'Mullen, D.D., whom we nominate as Irish member of the delegation, the Rev. Robert Boyd, M.A., the Rev. Pierce Martin, and Mr. Robert Clarke, J.P., who will further inform you of our affairs.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

THE ANSWER

OF THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1895

TO THE

ADDRESS OF THE IRISH CONFERENCE OF 1895.

REVEREND AND DEAR BRETHREN,—

We have received with sincere pleasure your cordial greetings, and rejoice in the opportunity once more afforded us of assuring you of our continued and affectionate regard. "We thank God always on your behalf, for the grace of God which is given you by Jesus Christ; that in everything ye are enriched by Him, in all utterance, and in all knowledge."

We have welcomed most heartily the honoured brethren whom you have appointed to visit us. Dr. Wallace M'Mullen has for many years been a familiar figure in our Conference. His long experience, gathered during a ministry of more than half a century, his intimate knowledge of your beloved country, with its great and complex needs, and his unique acquaintance with Irish Methodism, insure for him a respectful hearing whenever he speaks to us upon the vital and varied interests of the work of God among you. We were profoundly interested in the lucid and encouraging account he gave us of your difficulties and triumphs. Let us assure you, dear brethren, that when you joy before God with the joy of harvest, your songs fill our hearts with gladness and gratitude to God. We had pleasure also in welcoming the Rev. Robert Boyd, M.A., the Rev. Pierce Martin, and Mr. Robert Clarke, J.P.

We give thanks to the great Head of the Church, who has so sustained you and prospered you in your labours that you are enabled to report no inconsiderable increase of members to your Church. This is the more gratifying that it follows upon a steady increase during the last ten years. The increase of 1,500 members in that period, notwithstanding the enormous proportionate losses by emigration, is to us, as to you, a source of unfeigned satisfaction and gratitude; and is also eloquently indicative of the earnest and sustained work which has been carried on in the face of great discouragement and difficulty. Moreover, we would remind you that the members of your Church who have left you to find homes in other and distant lands are not lost to the Church of Jesus Christ. We have heard not infrequently of such members doing noble work across the seas. The influence of your holy and devoted labours has gone out to the ends of the earth.

We deeply sympathise with you in the peculiar and embarrassing difficulties under which much of your work is conducted. We are not unaware of, nor are we indifferent to, those sources of anxiety which have called for the exercise of the truest patience, the calmest judgment, and the most abiding faith in God. You have been sustained and guided in the past. In all the possibilities of the future the same help is abundantly available.

We deplore with you the growth of the sacerdotal spirit in your land and in ours, and we recognise the urgent necessity for continued and increased activity in proclaiming the New Testament doctrine of the soul's freedom of access to God without the intervention of any human mediator.

We devoutly give thanks to the Most High for the distinct testimony Irish Methodists have ever borne to the vital truths of evangelical Christianity.

Last year it was our pleasure to congratulate you on the fact that your ranks had not been thinned by death. This year we desire to express to you our deepest sympathy on the loss you have sustained in the departure of five of your Ministers to the rest and peace of the Father's home. We note the singularly pathetic circumstance mentioned in your address that two of your younger Ministers had died on the same day, in the same city. May He whose ways are "past finding out," but who "doeth all things well," grant to you a bright succession of consecrated workers!

The Rev. Dr. Oliver M'Cutcheon, whom you "specially miss and mourn," was well known to us. We esteemed him as a "beloved brother and faithful minister of the Lord." His calm, clear judgment, his statesmanlike grasp of all that touched the interests of the Church, his unswerving loyalty and devotion to the great Master, enabled him to render unique and invaluable service in every department of Irish Methodism. In selecting the Rev. Dr. Nicholas as his successor in the important office of President of the Belfast College, you have undoubtedly been guided by Him who calls His workers home when their task is done, but who never fails to make provision for the carrying on of His work.

You will be gratified to hear that we report an increase in Church Members of 4,372 in the year. The throbbing of a more vigorous spiritual life is felt among us, and our people on every hand are crying out for that baptism of the Holy Ghost without which we can never secure the larger success for which we look and long.

Our Conference this year is being held for the first time in the historic town of Plymouth, with its memories of the heroic struggles of our fathers against Popish ascendency and prelatical intolerance. From the commencement our sessions have been marked by the felt presence of the Lord our King. Questions of more than usual interest have been before us. The extension of the term of Ministerial residence, the relation of the youth of Methodism to the Church, and other questions, have received the consideration which their importance demanded.

Our beloved President, in his opening address to the Conference, suggested as a motto for the year, "The Youth of Methodism for Christ." It is in the spirit of that suggestion that we wish to deal with this subject, so vital to the interest of the Church in our land and yours.

Our honoured President, the Rev. David J. Waller, D.D., in his visit to your next Conference, will be accompanied by the Ex-President, the Rev. Walford Green, the Rev. Marshall Randles, D.D., the Rev. Albert Clayton, and Mr. John Cooper of Manchester. We have the utmost confidence that these distinguished brethren will receive from you your usual hearty welcome. We trust that their visit to you may be a great blessing, and that their counsels in your Conference, and their ministrations in your pulpits, may greatly serve the interests of the Church of Jesus Christ.

And now, brethren, we commend you and your work to the care of Him "whose we are, and whom we serve," and we pray that "your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all judgment; that ye may approve things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere and without offence till the day of Christ; being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God."

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

THE ADDRESS

OF THE

CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST CHURCH OF FRANCE AND SWITZERLAND, 1895,

TO THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1895.

DEAR AND HONOURED FATHERS AND BRETHREN,—

It is with real pleasure that the French Methodist Conference, assembled in Paris, presents to you its affectionate greetings. Your address, so full of sympathy, of encouragement, and of hope for the future of our work, has been gratefully received. And the presence among us of the representative of the Missionary Committee, the Rev. Frederic W. Macdonald, has been welcomed with the joy which springs up in the heart at the sight of the face of a friend.

Not one of us has forgotten that, since our last Conference, the Rev. William Gibson, B.A., has been called by the Master to enter into the rest and joy prepared for the servant who is found faithful. His piety, his zeal in the work of God, his love for France, his spirit of devotedness and sacrifice, his amiability and his generosity, have left precious remembrances in our hearts. And we earnestly ask of God that the spirit of power, of wisdom, and of love may be abundantly poured out upon Mr. Gibson's successor—our well-known and well-beloved brother, the Rev. George Whelpton, M.A.

We recognise this year that we have many reasons for devout gratitude to God. No death has taken place in our ministerial ranks. Our general financial position does not seem to be discouraging. No thorny question has troubled our minds in the course of the year, or introduced an element of perturbation and discord into the deliberations of our Conference. The Lord continues to raise up a succession of pious and earnest young men to be formed by study and by labour for the holy, lofty, and solemn duties of the Christian ministry. Three new chapels have been built and opened for divine worship in the course of the year—two in villages where we have long had services, the third in an important suburb of Paris, Levallois Perret, where our honoured and venerable father, the Rev. James Hocart, pursues, notwithstanding his advanced age, his earnest and fruitful ministry.

Our membership does not increase as rapidly as our hearts could wish; but if we count the number of those who have died in the Lord in the course of the year, we find safely gathered into another fold those whom we miss. We ask of God that we may be filled with a holy passion for saving the souls who are sleeping and dying in their sins, and that we may lead them into the way of life everlasting.

Our missionaries among the Kabyles, in Algeria, pursue their labours with remarkable courage in the midst of great difficulties. The evangelisation of a Mahometan race is a most arduous task. Influential men in the province seem unable to understand that our work has no political end in view, and that the effect upon the native race can only favour its development and its prosperity, and render the task of its rulers more easy.

Our choice for the coming year has fallen upon the Rev. Matthieu Lelièvre, D.D. We cordially recommend our brother, already so widely and so favourably known among you, to be appointed as President of the French Conference for the ensuing year.

We have also designated our beloved brother, the Rev. Onésime Prunier, B.A., B.D., to represent us in the sittings of your Conference, and we do not doubt that you will find in him qualities which will give him a high place in your esteem and in your affection.

May the divine Head of the Church, by the continual communication of His Holy Spirit, keep you in perfect communion with Himself, so that all your works may be begun, continued, and brought to perfection in Him.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

O. PRUNIER, Secretary.

OF THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1895

TO THE

ADDRESS OF THE CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST CHURCH IN FRANCE AND SWITZERLAND, 1895.

BELOVED AND HONOURED BRETHREN,—

We have received with much gratification your loving greeting. The Rev. Onésime Prunier, B.A., B.D., was warmly welcomed among us, both for your sake and for his own. His address made a deep impression on the Conference, and his inspiring words will long linger in the memory of those who were privileged to hear them.

We are glad to know that the recent visit of the Rev. Frederic W. Macdonald was not regarded as one of mere official inspection. Be assured that the sympathy which he manifested with you in your work reflected the deep regard which we all feel.

We share with you the deep sense of loss which has been occasioned by the death of the Rev. William Gibson, B.A. He lived to promote the interests of French Methodism, and freely spent his energies in its service. We join with you in praying that "the spirit of power and of love, and of a sound mind" may be given to his successor, the Rev. George Whelpton, M.A., and that in all the new developments of his work he may have the divine guidance and blessing.

We joyfully accede to your request that the Rev. Matthieu Lelièvre, D.D., be appointed President of the French Conference for the ensuing year, and are glad that your choice has fallen upon one so widely honoured, and so altogether worthy.

We are thankful that you have peace in all your borders, and that you are not troubled either by perplexing questions or financial difficulty. It is satisfactory to us that your effort to train men for the solemn work of the Christian ministry continues to succeed, and we rejoice greatly in the news of extension which you are able to report.

We regard your Missionary enterprise in Algeria as a bold, brave attempt to establish the kingdom of Christ in a most hostile region. Be not discouraged, dear brethren, because your aims are misunderstood, and because those in authority are disposed to attach political significance to the mission of the herald of salvation. You remember that St. Paul was once mistaken for one who had made an uproar and led out men who were murderers. The King whose cause you seek to extend will yet make the wrath of man to praise Him.

You will be glad to know that our work, in its varied branches, continues to prosper. There is evidence that our people are taking a more intelligent and sympathetic interest in the great cause of Foreign Missions. They propose to grapple with the existing debt, and to provide means for further aggression. We are determined that this cause, which is our glory, shall be maintained in greater efficiency.

We are devising means by which we may draw into closer fellowship the young people of our schools and congregations. In the great work of seeking to recover the lapsed masses of the population we are meeting with increasing success.

We are not unmindful of the great difficulties in the midst of which you labour. Still less are we disposed to despise the day of small things. Surrounded by a paganised Christianity, you preach the truth as it is in Jesus; in the midst of abounding unbelief and spiritual indifference, you testify of a religion which is light and life. The truths which you proclaim, the forces which you wield, are destined to prevail. You are promoting the righteousness which alone exalteth a nation, and in proportion as you and those of like mind with you succeed will France rise in power and glory.

Our heart's desire and prayer to God is, that you may be enriched with all spiritual wisdom and grace.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary.

OF THE

SOUTH AFRICAN CONFERENCE OF 1895

TO THE

YEARLY CONFERENCE OF 1895.

HONOURED FATHERS AND BRETHREN,—

We again present to you our respectful salutations.

We report, with deep thankfulness, that the sessions of our Conference have been marked by manifestations of the divine presence, and by the graces of true fellowship and brotherly love.

The questions that have been before us have been such as to demand our most anxious and prayerful thought; but we believe that by the good hand of our God upon us we have been brought to conclusions that will prove of permanent benefit to our Church; and we enter upon another year, filled indeed with the consciousness of the gravity of our position in this land, but encouraged by the remembrance of the way by which the Lord our God hath led us.

Prominent amongst the difficult questions that have engaged our attention has been that of the rapid reduction of the Grant from the Wesleyan Missionary Society. This is a subject that fills us with the gravest apprehensions in respect to the future of our Native work. We feel that it is of the utmost necessity that the true state of affairs should be known to you and to the Churches in the motherland. Suffer us therefore to speak plainly.

The Missions of our Church in this country, in the progress of which both you and we rejoice, have laid upon us duties in regard to supervision and direction from which we cannot escape without disloyalty to the Lord Jesus and to Methodism.

Such supervision and direction will, for a long time to come, involve the employment of a considerable number of European Ministers, to make provision for whose maintenance, and at the same time adequately to support an efficient Native agency, in the face of the altogether unexpected reductions to which we have in recent years been subjected, passes the power of our Colonial and Native Churches to compass.

We are confronted by this dilemma, either we must abandon fruitful fields of harvest, which our fathers sowed in toils and prayers and tears, or we must content ourselves with doing the work in a superficial and fragmentary fashion.

We cannot think, that when the facts are known and appreciated by our Churches in England, you will force us into either of these alternatives.

We have therefore resolved upon asking that the whole subject may be again considered, and in order that this may be done efficiently, we respectfully suggest that a deputation from the Missionary Society should visit this country, and study upon the spot the problems that baffle us.

We would earnestly remind you, in connexion with this matter, of the great and increasing number of English people who are continually flocking to our shores. If this were our only ground of appeal to the "people called Methodists," to maintain their Missions in this country, it would be a very powerful one; and hence we entreat you in the name of your own sons and daughters, exposed to the dangers peculiar to this land, not to let our work be crippled and destroyed.

We rejoice to testify, that, within the present sphere of our operations, our efforts are still crowned with success, even to embarrassment. We report an increase of fully accredited members of the Church, of 2,441; or, if we include members on trial and members of Junior Society classes, the increase is 4,145. There is moreover promise of yet greater things.

The past year has dealt kindly with us, in that, with one exception, our brethren have all been spared to us.

Brother David Mosifane, a Serolong Minister, of earnest, simple piety, has been taken from us, and the brethren who knew him best have borne their testimony to his blameless life and useful ministry.

It has been with unfeigned satisfaction that we have received into full connexion with the Conference nine European Ministers and one Native.

For godly men of our own race who are led to consecrate their gifts and graces to this holy work we devoutly praise God. We are, however, painfully conscious how insufficient is the supply of Native candidates; and it is our earnest prayer that large numbers of suitable men may be speedily raised up to serve the Church as Ministers and Evangelists.

We are glad to observe and to inform you of the continued success of the schools established for higher education in this city and elsewhere; and we feel sure that you, with us, will recognise the great service rendered by our people in their establishment.

Your appointment of the Rev. Ezra Nuttall to be our President has given us much satisfaction.

Mr. Nuttall's distinguished service in past years has been greatly added to by his able and impartial conduct in the chair, and we confidently predict for him a prosperous and blessed year of office.

For the coming year we have nominated the Rev. Philip Tearle, our Secretary. Mr. Tearle has laboured in some of our most important Colonial Circuits; he has filled, with fidelity and ability, various posts of honour and difficulty in Conference and Synod; and, above all, he enjoys in full the love of his brethren. We have nothing but the most perfect confidence in nominating him our President, and in requesting you to appoint him.

As our representative to the Yearly Conference of 1895, we have appointed the Rev. William J. Hacker, who has rendered valued service in Mission work for several years, and who will be able to inform you further upon the condition and needs of that work.

We again assure you of our loyal and affectionate regard, and commend you in faith and hope to our Lord and yours.

PHILIP TEARLE, Secretary.

OF THE

YEARLY CONFERENCE OF 1895

TO THE

ADDRESS OF THE SOUTH AFRICAN CONFERENCE OF 1895.

REVEREND AND DEAR BRETHREN,—

We rejoice once again to greet you, and to learn from your Address to this Conference that there is much in your history during the past year to cheer both you and us.

We note with special pleasure the substantial increase in your membership during the year—a token this of the divine blessing resting upon your labours. We, too, are able to rejoice over an increase of more than four thousand persons who have been added to our Church.

The education of the sons and daughters of our people was never of more importance than at the present time. There are those who, inimical to us as a Church, desire nothing more earnestly than the control of Methodist children during school hours. It gives us great satisfaction to learn that you are keenly alive to the importance of higher education, and that your educational establishments are being earnestly maintained, and are proving an increasing source of strength to your Church.

We deeply sympathise with you in your financial embarrassments, arising for the most part from the success of your work amongst the Native races. We are pleased to know that you are taking steps to re-organise your Missionary Society. We have no doubt that the efficient working of your Missionary Society will do much to reduce your financial difficulties, and bring much blessing to your people.

You have a glorious past. From a small but heroic beginning your Missionary work has grown to its present noble proportions. We pray that you may continue faithful to the grand heritage of responsibility and opportunity which you have received. We earnestly pray that the great Head of the Church may guide you to a satisfactory solution of your great difficulties.

We rejoice that only one brother has been removed by death during the year. May the loss of David Mosifane be a call to many Native young men to devote themselves to the work of God amongst their own countrymen! The hope of African Missions is a devoted and efficient Native ministry, and we rejoice in all that you are doing in this direction.

The Conference unanimously confirms the nomination of the Rev. Philip Tearle to the chair of your Conference for the ensuing year. We have every confidence in your choice. Mr. Tearle's varied and proved abilities are known to us. We earnestly hope and expect that his term of office will, under God, be a season of great blessing and abundant success.

And now, dear brethren, we commend you to the great Shepherd of the sheep, who will give you all the grace, strength, and wisdom you need. We pray that the ensuing year may be one of great revival in all your Circuits.

THE ADDRESS

OF THE

GENERAL CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH, SOUTH, UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, 1894,

TO THE

DEAR FATHERS AND BRETHREN,—

On recommendation of the Committee on Fraternal Correspondence, the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, assembled in quadrennial session at Memphis, Tenn., in May, 1894, unanimously instructed the Book Editor to respond to your highly appreciated communication, dated "Wesleyan Methodist Conference, Cardiff, July 24, 1893," and signed "Henry J. Pope, President," and "D. J. Waller, Secretary"; and to extend to the venerable mother Conference of Methodism the respectful Christian salutations of one of her faithful and loving American children.

We rejoice with you as you enter upon the latter half of the second century of your organic Conference life; and unite our prayers to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ for your continued peace and increased prosperity. Cherishing with you like precious faith, and labouring with you for the world-wide extension of our common Methodism, we delight in your successes as our own, and strive to be your faithful companions in tribulation, and in the kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ. May God accomplish all the good pleasure of His will in you and through you, and extend and establish you in all your borders!

At the General Conference we greatly enjoyed fraternal intercourse with your beloved and honoured Ex-President, the Rev. Dr. T. Bowman Stephenson, and were edified by his sermon and address. Though not officially deputed to our body, Dr. Stephenson's visit was a blessing to us all. We shall ever remember your official messenger of 1890, the Rev. Dr. David J. Waller, and shall always gladly welcome any representative of yours who may appear among us. Our Bishop Galloway gave us hopeful and cheering news of your prosperity, the tokens of which were evident and manifold during his recent visit; and he has kindled our desire for a closer Christian fellowship and more intimate communion.

It will, perhaps, be not uninteresting to you to learn that, according to the General Minutes of our Church for 1894, closing in January last, the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, now numbers 1,387,832 members (of whom 4,758 are Indians); 5,868 travelling, and 6,724 local, preachers; making a total of 1,400,424 Ministers and members. The gain in the membership for last year was 53,092, with an increase of 381 travelling, and 211 local, preachers. These Ministers and members are organised into forty-seven Annual Conferences, presided over by ten General Superintendents. Our Conferences are in the United States, China, Japan, Mexico, and Brazil, and were represented in our last General Conference by 172 clerical, and an equal number of lay, delegates. We have 14,000 Sunday Schools, with 900,000 pupils and 100,000 teachers. We have Church edifices to the value of more than $21,000,000, and parsonages to the value of nearly $4,000,000. We contributed last year $215,000 for Foreign Missions, $130,000 for Domestic Missions, and $62,000 for Church Extension; while our Women's Foreign Missionary Society raised $66,000, making a total of nearly $475,000 for missionary purposes proper. Our publishing interests are in a flourishing condition, notwithstanding the financial stringency of the times. The Lord of the vineyard smiles upon our labours, and by the good hand of His providence and grace upon us we are confidently anticipating yet more abundant harvests.

Praying the guidance of the Holy Spirit during your annual session, that all your labours may be begun, continued, and ended in Him,

I remain, dear brethren,
Most sincerely your brother in Christ Jesus,

JOHN J. TIGERT,

Book Editor of the M.E. Church, South, and one of the Secretaries of the General Conference.

NASHVILLE, TENN., June 28, 1895.

IV. CONNEXIONAL SUNDAY-SCHOOL UNION.

2 AND 3, LUDGATE CIRCUS BUILDINGS, LONDON, E.C.

THE Report of the year's work is encouraging. The numerical returns show an increase of 9,704 Scholars on the Registers, and an increased average attendance in the afternoon of 15,334. There are 5,068 Scholars above fifteen years of age in excess of those reported a year ago. In our Junior Society Classes there is an increase of 2,692 Members, and in full Church Membership an increase of 1,581.

The Committee of the Union has given careful attention during the past year to the important subject of Catechetical instruction—and by all possible ways has striven to aid our Teachers. The Committee is convinced that greater prominence and emphasis should be given to our distinctive Methodist doctrines—by the use in all our Schools of the Conference Catechisms or Tablets. Special Helps in the Sunday-school Magazine and Methodist Sunday-school Record have been given, and no pains or expense have been spared to make the Tablets attractive. The Committee appeals with affectionate earnestness to all our Ministers and Sunday-school Teachers to consider the urgent and vital importance of training our young people IN THE DOCTRINES AND PRINCIPLES OF THEIR OWN CHURCH. There is a bad tendency, in many directions, to regard definite doctrinal statement, and the inculcation of the essential principles of Wesleyan Methodism, as of little account in the instruction of our Methodist youth. This tendency must be checked and resisted by all true friends of Methodism.

A noteworthy feature in the year has been the consideration by a special Committee of the following suggestion from the First London District Synod referred by the last Conference to the Sunday-school Union: "That the Conference be respectfully requested to refer to the Sunday-school Union Committee, with additions affording an adequate number of persons familiar with the best methods of secular instruction, the question whether our Sunday-school System, successful as it is, has of late years kept up with the march of modern education; and if, in their opinion, it has not, to make suggestions for its improvement."

Two Special Meetings of the Committee, with such invited representatives, have been held.

The Committee was of opinion that the improvement in Sunday-school methods since 1870 had been remarkable, and though it was not prepared to pronounce judgment upon the rate of progress as "compared with the march of modern education," yet it deemed it of the utmost importance that our Sunday Schools should avail themselves of every facility for improving their methods, and of securing everywhere a high moral tone and standard on the part of Officers and Teachers.

In order to assist our Teachers to qualify themselves more fully for their great work, the Committee unanimously agreed,—

1. To issue an attractive Manual of Method at a cheap rate, for Sunday-school Teachers; and to ask Mr. James Bailey, Head Master of Southlands Training College, who has had many years' experience as Superintendent of Sunday Schools, to prepare the work for the Union.

2. To suggest to our Sunday-school Teachers' Meetings and Committees, wherever practicable :

(1) The arrangement of Courses of Addresses to Teachers in Circuit gatherings, or groups of Schools, or through Circuit Sunday-school Unions.

(2) The formation of Preparation Classes, with occasional specimen or model lessons; and written examinations for Teachers which might grow out of such classes.

(3) The greater utilisation of the thousands of trained Day School Teachers in the country, whose services might be obtained, especially in the interests of our younger Teachers. Such trained Teachers are found in all our Circuits, and are willing, when invited, to address Teachers' Meetings on the best methods of teaching, and also to give specimen or model lessons to classes of children, in the presence of the Teachers.

3. To forward these suggestions through the post to all our Schools.

Children's Day (third Sunday in October) was impressively observed throughout Methodism. Great blessing was received in many schools, and the Committee has reason to believe that the cases are becoming few in which special efforts are not made on that day to bring the claims of Christ clearly and urgently before our Scholars.

The Union Committee has aided the scheme approved by the last Conference to confer Certificates for Religious Knowledge, and the first year's result is encouraging.

The Secretary has visited a large number of Schools this year, and has held Conventions of Sunday-school workers in various parts of the country. At these Conventions suggestions have been given as to the best methods of Sunday-school Management, the need of adaptation to the requirements of present-day Scholars, many of whom are in the highest standards in the Elementary Schools, and the need of dealing intelligently, and with loving care and fidelity, with our Senior Scholars, who now number nearly a quarter of a million. (241,271 above 15 years of age.)

The Trade Department continues to be satisfactory, and the Committee has arranged to affiliate poor Schools, having 100 Scholars or less, at 2s. 6d. subscription per annum, the application coming through the Teachers' Meeting, and the Circuit Superintendent certifying that the School is really necessitous. Such Schools to receive pro ratâ grants. It is also hoped that within the next Connexional year the Union may be able to assist new Sunday-school erections in needy localities by a small grant towards outfit expenses.

APPENDIX IV.

ABSTRACT OF THE REPORT

OF THE

CHILDREN'S HOME AND ORPHANAGE.

THE year which closed on March 31 began with the most anxious Budget Committee we have ever held. It was found that the ordinary expenditure had exceeded the income of the previous year by over £2,000, and that unless the expenditure could be lessened by a large amount, or the income largely increased, a heavy debt would speedily accumulate. After the most careful consideration, the Committee resolved not as yet to hold its hand, but to authorise expenditure for the ensuing year on the scale of the year just closed, or in other words, not to require that the number of children received for training should be immediately diminished. But the Committee could only feel it right to do this for one more year; and that not without a clear statement that an increase of income amounting to £2,500 was absolutely necessary if the work were to be continued without diminution.

THE TASK OF THE YEAR.

The result of the appeal to our friends has been such as to cause thanksgiving to God, and grateful acknowledgment of the activity and generosity of our friends. £111 17*s.* 6*d.* has been offered towards the deficiency of last year; and the amount received from subscribers and benefactors and from public meetings has increased by £2,620. The total ordinary expenditure has been less than the ordinary income by £84 17*s.* 2*d.* Considerable special expenditure has, however, been incurred upon buildings, sanitary improvements, and other necessary charges; so that the uncovered debt of the Home has somewhat increased, being £3,025 as against £2,301 at the commencement of the year. The Committee has felt safe, therefore, in estimating the income and expenditure of the current year at amounts which will justify the maintenance of all existing work, and, in addition, the opening of the Holiday House at Edgworth and the Meriden House at Birmingham. As these will be chargeable only for a portion of the year, the additional cost will be only about £630.

The financial position, therefore, is that the maintenance of our present scale of operations, with a small increase, is justified, if the income of the year just closed can be maintained in the year upon which we have entered.

But we are pledged to erect the Beckett Memorial House at Edgworth, so that it shall be ready to receive its inmates within two years. The money for this building is already provided, but the maintenance of the children in it will involve an additional expenditure of perhaps £400 a year.

The League of the Children's Friends.

To aid in consolidating and improving our financial position, we have formed our "League of the Children's Friends." This is an association of ladies and gentlemen who are willing to represent us in their several localities by any helpful service. During the year, 423 leaguers have been enrolled.

Since the Home was established, 3,664 children have been received. During the year, 217 children have entered, and the like number have left. On March 31 we had a larger number of boys and girls actually under our care than at any previous moment in our history—no less than 902. The normal accommodation of our Children's Home in its various branches is as follows:

Lancashire	195
Birmingham	146
Gravesend	170
Ramsey...	45

There are also resident in the Canadian Home about 25 children on an average. The total is 931.

There are several important departments of work which naturally arise out of our work for children which ought to receive mention.

When the children leave us they are still watched over and cared for, which involves much care and expense. To the 900 above mentioned, therefore, must be added at least 500 young people who are being carefully supervised and helped during the formative years of their life.

Further, arising out of our work, we have an important system for protecting girls and young women from the many dangers to which they are exposed in our modern life. Our "Girls' Helpful League" is an association of ladies in various parts of the country who undertake the friendly oversight of girls and young women, whose names may be sent to members of the League either by our Central Office or any other lay member of the Society. The services of this association are being constantly brought into requisition. Apart from much that is being done locally, 72 cases have been dealt with at our Central Office during the last year.

This Children's Home grew out of earnest, evangelical life: hence every Branch is a home mission centre. In London we maintain two very interesting and valuable missions, which are doing a large amount of quiet, steady work in a very poor neighbourhood.

Our Children's Mission influences several hundreds of the poorest boys and girls of the East End, and is doing excellent work.

Statistics.

The particulars of our work to be borne in mind by those who desire to understand the scope and spirit of our enterprise, as well as by those who are disposed to exercise their undoubted right of a careful investigation of our accounts:

Resident, March 31, 1895	931
Other children received during the year	217
Girls and young women benefited by our Agency ...	72
Total	1,220
Still under visitation and oversight	500
If the children of our missions be included, the total for whom we have been directly labouring during the year is fully	2,500

APPENDIX V.

ABSTRACT OF THE REPORT OF THE TEMPERANCE COMMITTEE.

The Committee ventures to point out the following as some of the methods for awakening a deeper interest in the cause of Temperance. Temperance Sunday affords a splendid opportunity for arousing attention to the magnitude of the evil with which we are confronted, and for awakening a deep spirit of Christian compassion for the awful sufferings of tens of thousands of the poor victims of drink, and of those who are dependent upon them. The most successful Bands of Hope and Temperance Societies are, unquestionably, those which have a meeting every week; but there are many places where this is impracticable. In such places much might be done by holding occasional meetings for the enrolment of our own Temperance people, and for bearing our public witness upon this question. Circuit Unions would greatly aid in the extension and strengthening of our work. The Committees of the Synods might also do much to stimulate the work in their respective Districts. It is absurd to suppose that the only function of these Committees is the supervision of a Schedule. They ought to exercise the same oversight over their department as the other Committees of the Synod do over those which are intrusted to them. The Committee also hopes that the direction of the Conference requiring the September Synods to take into consideration the best methods for promoting Temperance within the District will not be allowed to remain a dead letter.

During the year the Committee has earnestly exerted itself in support of the Local Option Bill introduced into Parliament by Her Majesty's Government. A Petition was presented to the House of Commons on June 21, bearing 18,753 signatures of Local Preachers of the various Methodist Churches, distributed thus: Wesleyan Methodist, 8,024; Primitive Methodist, 6,844; United Methodist Free Churches, 1,893; Bible Christian, 939; Methodist New Connexion, 582; Wesleyan Reform Union, 291. A Manifesto in support of the Bill, signed by the Presidents of the above-named Conferences, has also been issued during the year. The remarkable unanimity of our own Church in this matter is shown by the fact that all the May Synods, except the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man (which have no connexion with our legislation), passed a Resolution, or adopted a Petition, or both, in support of the Bill; in every case, except Lincoln, unanimously, and in Lincoln by a large majority.

The Report of the Opium Commission condemns opium-smoking by a practically unanimous verdict. Ninety per cent of the opium grown in British India is sent to China for smoking only. It is therefore a matter of urgency that effect should be given to the views of the Commissioners, who recommended the suppression of opium-smoking dens in India, and that China should be formally and officially assured that Great Britain will never again use pressure to prevent her from increasing the import duty on opium, or removing it from her tariff, if she thinks fit to do so.

COMMON CASH.

MEMORANDUM OF DISTRIBUTION OF PROFITS.

Theological Institution Fund	162	15	0

The Gross Profit on the year's working amounts to £602 18*s.* 9*d.*, to which is added a small balance on last year of £11 2*s.* 6*d.*, showing £614 1*s.* 3*d.* to be distributed by the Committee at its meeting in October.

The above Tables will show how great is the advantage of the Common Cash system to the Funds of Methodism. All Funds that have to borrow obtain their overdrafts on the lowest possible terms; viz. the actual Bank Rate of the day, and they borrow largely from each other rather than from the Bank. Funds having credit balances obtain Deposit rate of interest; in addition to which they receive, according to the credit balances they have kept, their full proportion of profits.

APPENDIX X.

REPORT OF THE THEOLOGICAL INSTITUTION COMMITTEE.

THE Committee refers to the reports of the Tutors and Examiners as showing that the work of the Colleges has been, during the year, attended generally with good results.

The number of Students under training has been 182; viz. 50 at Richmond, 55 at Didsbury, 37 at Headingley, and 40 at Birmingham.

The health of the men at Didsbury is reported as having been better than for the last few years, at Headlingley as generally excellent, at Birmingham such as to awaken thankfulness. Richmond, however, reports several cases of severe illness. Influenza, pleurisy, pericarditis, and three instances of mental overstrain, have "sadly interfered with the regular course of study." Seven men were unable to take the final College examinations. A spirit of lassitude is said to have overtaken even those who were not laid aside by actual illness, so that high results have not been obtained from the labours of the year.

With the exception of one grave case of discipline, the conduct of the men at the several Colleges, their religious life, observance of College rules, and attention to the prescribed course of study, has been, on the whole, satisfactory.

One Tutor has been "gratified to observe a truer interest in Theological questions, not only because it rendered their studies more agreeable to the Students and more successful, but also because it gave promise of habitual and lifelong attention to such questions as are fundamental to a sound and effective ministry."

The preaching of the Students in the towns and villages adjacent to the Colleges has been warmly appreciated and, in many instances, fruitful.

Mingling the men allocated to the Home and Foreign work in the several Branches of the Institution has, it is believed, been productive of good. An intense and an increasing interest has been taken in the Mission cause. Several Home men have, during the year, volunteered for Foreign work. Missionary Meetings are annually held at all the Colleges, the chairman and speakers being Students in residence, and the collections taken this year show a gratifying increase on any former year. The following amounts were raised in connexion with these meetings:

Didsbury	76	4	6
Headingley...	60	7	8
Birmingham	131	6	8
Total	£695	3	9

This represents an increase on the year of £164 12*s.* 6*d.*

The Conference authorised the Trustees of the Richmond Estate to let certain portions of the land on building lease. Nine handsome dwelling-houses are now in course of erection, which will yield an annual ground rent of £145.

A Sub-Committee has been appointed to ascertain the facts in regard to our rights in the minerals on the Birmingham College Estate, so that the Trustees might take such action to maintain them as should be found necessary. A mining engineer has been appointed to make a survey, and his report has been received.

The Committee has arranged that a return shall be made, from time to time, of the names and indebtedness of men who have been trained in the Colleges, and have left our ministry and Methodism without having discharged their financial obligations to the Institution. The form of agreement with the authorities of the Institution, signed by entering students, has been revised.

By the generosity of Mr. John F. Haworth, the library of the Rev. W. B. Pope, D.D., has been purchased and presented to the Didsbury Branch of the Institution—a valuable momento of the Theological Tutor, whose saintly character and distinguished service in the training of Students through successive years the Committee is ever pleased to recall.

APPENDIX XI.

LOCAL PREACHERS' MEETINGS.

THE following are the Regulations of the Conference in regard to Superintendents and Local Preachers' Meetings:

[Some time previous to the death of Wesley, the Superintendent Ministers had met the Local Preachers occasionally, more especially when the new Circuit Plans were about to be made; but from the great extent of many of the Circuits, this could not be a universal practice. It was not till the year 1796, five years after Wesley's death, that any formal recognition was made of Local Preachers' Meetings. Then it was enacted that, from that time, wherever it should be found practicable, the Superintendent should meet the Local Preachers every quarter. And that, instead of its being left entirely to the Superintendent Minister to take on the Plan whomsoever he thought fit, none should thenceforward be admitted but those who were approved of at that Meeting, or at the Quarterly Meeting of the Circuit, where Local Preachers' Meetings could not be held. (See Beecham's Constitution of Wesleyan Methodism, pp. 11, 12.)]

The Superintendent shall regularly meet the Local Preachers once a quarter; and, without the approval of that Meeting, no person shall be recognised as a Local Preacher, or, as such, be allowed to preach among us.

If, in any Circuit, a regular Local Preachers' Meeting cannot be held, Local Preachers shall be proposed and approved at the Quarterly Meeting of the Circuit [subject to the Regulations which apply to Local Preachers' Meetings in such matters]. (See Minutes, vol. xvii. [1869], p. 624.)

Local Preachers on Trial are expected to attend the Local Preachers' Meeting, but are not entitled to vote.

All the Ministers and Preachers on Trial appointed to a Circuit have a constitutional right to take part as Members in Local Preachers' Meetings. (See Minutes, vol. xii. [1852], p. 121.)

Supernumerary Ministers shall also have the right to attend and take part in the Local Preachers' Meetings in the Circuits in which they reside.

The Circuit Plan for the Travelling and Local Preachers shall be made by the Superintendent or his Colleagues. (See Minutes, vol. iii. [1811], p. 221.)

The Conference adopts the following

ORDER AND FORM OF BUSINESS.

The Minutes of the previous Meeting shall be read; and, when approved as a correct record, shall be signed by the Chairman.

QUESTIONS.

I. Is there any Objection to any Local Preacher or Exhorter whose name is on the Circuit Plan, such as affects his standing on the Plan?

The names of Local Preachers shall be called over one by one.

The Meeting has authority to make these enquiries; and it may censure a Local Preacher, silence him, or remove his name from the Plan.

Any Brother who has been aggrieved in any matter affecting his standing as a Local Preacher by the action of an ordinary Local Preachers' Meeting shall have the right of appeal to a Local Preachers' Meeting specially convened to reconsider the case, and the decision of that Meeting shall be final. Any action, however, which may be taken by the Local Preachers' Meeting cannot interfere with the jurisdiction of the Leaders' Meeting, which alone can decide questions affecting Church Membership.

In this general Question the following four particulars are included:

1. Is there any Objection to his moral and religious character?

2. Is there any Objection on the ground that he does not believe and preach our Doctrines?

3. Is there any Objection on the ground that he does not duly observe our Discipline?

All Local Preachers shall meet in Class. (See Minutes, vol. i. [1796], p. 361; and Minutes, vol. xvii. [1869], p. 624.)

Local Preachers should consider themselves under special obligation regularly to partake of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper.

Every Local Preacher is bound to fulfil the appointments given to him. If, at any time, he should be unable to do so, he himself shall provide a duly accredited Substitute.

When, through sudden illness, a Local Preacher cannot either take his appointment or find a Supply, he shall communicate at once with the Superintendent.

4. Has he competent abilities for our work?

This question includes efficiency and general acceptance, as well as physical competence.

II. Has any Brother died during the Quarter?

III. Has any Brother resigned his position as a Local Preacher?

IV. Has any Brother whose name is on the Plan removed into another Circuit? If so, to what Circuit has he been accredited?

V. Has any duly accredited Local Preacher come to reside in this Circuit?

Every duly accredited Local Preacher is entitled to be placed, without renewed Trial or Examination, upon the Plan of any Circuit to which he may remove; provided he present his Note of Removal and current Circuit Plan, and shall have become a Member of Society in that Circuit. This, of course, does not apply to Local Preachers on Trial.

The position of a Local Preacher on the Plan of the Circuit to which he may remove shall be decided by the Local Preachers' Meeting concerned.

VI. Is any one now on Trial to be fully received as a Local Preacher?

Before any Candidate is fully admitted as a Local Preacher, he shall have been twelve months on Probation. (See Minutes, vol. xx. [1876], p. 156.)

The Local Preachers' Meeting shall have power to extend the period of Probation, if such a measure be deemed desirable.

No Candidate shall be fully admitted as a Local Preacher until he has read the Fifty-three Standard Sermons of Mr. Wesley, and his Notes on the New Testament, and until he has passed a satisfactory examination in the definitions and Scripture proofs of the leading doctrines of Christianity as there explained. (See Minutes, vol. xx. [1876], p. 155.)

Before the Candidate is examined, he shall give an account of his conversion to God, his present Christian experience, and his call to preach.

In the receiving of a person as a fully accredited Local Preacher, or receiving one on Trial, it is, in all cases, the sole right and duty of the Superintendent to nominate the Candidate; and the approval or rejection rests with the Meeting.

It is recommended that, wherever practicable, Local Preachers, after being received on Full Plan, shall be recognised at a Public Religious Service.

Every fully accredited Local Preacher shall be a Member of the Circuit Quarterly Meeting.

VII. Who are continued on Trial?

The names of the Brethren on Probation shall be entered in the Minutes of the Meeting, with the number of Quarters that each has been on Trial.

It is desirable that, during his first, second, and third Quarter on Trial, every Brother shall be heard by one or more Local Preachers appointed by the Meeting, who shall report as to the Candidate's gifts and preaching ability.

When a Brother has been on Trial three Quarters, arrangements shall be made for his preaching a Trial Sermon in the presence of, at least, three Local Preachers, who shall submit to the next Meeting a written Report of the Sermon.

VIII. Who are received on Trial?

Before any Candidate comes upon the Plan on Trial, he shall be examined by the Superintendent, or under his direction, in the Summary of Christian Doctrine and Bible History, and (when necessary) in the Elements of English Grammar. (See Minutes, vol. xix. [1874], p. 455.)

IX. Does this Meeting recommend that any Brother receive from the Superintendent a Note, authorising him to preach, or exhort? And what is the Report concerning those Brethren, if any, who have been preaching on Note during the past Quarter?

It is not competent to any Local Preacher to send, or take with him any one, to preach or exhort, without the sanction of the Superintendent.

Before giving a Note, the Superintendent shall converse with the Brother privately in relation to his conversion, his present religious experience, and his knowledge and belief of our Doctrines.

If the Superintendent regards the result of this conversation as satisfactory, he shall give the Brother a Note, authorising him to preach or exhort within the limits of his own Circuit, and in the presence always of an accredited Local Preacher.

He shall preach in the presence of, at least, two Local Preachers—not necessarily of two on the same occasion—who shall report to the Meeting with a view to his being received on Trial.

The Note shall be valid for one Quarter only; but, when necessary, it may be renewed.

Superintendents should give special attention to eligible and promising young men with a view to their becoming Local Preachers, and should direct their reading and studies to that end. (See Minutes, vol. xix. [1874], p. 455.)

X. Does this Meeting recommend that the names of any Brethren be placed on the Plan as Exhorters?

The necessities of our work require that suitable persons should be employed in the capacity of Exhorters, such persons having the approbation of the Superintendent of the Circuit and the Local Preachers' Meeting. (See Minutes, vol. xx. [1876], p. 155.)

XI. Does this Meeting recommend any change in the hours of Service on the Lord's Day?

XII. Does this Meeting recommend that any New Place be put on the Plan?

"In every Circuit, let us try to open new places; let us try again places which have not been recently visited; . . . let us not be satisfied till every town, village, and hamlet in our respective neighbourhoods shall be blessed, as far as we can possibly accomplish it, with the means of grace and salvation." (See Minutes, vol. v. [1820], pp. 147, 148.)

XIII. Does this Meeting recommend that any Place now on the Plan be given up?

Let no place be lightly given up. But in order to revive and increase small and decaying congregations, especially in villages, let us have recourse to the practice of preaching out of doors; going to those who need us most; and seeking, by all means, to gather into the house of God them that are lost. (See Minutes, vol. v. [1820], p. 147.)

Before any Place is taken off the Plan, it is necessary to obtain the sanction of the Circuit Quarterly Meeting.

GENERAL.

I. What is the State of the Work of God in this Circuit so far as the work of the Local Preachers has relation thereto?

II. How can we so prepare ourselves that, more than hitherto, "our gospel" shall come unto the people, "not in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Ghost"?

III. Can anything be done to improve our preaching, and render it more successful?

The Conference recommends that, wherever it is practicable, a Class shall be formed in each Circuit for the purpose of assisting the Local Preachers in their Theological Studies. (See Minutes, vol. xx. [1876], p. 156.)

SPECIAL

MARCH.

What is the Number of accredited Local Preachers in this Circuit, to be returned, through the District Synod, to the Conference? (See Minutes, 1883, p. 182.)

What arrangements can be made for holding Open Air Services during the summer months?

SEPTEMBER.

I. The Superintendent shall give to each Local Preacher a copy of the Annual Address of the Conference to the Wesleyan Methodist Societies.

II. A Secretary for the next year shall be elected.

DECEMBER.

I. The Report of the Treasurer of any Fund held at the disposal of the Local Preachers' Meeting shall be presented.

II. Suggestions relating to Watch-night Services and Covenant Services may be considered.

APPENDIX XII.

ORDER AND FORM OF THE BUSINESS OF THE CONFERENCE.

THE CONFERENCE RESOLVES THAT

1. All questions of Policy and Finance within the province of the Conference in its Representative Session shall be settled before the Ministerial appointments affected by such questions are confirmed.

2. The Representative Session shall commence on the Monday following the first Lord's day after the opening of the Conference, and the discussion and confirmation of the Stations by the Pastoral Session shall be reserved until after the close of the Representative Session.

3. All questions which have to be brought before the Representative Session of the Conference, and are also within the province of the Pastoral Session, may, if thought desirable, be considered and discussed during the first week of such Pastoral Session, but not voted upon until after the Meeting of the Representative Session.

4. If any Resolutions shall be adopted by the Pastoral and Representative Sessions respectively, which, in the judgment of the President, are in conflict with each other, such Resolutions shall not be confirmed by the Legal Conference; but shall be reported accordingly to the respective Sessions of the next Conference.

The Conference adopts the following ORDER AND FORM OF BUSINESS, subject to such modifications as may hereafter be found necessary or convenient.

I. PASTORAL SESSION.

Previously to each Conference, the Stationing Committee shall meet in London in connexion with the Annual Meeting of the Home Mission Committee, and shall prepare and issue the First Draft of the Stations of Ministers. If necessary, the Committee may meet again in the Conference town on the Monday afternoon or evening preceding the Conference.

The Business of the Conference, when composed of Ministers only, includes the following Subjects :

1. The formal constitution of the Legal Conference :
   - (a) Calling the Roll of the Legal Conference.
   - (b) Declarations of Vacancies in the Legal Conference, caused by death, or by absence for two successive years without a dispensation, and filling up of the same.
   - (c) Election of President.
   - (d) Election of Secretary.
   - (e) Granting Dispensations to absent Members of the Legal Conference.
   - (f) Declarations of Vacancies in the Legal Conference, caused by Superannuation, and filling up of the same.

2. Thanks to the retiring President and Secretary, and to other Officers of the Conference.

3. Appointment of Assistant-Secretaries.

4. Appointment of hours of Conference Sessions.

5. Reception of Memorials, and Suggestions from District Committees; and appointment of a Committee to report thereon.

6. Appointment of Committees:

(a) On Appeals, and other Cases.

(b) To report on Chapel cases which affect discipline.

(c) To prepare the Pastoral Address.

(d) To report upon the number of Ministers from each District who may attend the Conference when Ministers only are present; and the number of Ministers from each District who may attend the Conference when Ministers and Laymen are present.

(e) To report upon the cases of Ministers who have had Supplies during the year; the list to be furnished by the retiring President.

N.B.—1. The retiring President on the second day of the Conference to furnish a List of all Ministers who have had Supplies during the year.

2. Also, on the second day of the Conference to furnish a List of Preachers on his List of Reserve, with particulars of their employment during the year. (See "Standing Orders," pp. 333–336.)

(f) To consider applications for the services of Probationers on the List of Reserve.

7. Appointment of eighteen Ministers to serve on the Nomination Committee; and also of the Ministerial Secretary thereof.

8. Presentation of any documents legally required to be forthcoming at the Conference.

[The above Business will probably be concluded on the first day of the Conference.]

N.B.—The Conference Prayer-meeting is to be held on the first day of the Conference at 3 p.m.

9. Notices of Motion.—These should be presented not later than the second day of the Conference; but such Notices may be given subsequently, if occasion arise.

N.B.—No Motion on any subject not before the Conference in the ordinary course of its business can be considered until after twenty-four hours' notice thereof has been given.

10. Questions affecting the character of Ministers and Preachers on Trial.

11. Supernumeraries:
   (a) Ministers becoming Supernumeraries.
   (c) Supernumeraries returning to the Full Work.

12. Candidates for the Ministry now recognised:
   (a) Candidates on the President's List of Reserve.
   (b) Students in the Theological Institution.
   (d) Appointment of a Candidates' Allocation Committee.

13. Report upon the Examination of Preachers on Trial; and Examination Arrangements.

14. Preachers to be admitted into Full Connexion.

15. Examination of Candidates for Ordination, and their admission into Full Connexion.

An explicit declaration by each Candidate of his belief of the Doctrines of Methodism shall be substituted for the Theological Examination.

16. Probationers:
   (a) Remaining on Trial.
   (b) Now received on Trial.

17. Report of the Book Committee, and Supervision of Connexional Literature.

18. Such Reports of Committees as are necessary for the business of the Stationing Committee, including the Report of the Committee on "Appeals, and other Cases"; and on "Transfers."

[It is expected that the above-mentioned business will, as a rule, be completed in the first week of the Conference.]

N.B.—The Stationing Committee may conveniently meet on the Saturday evening of the first week of the Conference.

II. REPRESENTATIVE SESSION.

The Representative Session commences on the Monday of the second week of the Conference.

Order of the Business of the Conference when composed of Ministers and Laymen; so arranged as to show the Order of Time in which the several subjects may be considered.

N.B.—The Committees of the several Departments shall present Reports of their proceedings during the year, with such Statistical and Financial statements as may be required; and shall also prepare for the Conference the Business of their respective Departments.

MONDAY.—Morning:

1. Roll of Attendance, as compiled from the District Minutes.

2. Address by the President.

3. Appointment of Hours of Sessions.

4. Appointment of Time and Place for holding the next Conference.

5. Reception of Memorials, and Suggestions of District Committees; and appointment of a Committee to report thereon.

6. Notices of Motion. Such Notices may be given subsequently, if occasion arise.

N.B.—No Motion on any subject not before the Conference in the ordinary course of its business can be considered until after twenty-four hours' notice thereof has been given.

7. Appointment of a Lay Secretary to the Committee to nominate Connexional Mixed Committees. This Committee will consider nominations of Members presented by the Committees of Departments.

8. Appointment of a Committee to report the number of Laymen from each District who may attend the next Conference when composed of Ministers and Laymen.

9. The Home Mission and Contingent Fund.

AN ALPHABETICAL LIST

OF THE

WESLEYAN METHODIST MINISTERS AND PREACHERS ON TRIAL IN GREAT BRITAIN AND IRELAND, AND ON THE COLONIAL AND FOREIGN STATIONS UNDER THE BRITISH CONFERENCE.

For List of Preachers on Trial not appointed to Circuits, see "President's List of Reserve," pp. 7, 9, 10, 11.

1. The figures in the first column mark simply the year in which each Minister entered on his work; those which immediately follow the name of the Circuit denote the number of the Circuit on the Stations, the Mission Stations being distinguished by a number in brackets; and the numbers which stand at the right of the third column denote the year of annual appointment.

2. This list has been compiled for the purpose of convenient reference; no pains have been spared to insure accuracy, but it is not to be considered official.

Printed by Hazell, Watson, & Viney, Ld., London and Aylesbury.

THE "LIFE INDEED" SERIES.

Crown 8vo, price 3s. 6d. each Volume.

SOME LAWS AND LANDMARKS OF THE SPIRITUAL LIFE.

BY THE REV. W. A. GRAY. New Volume.

THE HOLY SPIRIT and CHRISTIAN PRIVILEGE.

BY REV. T. G. SELBY, Third Thousand.

Author of "The Imperfect Angel" and "The Lesson of a Dilemma."

"For force with reverence, for expository genius with illustrative aptitude, it is hard to name, among modern preachers, a rival to Mr. Selby."—The Christian World.

"Rarely have we met with sermons of such high and sustained excellence. Mr. Selby shows a depth of spiritual insight, a wide philosophic grasp, and a large experience of the varied exigencies of human life not often to be found in the published homilies of the day. . . . Whether from a theological or literary standpoint, these sermons will take the highest place among the best published sermons of the day."—Birmingham Daily Gazette.

"Mr. Selby in this volume sustains the reputation he has won by his previous books as a fresh and original religious writer. . . . Especially noticeable is the aptness of his illustrations, which flow copiously from an evidently richly stored mind. The book all through is full of pregnant and elevated thought."—The Glasgow Herald.

"It is full of strenuous and unhackneyed thought, fine spiritual perception, and apt and striking illustration. No book that we know covers the same ground in the same way."—The Literary World.

"Strongly evangelical, and the treatment of every aspect of the subject is Scriptural, devout, thoughtful, and practical. . . . All devout Christians will find instruction and inspiration from the study of such a volume."—The Christian.

THE INSPIRATIONS OF THE CHRISTIAN LIFE.

Author of "The Gospel of St. John: An Exposition."

"Fresh and stimulating in a high degree."—The Christian Leader.

"Here is a book worth writing and worth reading. . . . The treatment is Biblical, the spirit devout, and the whole well calculated to evoke and confirm faith."—Sword and Trowel.

THE DISCIPLINE OF THE SOUL: Its AIMS and METHODS.

BY PROF. R. WADDY MOSS.

"He is no ordinary preacher, but a Biblical student in the truest sense of the term. . . . We can commend the volume as graceful in style, scholarly in treatment, and spiritual in tone."—Dundee Courier.

"These are sermons of a high order of thinking. Mr. Moss, with keen spiritual insight, sees the essentials of the Christian faith, and presents them with perspicuous forceful words."—The Christian Age.

THE WINTER NUMBER, price Threepence (116 pages), contains nothing but True Stories of Methodism, beautifully and profusely illustrated. This popular Annual (published in November) is by far the cheapest Methodist publication ever issued. Its sale increases largely every year. Last year's Number, including reprint editions, was sold out before Christmas, and hundreds of would-be purchasers were disappointed.

The Mission of The Children's Home is to rescue children who, through the death or vice or extreme poverty of their parents, are in danger of falling into criminal ways. It is therefore at once an Orphanage and a Refuge.

The Home receives children of any age, or any sect, without election. It is conducted on the Family system; is a Religious and Industrial Institution; is a Training School for Christian Workers; and is dependent on Voluntary Contributions.

Within the last twenty-six years about 3,700 children have received the benefits of this Institution. Nearly 930 are now in residence. About £16 will maintain a child in the Home for a year.

Nearly 2,770 children have now passed through the Home, and there is the greatest cause for thankfulness to God for the present well-being and for the prospects in life of a large majority of this great number.

In connexion with this work the Gordon Hall Mission is carried on in the East End of London; an agency for the Protection of Girls is at work, a refuge being available night and day; a Servants' Free Registry is open, and Lodgings are provided for respectable young women during the interval between situations; also a Mission to the Poorest Children of East London is very successfully carried on. The entire work is greatly in need of more liberal support. The smallest contributions will be thankfully received.

The need of such a work is painfully obvious. Our cities and towns are crowded with children exposed to every evil influence, shut out from all good, living a life worse than that of savages, and as they grow up they naturally take their places in the ranks of the pauper and the criminal. Yet they may be saved. Hundreds of cases prove that these little ones—some of them mere infants—are susceptible of every elevating influence, and need only the care of a Christian home to develop all that is good in their characters, and fit them for reputable and useful lives.

Collecting Books, Boxes, or Cards will gladly be forwarded to those who are willing to collect in aid of the funds of the Institution.

Cheques and Money Orders should be crossed City Bank, and Orders made payable at General Post Office.

Remittances to be made payable and sent to T. B. STEPHENSON, Bonner Road, London, N.E.

THE WESLEYAN METHODIST

ONE PENNY MONTHLY.

This is the latest and not the least popular of the Magazines of Methodism. It aims in honest and pleasant fashion to teach the people, showing them what Methodism is, and what it is doing in the world.

No expense is spared in order to give, both to young and old, a Magazine which they will read, and which will make them proud of their Church and thankful to God for its work.

During the coming year, for which arrangements are now being made, special attention will be given to the needs of the YOUNG PEOPLE OF METHODISM.

BY FAR THE BEST
METHODIST MAGAZINE FOR LOCALISATION.

It is specially adapted for localisation. Methodist Councils and groups of Circuits have adopted it. It is going through the towns and villages of England, rousing Foreign Missionary enthusiasm, illuminating Home Missionary work, and making our ordinary Circuit life and all the institutions of Methodism live before the eyes and the hearts of the people. It is also being adopted in India, Africa, and other colonial and foreign countries.

CIRCUITS, SYNODS, AND COUNCILS
INTENDING TO ADOPT A MAGAZINE FOR LOCALISATION

Should send to the Book Room for Specimen Copies and Prices for Quantities of this homely and out-and-out Methodist Magazine.

Its success has been unprecedented. In less than three years it has secured an enormous circulation.

An Introduction to the Study of Hebrew. By J. T. L. MAGGS, B.A., Prizeman in Hebrew and New Testament Greek, London University. Small crown 8vo, 5*s.*

"Mr. Maggs has done an excellent piece of useful, unpretending work. Its distinctive merit is the perfect clearness of its grammatical instruction. . . . Mr. Maggs has certainly acquired a full appreciation of the points that at the outset require to be made clear."—The Literary World.

From Malachi to Matthew; Outlines of the History of Judea from 440 to 4 B.C. By R. WADDY MOSS, Tutor in Classics and Mathematics, Didsbury College, Manchester. Second Thousand. Small crown 8vo, 2*s.* 6*d.*

"Mr. Moss's book is worthy of the series. His style is straightforward and graphic. He can tell a story rapidly and forcibly. There is vigour and there is vitality throughout. It is to be hoped that these Manuals will be largely used."—The British Weekly.

The Praises of Israel: An Introduction to the Study of the Psalms. By W. T. DAVISON, M.A., D.D., Tutor in Systematic Theology, Handsworth College, Birmingham. Third Thousand. Small crown 8vo, 2*s.* 6*d.*

DR. MARCUS DODS writes:—"As nearly perfect as a manual can be. It is the work of a reverent and open-minded scholar, who has spared no pains to compress into this small volume the best information and the most trustworthy results arrived at by himself and other experts."

The Gospel of St. John: An Exposition, with Short Notes. By THOS. F. LOCKYER, B.A., Author of Expositions of the Epistle to the Romans and the Epistle of James in The Pulpit Commentary. Second Thousand. Small crown 8vo, 2*s.* 6*d.*

THE BRITISH WEEKLY says:—"A terse, fresh, and thoughtful exposition of the Gospel of John. Every preacher will find useful hints in it, and the price is amazingly low—over three hundred pages for half-a-crown. It deserves to have a wide circulation."

LONDON: CHARLES H. KELLY, 2, CASTLE STREET, CITY ROAD, E.C.;

The Epistles of Paul the Apostle: A Sketch of their Origin and Contents. By GEORGE G. FINDLAY, B.A., Tutor in Biblical Literature and Exegesis, Headingley College. Fifth Thousand. Small crown 8vo, 2s. 6d.

THE SCOTSMAN says:—"The reader will find here compressed into a small space what he must otherwise seek through many volumes. . . . Mr. Findlay has before now proved himself an able and accomplished expositor of St. Paul, and this little work will fully maintain his character."

The Theological Student: A Handbook of Elementary Theology. By J. ROBINSON GREGORY. Fifth Thousand. 2s. 6d.

An Explanatory Index of Theological Terms and a very full list of Questions for Self-Examination add greatly to the practical value of the book.

THE EXPOSITORY TIMES says:—"Mr. Gregory is . . . a born and trained theologian. Some departments he has made well-nigh his own—especially the doctrine of the Last Things. And better than that, he can write for beginners."

LADIES' MONTHLY
Fancy-Work Parcel.

WHY buy expensive pieces of Fancy-Work which are often out of fashion and not designed with the best artistic taste, when, for the modest sum of 10s. 6d. half-yearly, you can receive every month a parcel containing prepared materials which afford you the pleasure of working and making up yourself the prettiest and latest pieces of work created in Paris and in London?

Each Monthly Parcel contains the necessary materials for doing the Fancy-Work described that month; all is prepared so that even ladies who have not a very large experience of Fancy-Work can easily do the work. The designs are traced on satin, on cloth, on linen, etc., and the embroidery is begun by hand; the silks, cottons, wools, silkcord, lining, etc., are enclosed, so that the work can be mounted without making any further purchase.

A special Fancy-Work and Embroidery Journal is also enclosed; it contains all the necessary illustrations and instructions concerning the pieces of work provided, and pattern sheets of other pretty pieces of work which are also fully described,

The Monthly Fancy-Work Parcels can only be had by yearly subscription, but can be paid 10s. 6d. half-yearly (carriage paid, in United Kingdom, 12s.; other countries, 14s.). For ladies who wish to form an idea of our Fancy-Work before subscribing, or who require at once several pieces of work for Presents or Bazaars, we have created Special Fancy-Work Boxes, giving an assortment of the various kinds of Work given by subscription. A Fancy Work Box costs 10s. 6d. (carriage paid, in United Kingdom, 12s.; other countries, 14s.), which amount we are willing to refund if the contents are not found satisfactory, or if 12 monthly parcels preferred.

All Letters and Remittances to Fr. TEDESCO & Co., 76, Newgate Street, London, E.C. Cheques crossed "London & Midland Bank, Ltd., Newgate Street Branch."

CHILDREN'S SURPRISE TOY PARCEL.

WHY buy expensive toys for children when they so often take so little interest in them, and derive, on the contrary, so much pleasure and amusement from toys they make up themselves? Our Monthly Parcels save the parent's purse, as they only cost the modest sum of 10s. 6d. half-yearly, and they are looked forward to with the greatest impatience by the little ones. They contain toys and games with all the materials for making the former, and playing at the latter.

We have separate parcels for Boys and for Girls.

The Boys receive instructions and materials for building bridges, houses, carriages, small pieces of furniture, railways, ships, theatres, etc.

The Girls receive dolls' trousseaux, pretty knick-knacks to ornament the dolls' house and the little girls' own rooms, etc.

All the articles sent are prepared in such a way that the children experience no difficulty in making them up. A Special Children's Journal is also enclosed. It contains numerous illustrations and explicit instructions concerning the games and toys provided.

The above-mentioned parcels can be supplied monthly by subscription for 10s. 6d. half-yearly, or in half-guinea boxes, containing an assortment of toys and games for Christmas and Birthday Presents.

All Letters and Remittances to Fr. TEDESCO & Co., 76, Newgate St., London, E.C. Cheques crossed "London and Midland Bank."
